UNION AND SHARON STEEL COMPANIES JOIN; IT MEANS A NEW RAILROAD TO LAKE ERIE

Combine of Independent Interests With $50,000,000 Capital.

FINEST PLANTS OF MODERN DAYS

Andrew W. Mellon to Be Head of Strong and Aggressive Interest.

LIGHT ON ELK HARBOR

An agreement was entered into yesterday evening for the consolidation of the Union Steel Company and the Sharon Steel Company, under capitalization of $50,000,000.

The proposed capital investment contemplates, at no remote time, the construction of an independent railroad from Elk Creek harbor, on Lake Erie, to the works at Sharon, 60 miles away, and thence to Donora, over twice that distance from the lake.

To cover the present assets of the two steel concerns and the improvements already under way, $33,000,000 in stock of the reorganized Union Steel Company is to be issued at once.

The consolidation combines the two greatest independent steel concerns of the country, outside of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company. The assets of the two concerns, figured at $33,000,000, is regarded remarkably low. The two interests have in the great ore fields of the northwest properties estimated to hold 70,000,000 tons of ore. This, figured as the United States Steel Corporation estimates its ore in the ground, is alone worth $70,000,000. This ore lies in the Mesabi and the Old Range regions.

The New Railroad Feature.

The two interests have already included in their assets an important start in an ore fleet on the lakes. In a recent purchase made of over 2,000 acres of ground at Elk Creek harbor in Pennsylvania, carrying with it a charter for a terminal railroad there, the Lake Erie Terminal Railroad Company, provision is made for the most important part of a new lake line. Surveys have already been partly made for this.

In the course of a year and a half the new Union Steel Company will have in operation seven blast furnaces, with aggregate daily capacity of 4,200 tons, which will be over one-third greater than the pig iron production of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company. To feed these monsters with ore, limestone, coal and coke, and the steel works with fuel, the new railroad will be an important factor. The two great independent interests have now arranged for terminal lines at their works and the railroad links from their coal properties. At Donora there is to be a terminal railroad system, with a bridge over the Monongahela river.

For this new railroad from the mills to the lakes there are now only tentative plans. When construction is taken up the additional $17,000,000 of stock will provide for the investment, although, of course, the railroad will be erected and operated under a subsidiary organization. There is no present purpose to co-operate for a lake line with the Jones & Laughlin interests, which are now going ahead for a lake railroad line of their own with lake terminals some distance from Elk Creek.

A. W. Mellon to Be President.

The present organization of the new Union Steel Company, arranged when the papers were signed yesterday, has the following officers: Andrew W. Mellon, president; W. H. Donner, who has been president of the Union Steel Company, vice president and general manager for the Union Steel Company and; John Stevenson, Jr., who has been vice president and general manager of the Sharon Steel Company, vice president and general manager for the Sharon interests; Robert B. Mellon, treasurer, and Senator William Flinn, chairman of the board of directors. The board has not yet been selected and Henry C. Frick may be a member.

The Union Steel Company was organized and financed by the Mellons and William H. Donner in November, 1899, it being generally understood that Mr. Frick was associated with them, although he has never been a director. The company stands under its provisional capitalization of $1,000,000, while its assets are about 20 times that figure. There are several underlying companies, covering railway terminal, ore, coal, coke and limestone operations. Besides two blast furnaces in course of erection and two more that are to be added, with aggregate capacity of 2,400 tons daily, the company has its blooming mill, an open hearth steel department of 12 50-ton furnaces, and its capacity in finished lines includes 200,000 gross tons of wire rods, 200,000 tons of wire and 1,000,000 kegs of nails.

The Union Steel Company's manufacturing site consists of over three miles of river frontage on the Monongahela and 200 acres of land. This interest

GREAT PLANTS FACE SHUTDOWN

Freight Situation at Carnegie Company's Mills Is Critical.

GETS WORSE DAILY

The great mills and furnaces of the Carnegie Steel Company at Homestead, Braddock and Duquesne are facing the probability of a general shutdown within the next week that will render 18,000 men idle. The freight congestion is so great that not only are the mills unable to move their finished product, but they cannot get the necessary supplies of raw material.

Anticipating a shutdown of the plate and merchant bar mills within the next few days, the officials of the company are preparing to make then the repairs that are usually completed during the holiday season. The machine shops have been notified to rush work on the machinery that is to replace old implements in the various departments, so that if, as is anticipated, the great mills are forced into idleness, they may use the time to make much-needed repairs on the plant.

The situation is worse today than at any time since the freight blockade became pronounced. The mill yards are piled with finished product to a height equal to that of the buildings, and there is absolutely no hope of getting any considerable quantity moved. Last month's tonnage exceeded any in the history of the company, and practically all of it is stored in the mill yards, which are filled to overflowing.

At the same time the supplies of coke and raw materials are almost shut off and there is no stock on hand. The mills are now running on what they can get each day, and this amount is getting smaller and smaller. The situation is critical and unless relieved at once may force the big plants into idleness within a week.

NEW LAW TO PROTECT NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

Project Advocated by Philadelphians—Too Many Discharges for Duty.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.

If the influence of the officers and members of the Pennsylvania national guard is successful at the next session of the legislature, a law will be passed prohibiting an employer from discharging a workman because he was taken away from his labor by a call to military duty. At present sentiment is making for this law by the frequent loss of positions by members of the Pennsylvania guard following the recent call to arms in the anthracite strike.

According to Col. Wendell P. Bowman of the First regiment, the officers of the guard among themselves have been discussing the advisability of such a law for some time. He said today he had no doubt such a law would be passed at the next session of the legislature, because the cases of discharge of militiamen are so numerous that pressure would be brought to bear on the legislature to have the military code amended.

"We have had trouble in getting the men away for a few days' encampment each year to perfect themselves in military tactics, although the obstacles encountered in this respect are not as great now as they were before public sentiment was so strong in the guardsmen's favor," said Col. Bowman. "Some other states have a law such as we need, and I think it will be given us at the next session of the legislature."

An official investigation is being made of each case of discharge as soon as it is reported. CHESTER D. POTTER.

Pittsburgh trades unions have inaugurated a system of punitive measures against the local guardsmen, who answered the call of Gov. Stone and served in the anthracite coal region. They have served notice on the soldier-members that they forfeit their standing by opposing a brother organization, and have been or will be expelled from the unions.

The first case of this kind exposed in Pittsburgh came to light a few days ago, when First Sergt. Henry Sweitzer of Company D, Fourteenth regiment, reported to his superior officers at a secret meeting that he had received notice from the Painters' union that because of his part in protecting corporation property in a district where a labor strike was in progress, he must either leave the national guard or withdraw from the union.

Col. Frank I. Rutledge of the Eighteenth regiment said last night:

"It has not been brought to my notice yet that any of my men have been expelled from their unions, but I have heard such rumors. Many of our men on returning from the coal region found that their places had been filled. If it is true that trades unions have influenced any employers to discriminate against a man who has simply done what was clearly his duty, they are simply setting their unions up against the government. The officers of the local regiments you may be sure will do all they can to secure protective legislation for the guardsmen."

MISS BELLA BROWN HEIR TO $10,000,000.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 20.—Miss Bella Brown, living at 608 Vliet street, this city, has fallen heir to a fortune estimated at over $10,000,000 through the death of a great uncle, Leo Lawrence of New York city. Mr. Lawrence was at one time a member of the New York stock exchange. Miss Brown is now 18 years old. The money will not be turned over to her until she reaches the age of 25.

Miss Ginser Broken in Health.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—So broken in health and spirits that both she and her manager feared a complete collapse, Lulu Glaser of Pittsburgh, the star of "Dolly Varden," left hurriedly this afternoon for Hot Springs, Va. At this resort she will remain for several weeks, probably until just before she joins her company for its reopening at Buffalo Christmas week.

ORDER TO MILITIA COMES TOO LATE

Negro Dillard Hanged by Mob Before Troops Can Move.

SHOT THREE TIMES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Sullivan, Ind., Nov. 20.—James Dillard, the Kentucky negro who assaulted Mrs. Mary Davis of Sullivan county and Mrs. John Lemon of Knox county on Tuesday last, was hanged to a telegraph pole one mile east of John Lemon's farm at 8 o'clock tonight by a mob.

Dillard was captured at Lawrenceville, Ill., late yesterday after a battle with the town marshal, during which the negro was shot three times and severely wounded. He was then taken to Robinson, Ill., for safe keeping.

Late this afternoon the negro was brought to Sullivan in a wagon by the sheriff and his deputies for further identification. A mob of 40 or 50 farmers, heavily armed, took the prisoner from the officers.

The negro was taken to the homes of both his victims, and was identified. From the home of Mrs. Lemon, 10 miles east, the crowd started back to Sullivan with the prisoner, but one mile east of the Lemon farm, a rope was thrown over the arm of a telegraph pole and the negro was hung.

The governor had ordered out the Vincennes militia to protect the negro, but his instructions were received too late.

After hanging the negro, the mob quietly disbursed. It was composed mostly of farmers, but was largely augmented by citizens of Sullivan, Oaktown and other towns of this county.

RACE OF BIG WARSHIPS WON BY CINCINNATI

Big First-Class Battleship Alabama a Respectable Second in Speed.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]
(Copyright, 1902, by New York Herald Co.)

ON BOARD THE UNITED STATES BATTLESHIP ALABAMA, OFF SAN JUAN, PORTO RICO, Nov. 20.—Carrying a great white bone in her teeth, and with phosphorescent spray dashing high on her sharp bows, the cruiser Cincinnati forged abreast of Calabra light at midnight tonight, a winner in the greatest ocean race of warships ever run on the North Atlantic seaboard.

Barely two miles astern of the cruiser flashed the white searchlight of the great battleship Alabama. She had distanced all her rivals of the heavyweight class and had shown her quality by putting up a hammer-and-tongs struggle all the way from Hampton Roads, Va., with the fleet-footed cruiser.

One by one she had left behind the little gunboat Machias, the stanch battleship Indiana, the formidable battleship Kearsarge, and last of all the plucky Massachusetts.

That the Alabama came in so close a second to the fast commerce destroyer Cincinnati, even though the cruiser had been handicapped 35 miles at the start, is a superb performance for a first-class battleship heavily armed and heavily armored.

LAURA BIGGAR CASE SET BACK TO DEC. 16.

FREEHOLD, N. J., Nov. 20.—The trial of Laura Biggar, Dr. Hendricks and former Justice of the Peace Stanton, accused of conspiracy in connection with the will of Henry M. Bennett of Pittsburgh, was today set back from November 24 until December 16, on motion of counsel for accused.

CAR FAMINE CLOSES ANTHRACITE MINES

SHAMOKIN, PA., Nov. 20.—The effect of the freight congestion which the Pennsylvania railroad is experiencing on account of a shortage of locomotives and cars was first felt here today when a number of collieries were shut down because of a lack of cars. Several train crews were suspended and some locomotives were shipped to the west.

Tin Mill to Resume.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Greer tin mill here of the American Tin Plate Company, is shortly to resume operations after an idleness of over three months, according to orders received from the New York offices today.

MEETINGS BEING HELD TO INCREASE THE RATES

Railroad Officials Acting Promptly in Their Advance on Freight Tariffs.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—At a meeting of the executive officials of Central Freight association lines the trunk lines and southern roads, held at the Trunk Line association's headquarters in this city, grain, provisions and kindred rates were generally advanced. An increase of 2½ cents per 100 pounds on the Chicago-New York basis for grain and grain products was decided upon. A corresponding advance in rates on glucose, glucose syrup, corn oil, corn syrup, etc., was made. The rate on dressed beef was increased 5 cents a hundred, both domestic and export, and 5 cents a hundred also on provisions.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 20.—Members of the Central Traffic association received notice today of a meeting to be held in Chicago on Tuesday to adjust freight rates in general. The meeting is looked upon by railroad men as a very important one, as the level of rates which have existed for years is to be raised. It is feared that the public will stoutly resist the proposed general increase.

MRS. NATION SHOWS HER PACES AT THE NEW YORK HORSE SHOW.

New York, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Carrie Nation created a sensation at the horse show today. She harangued the great gathering on the evils of overdress, attempted to break a bottle of champagne, and finally was ejected from the building by the police.

Stationing herself in front of the Vanderbilt box she delivered a tirade on overdress. In the box were Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Reginald Vanderbilt and Miss Nielson.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourselves," the woman screamed at them; "you ought to be ashamed to wear such disgraceful clothes. Take them off, take them off at once, and attire yourselves more modestly."

Alfred G. Vanderbilt hastily came over to where Mrs. Nation was standing and pushed her away.

She finally started for the cafe, where she bore down on a party of men drinking wine. She seized the bottle and glaring at the men shouted:

"Young men, don't drink such filthy stuff. You are going straight to hell. Where is the man who sells this stuff? Show him to me, and I will tell him what I think of him."

M. Villeqigue, the caterer, suddenly appeared.

"Get out of this horrible business," she shouted at him; "you are also going to hell and ruining the bodies and souls of men. You are dragging them down with you. Shame on you, shame on you."

The Frenchman, however, ran to Mrs. Nation and rescued the bottle which she had repeatedly brandished in the air. Then he pushed her out of the door. Here the police took hold of her and forced her out of the building.

COUNT TWO MORE FOR JOS. CANNON

Ohio and Michigan Delegations Caucus and Declare for Him.

BOWL BURTON OUT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Columbus, O., Nov. 19.—The result of the caucus of the Republican members of the Ohio delegation to congress, held today, was the selection of Joseph Cannon of Illinois as the choice for speaker.

T. E. Burton of Cleveland, whose candidacy was announced but a few days ago, was turned down, and insult was added to injury by a telegram notifying him that if he persisted in being a candidate the delegation would not formally indorse Mr. Cannon, but that Mr. Cannon would receive the votes when the election is held at Washington.

It was another victory for Mark Hanna, who grasped the opportunity to get even for the number of neat tricks turned by Burton through his personal popularity.

The fight against Burton was led by Gen. Charles Dick and Gen. Grosvenor, and Harvey Goulder of Cleveland and John P. Corrouthers of Port Clinton, who represented the defeated candidate, were given a very interesting reception when they presented his name.

All fell into line but Morgan and Jackson. They were true to their Burton pledges, and the vote resulted 12 to 2. Klie and Warneck were represented by proxy.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Nov. 20.—Ten of the eleven Republican congressmen in Michigan met here today in response to an invitation from Congressman William Alden Smith and discussed the speakership of the next house during a luncheon at the Morton house. A formal motion was carried that the Michigan delegation go on record in favor of the candidacy of Congressman Cannon for speaker.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Alexander McDowell, clerk of the house of representatives, arrived in Washington this morning from his home in Pennsylvania.

"We Pennsylvanians are all for Mr. Dalzell for speaker," cheerily remarked Clarke McDowell; "but I am not enough in touch with the situation to make predictions."

Mr. McDowell is of the opinion that no matter who is elected speaker of the house in the Fifty-eighth congress, the present employes of the house will not be disturbed.

John Dalzell will go into the speakership caucus with a strong following and with excellent chances of carrying off the honor. This prediction is based upon the pledges which Mr. Dalzell holds and upon the support which he is justified in expecting from other sources. Claims of the boomers of Cannon do not disturb Mr. Dalzell and his friends who, while they decline to make public any estimate of their strength, yet have information which justifies them in believing that Pennsylvania will land the speakership of the next congress.

In the list of 88 which it is claimed are pledged to Cannon, are nine votes from eastern states, all of which will likely go to Dalzell, and if not to him, to an eastern candidate. In the list of those who are classified as "favorable to Mr. Cannon," are several that have quietly been pledged to Mr. Dalzell, while the opposition to Cannon can be counted, almost to a man, in the Dalzell column. Friends of the Pennsylvania candidate say they can already count over 80 votes sure for their man, but they will not permit the publication of the list at this time.

Cannon's campaign has been one of loud claims from the beginning, based upon the assumption that much noise and hurrah would frighten some timid members and induce them to climb into the Cannon band wagon, but votes gathered in this way are not easily held, and it is believed that the first ballot in the caucus for speaker will expose the absurdity of the present Cannon claims.

PROBLEMS PILING UP FOR THE PRESIDENT

Foreign Machinations Suspected as Cause of Cuba's Cool Friendship.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
601 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.

While President Roosevelt has been seeking recreation in the Mississippi swamps, troubles for his administration have been piling up, and when he returns to the White house tomorrow morning he will be confronted with more perplexing questions than at any time since he became president.

The Cuban situation is big with embarrassment. Unless Gen. Bliss, who has gone to Cuba as the special emissary of the state department to hasten the negotiation of a treaty, meets with success, the relations between the United States and that island will become awkwardly strained. Friction with foreign nations also is unpleasantly near. The machinations of foreign governments are not entirely unconnected with this condition, and it is believed anti-American influences in Cuba have been aided by meddling on the part of Great Britain, France and Germany.

There is trouble, too, over the isthmian canal question. The note which Secretary Hay has delivered to Colombia is practically an ultimatum so far as the continuance of the negotiations for a canal concession are concerned. Colombia, it is understood, absolutely refused to cede the United States control in perpetuity of a canal zone.

On the subject of the tariff and the trusts, the president as soon as he goes to the White-house, is likely to find himself subjected to divided councils. A very large element in the party objects to any legislation on either of these subjects at the short session of congress.

On top of these troubles at home and abroad comes the labor question, perplexing and threatening. Some of the president's closest friends believe the outcome of the arbitration of the coal strike will be a refusal of the miners to accept the findings unless the union is recognized and non-union men ignored.

Bequest for Orphans' Home.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Amelia Oesterlin, who died recently, left a bequest which was announced today, of $75,000 to found an orphan's home in this city, to be called the Oesterlin Orphan Home, and to be under charge of the synod of the English Lutheran church.

STEEL TARIFF TO BE RAISED 20 PER CENT

Railroads Preparing a Hard Blow to Pittsburgh's Industries.

SECOND RAISE IN APRIL

Railroad executives of the districts of the Central Freight and Trunk Line associations have decided that a freight rate advance of 20 per cent must go into effect on the bulk of the mill and furnace tonnage of Pittsburgh and other districts on or before January 1.

The application and the division of the advances on the rates from Pittsburgh to the east and Pittsburgh to the west are matters of detail to be worked out in the traffic committees and associations.

The Pittsburgh freight committee will take up the matter at its regular meeting on Monday, and then it will go at once to the Central Freight association and the Trunk Line association, the province of which is to fix the rates in detail for the entire territory from the Mississippi to the eastern seaboard and north of the Ohio river before all the railroads will file them with the interstate commerce commission, to become tariff on or before January 1.

A Shock to Manufacturers.

Leading iron and steel interests of Pittsburgh had no intimation of this yesterday, except from what they had read in The Gazette. Some were unwilling to believe the report, for it is only a few years since the railroads made radical advances all around and only partly toned these down when Andrew Carnegie was well along with his plan, two years ago, to build an independent bee line to the seaboard.

On all iron and steel products to which the lower commodity rates are applied there is to be made this advance of 20 per cent. In the cheaper grain traffic an advance of 15 per cent is to be made. This will go into effect December 8.

After the contention of the shippers two years ago, Pittsburgh was given the rate of 19 cents, the 100 pounds to New York, the same as the Buffalo-New York rate, and steel commodity rate. The Pittsburgh-Chicago rate was made 15 cents, the Buffalo-Chicago rate the same. The Buffalo rate to Milwaukee, a most important point to Pittsburgh shippers, was made 15 cents, while the Pittsburgh rate to Milwaukee was left at 17 cents, with Buffalo having the advantage in distance. This was recognized here as discrimination between shipping points, but the Pittsburgh shippers dropped the contention after resting for a time under promise that the matter would be adjusted.

Will Hit Pittsburgh Hard.

Now, in the proposed advances Pittsburgh products are to be discriminated against in favor of the grain traffic from Chicago. The new rates on iron and steel products, the long list to which commodity rates are applied, will be advanced from 25 to 30 cents the 100 pounds, Chicago to New York. The domestic grain rate, Chicago to New York, will be advanced from 17½ to 20 cents, and the export grain rate from 13½ to 16 cents. The advance on grain rates is thus 15 per cent, while that on iron and steel is 20 per cent, yet, as is apparent, the net advance on grain rates is to be only half that on iron and steel.

The rates on ore, limestone, coal and coke, the blast furnace raw materials, are not to be disturbed in connection with the changes of about the first of the year. These will come in for a readjustment about April 1.

The shippers will contest the radical change. It will embarrass them on contracts taken for next year, including the heavy rail business.

One Big Firm's Defensive Plan.

The Jones & Laughlin Steel Company has already taken steps to entrench itself against radical uplifting in rates in its proposed independent railroad to Lake Erie. The work of taking up rights of way for this line, it was stated by an official of the company yesterday, is going forward as fast as possible. A harbor tract on Lake Erie has been secured, but it is not the Elk Creek property now owned by Henry C. Frick, Andrew W. and Robert B. Mellon. In undertaking this new railroad line, it is understood that the Jones & Laughlin interests had no intimation of rate advances. The initial surveys were made nearly a year ago.

That the wage advances of the railroads is only to be offset in the proposed freight rate advances is a farce so far as the Pittsburgh shippers are concerned. On the bulk of the Pittsburgh iron and steel products the shippers will have to pay freight rate advances seven times that of the wage advance. Of course, the carriers are not going after gross earnings seven times that of the railroad wage advance, but the Pittsburgh shippers' payment to the railroads will be nearly in that proportion.

Railroads Making Money.

Most of the railroads are now operating on a good paying basis. Their operating expenses are about 65 per cent and the other 35 per cent of gross earnings is the net earnings from operations. Out of this, fixed charges in interest on bonds, cost of extraordinary improvements and other things are deducted. Of the 65 per cent only about 30 per cent is labor cost, to which the new wage advance is applicable. The rest is officers' salaries, cost of maintaining lines and equipment and other costs charged to operating expenses. So it is that the wage advance is 3 per cent of the gross earnings and on the bulk of their shipments the shippers will be called upon to pay an advance of 20 per cent.

EIGHT DROWNED BY STEAMER COLLISION

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Danish steamer Knud II., Capt. Hanssen, from Capenhagen, and the British steamer Swaledale from Hamburg collided tonight at the mouth of the Tyne. The Knud II. foundered immediately and the master and seven of her crew were drowned.

DIED OF STARVATION IN MIDST OF PLENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—In direst poverty, yet with food almost within reach, Elizabeth Green, a crippled spinster 40 years old, died of hunger last night in her squalid little room on the second floor of a tenement.

In the room where her body lay today were found a loaf of bread, three eggs and half a pound of bacon. Too weak from illness to reach and prepare the food, the woman had fallen upon her bed and died of starvation.

TRUSTEES AGREE TO PARK SITES

Plan and Scope Committee Yields Finally to City Councils.

AGENT TO LONDON

After holding out for months for the adoption of the Schenley hillside property, in Bellefield, the plan and scope committee of the proposed Carnegie technical school has agreed to accept the Schenley park site picked by councils.

The plan and scope committee met yesterday with President Crawford of common council, President Lamble of select council and Councilman W. H. Stevenson at the Duquesne club. Messrs. Lamble and Crawford went before the plan and scope committee to obtain such information as would be useful to them in presenting the matter properly before Mrs. Schenley. The Carnegie institute trustees present yesterday were William McConway, W. L. Scaife and John A. Brashear.

The trustees sought to impress upon the councilmen that not less than 32 acres would be required for buildings. Mr. McConway said that educational experts had calculated that at least 32 acres —and possibly more—would be required, having figured upon 175 to 300 square feet to each pupil.

Still Thinks a Mistake Made.

This, Mr. McConway stated, included nothing except what would be in actual use by the students. It did not include the space occupied by the assembly building, the library, the passageways, comfort houses, campus and other grounds needed to set off properly the architectural beauty of the school. Messrs. Scaife and Brashear concurred in the arguments presented by Mr. McConway.

Mr. McConway said last night that he had told Presidents Lamble and Crawford that while he and his colleagues were still strongly in favor of the hillside site, they were ready to acquiesce in the site adopted by councils. Mr. McConway stated his reasons for being so strongly in favor of the hillside site.

"I don't believe in cutting down Schenley park," he said. "It is too small now. It is discreditable to a community as rich and populous as Pittsburgh to place so much value on a few hundred thousand dollars. The hillside property is in the heart of the transportation facilities, and the slope affords a conspicuous and commanding site for the school.

"The park site is on a single car line, is isolated and the location not at all desirable from an architectural standpoint. It is the back yard of the public. I will go along for the park site, but I am as firm in my belief as ever that it is a serious mistake."

Messenger to See Mrs. Schenley.

He said that no steps would be taken by the plan and scope committee toward preparing plans until the site was finally secured, and that then the Carnegie trustees would probably appoint a building committee.

Presidents Lamble and Crawford will now take steps to communicate with Mrs. Schenley. It is likely that a messenger will be sent to London.

Councilman W. H. Stevenson said last night: "I do not think it is discreditable or humiliating to the city to take park property for the school. We are not squabbling about the price of a site. We are simply trying to get a site for the amount of money we have at our disposal. We intend to purchase and add to the park as much land as we will take from it for the school."

MONOPOLY A FAILURE, SAYS ELBERT H. GARY

He Also Says Tariff Revision Is the Only Danger That Threatens Business.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The World this morning says: The utterances of Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the executive committee of the United States Steel Corporation, in the course of a long talk with the World representative yesterday, were marked by an unmistakable desire to show that the age of competition is not passing away and the monopoly theory is a failure.

It was Mr. Gary who organized the Federal Steel Company, and it was his brain, more than any other, which united the 15 great companies which form the United States Steel Corporation.

"And you feel quite certain, Mr. Gary, that tariff revision is the only danger confronting the great business interests of the United States today?"

"I can see no other. I have hopes that the tariff question may be to some extent removed from the field of political strife."

FRICK INVESTS IN NIAGARA PROPERTY

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(Special.)—The Sun this morning says: The Lits farm on the Niagara river in Tonawanda, was sold today to representatives of H. C. Frick for $120,000. The farm contains only 100 acres, but it is reported that Mr. Frick and other steel magnates have options on nearly 1,000 acres.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN IT

Will Take Action Opposing Elevation of Allegheny Bridges.

ANOTHER WEEK GIVEN

Union Bridge's Friends Get a Rehearing and Other Bridge Advocates a Hearing on Saturday of Next Week.

The Pittsburgh chamber of commerce, representing the interests of local business men, will be the next organization to take a hand in the contest over the raising of the Allegheny river bridges. Its action will supplement the movement by the municipal corporations of the two cities and will have great weight in securing a decision from the secretary of war favorable to downtown property holders.

Action by the chamber of commerce is made possible by the granting of an additional week for the bridge owners to prepare their cases. Capt. W. L. Sibert, the United States engineer for the Pittsburgh district, yesterday postponed the hearing for the Sixth street bridge from tomorrow morning until Saturday, November 29. The Union Bridge Company will be granted a rehearing on the same day.

The plan of action of the chamber of commerce has not been definitely decided, but will probably take the form of a resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate the proposed changes in the bridges. The matter will be called up by members of the chamber, who are interested in protection of downtown business interests, and the liveliest interest will be manifested. It will be necessary for a special meeting to be called for the purpose, in order that action may be taken before the bridge hearings next week.

"The people, who would be vitally affected by the outrage proposed in the raising of the bridges, are just beginning to wake up to a realization of the danger that confronts them," said an officer of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce yesterday.

"This matter should have been taken up months ago, but the citizens were not aware at that time of the far-reaching scheme which had been planned by the advocates of high bridges. Two years ago this matter was quickly squelched, and it was not reasonable to suppose that measures would again be taken, when the secretary of war had given a decisive answer in the negative.

"The chamber of commerce is ready to combat this question and all of like nature. For the best interests of the city, it is believed that any attempt to elevate the bridges would be detrimental to interurban traffic—something that should be jealously guarded in a crowded city like Pittsburgh, where every possible outlet should be kept open. To elevate the grade of the streets below Penn avenue would be preposterous, and to build viaducts as bridge entrances would simply amount to the wailing up of our leading thoroughfares."

The owners of both the Sixth street and Union bridges will present their side of the controversy in the fullest details. The papers are now being prepared and will not be filed with the United States engineer until next week. They will present every argument advanced by the business men and property owners and will have rebuttal for every theory of the riverites. In the voluminous documents will be hundreds of letters from tenants and property owners, protesting against elevation.

PRESIDENT SPEEDS TOWARD WASHINGTON

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 20.—The president's homeward journey today was without special interest. The ride across the mountains over the Southern railroad was made in fast time. The train stopped only to change crews and engines. Its coming was generally unheralded, but there was a small crowd at almost every station. Several times the train was cheered as it swept by.

At Chattanooga the president received a telegram from Newport, Tenn., saying that the school children would turn out to see him. By his direction the train was slowed down when that place was reached. About 200 little ones with flags in their hands lined up along the track. The president stood on the rear platform and waved his hand and hat at them.

At Stevenson, Ala., early today about 50 children gathered around his car and begged the porter to let them see the president. The president, who had just got up, heard their cries, and rather than disappoint the little ones he stepped to the door in his stocking feet and said:

"Good morning," just as the train drew out.

At Ooltewah Junction, where the train stopped for water, a tall, raw-boned mountaineer engaged the president in conversation. The Tennesseean remarked that the bears in Mississippi had proved too wild for the president.

"Perhaps they were Democratic bears," and took to the woods upon my arrival," replied the president, smiling.

The president will reach Washington at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

SHOT DEPUTY GAME WARDEN.

Ohio Miner Is Under Arrest and His Victim May Die.

MARIETTA, O., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Shot in the back by a Finland miner who was trespassing upon his father's farm, Leroy Wolf lies at the point of death at his home near Amesville, Athens county, O. Four Finlanders, employed in the coal mines near Amesville, started out to hunt on the Wolf farm. Young Wolf tried to persuade them to depart, but they refused and showed fight.

Wolf, who is deputy game warden, placed the party under arrest. All yielded but one, who fired at Wolf. The miner was arrested.

PENNYPACKER GUEST OF HONOR

Rnns the Gauntlet of Clover Club Wit at Philadelphia Banquet.

HE PRAISES HIS STATE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.

Gov.-elect Pennypacker was the guest of honor tonight at the Clover club dinner at the Bellevue. It was a most turbulent gathering in which to find the distinguished jurist, historian, man of letters, one who loves peace, and who has consistently dwelt therein since the troublous days of the civil war.

Men of affairs, the Ben Jonsons of Quaker City social life, compose the Clover membership. It is the hub of intellectual versatility. When President Alexander A. McClure lifts his gavel, revelry runs riot, and the guest who can face for five minutes the batteries of badinage, of raillery and confusing interjection, need not thereafter require a certificate as to mental equipoise countersigned by one of Gov. Stone's medical commissions.

None of these things disturbed the serenity of Judge Pennypacker. He had a Roland for every Oliver, and, when he had fairly launched himself in defense of his loved Pennsylvania, he compelled an attention and interest.

President McClure's introduction caught the members napping. Solemnly, and with great emphasis, he enjoined secrecy as to what he was about to communicate, and then broke the tension by declaring he was about to give the personnel of Pennypacker's cabinet.

"Some time ago," began the governor-elect, "I wrote an article about Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, in which I made some comparisons——"

"For God's sake! Are you going to give us that again?" interjected ex-Mayor Warwick.

"Gentlemen," continued the unruffled judge, "it gives me the greatest pleasure of my life to hear my friend Warwick express an invocation to the great God above; because it is for him such an unusual indulgence."

Tributes to the great men of Pennsylvania, soldiers, poets, scholars and others of historic eminence, many forgotten by the generation of today, were paid by the governor-elect.

"We stand for our own people," he continued. "We are not outcasts from New York, Boston or Jerusalem, hence we do not come here and acquire cheap reputations abroad by abusing the grand old state of Pennsylvania and its honored citizens."

The sentiment was cheered to the echo.

From his wonderful memory the judge gave many illustrations of the greatness of the state, closing by reference to the fact that Pennsylvania did what no other state claims the honor of having done—raised troops for the civil war and enlisted men three days before the call to arms was sounded.

BUYING COAL LAND.

Two Companies to Develop Properties in Indiana County.

INDIANA, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—A party of capitalists, headed by the Hon. George Huff of Greensburg, have taken options on about 1,500 acres of coal land in the vicinity of Blacklick station and have bought four farms outright. The price paid ranged from $25 to $40 per acre. Two large mines will be opened.

Larry Eyre is at the head of the Conemaugh Coal Company. Associated with him are E. P. Patterson, Pittsburgh; John D. Evans, Allegheny; Frank M. and Wilbur F. Graff, Blairsville; A. L. Over, Sewickley, and John G. Elkin, W. F. Wettling and J. N. Langham, Indiana. The company will develop a new field near Edri, on the West Penn railroad, and will largely increase the present capital stock of $60,000.

PITTSBURGH ORCHESTRA DELIGHTS CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 20.—The first of three winter concerts by the Pittsburgh orchestra, Victor Herbert, director, was given in the presence of 3,000 persons tonight at the Grays' armory. The audience was very appreciative and the program rendered was delightful. Mlle. Zelie de Lusian, the grand opera star, was the soprano soloist.

FIRE UNDERWRITERS ADOPT A NEW CLAUSE

Resolution Is Passed Recommending More General Use of Co-Insurance Methods.

The Allegheny County Board of Underwriters yesterday passed a resolution recommending the more general use of the co-insurance clause among hazardous risks in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. The adoption of the resolution was a compromise measure effected after a long contest between local underwriters who at first opposed the clause and the big insurance companies of the east. Copies of the resolution have been printed and will be distributed among insurance men this morning.

The new rule encourages the insured to take out policies covering at least four-fifths of the value of the property, and a special discount of 20 per cent from the standard board rate is given. On the other hand, where less than four-fifths of the property value is insured the full rate is maintained, and in case a partial loss by fire occurs, the insurance company does not stand responsible for the full pro rata estimate of the damage.

Local underwriters say that the new measure will be beneficial both for the companies and the policy holders, and explain that in case a risk valued at $10,000 should be insured for $5,000, which is considerably less than the required four-fifths, a partial loss would be adjusted in proportion to the ratio with the entire value of the property. In case of total loss, the full face of the policy will be paid. The new resolution does not apply to dwellings and small business houses.

TO PROSECUTE RIOTERS.

Information Made Against Men Who Attacked Butler Jail.

BUTLER, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—County Detective Robert Barnes has made information against 50 persons concerned in the jail riot here on the night of September 13, when a mob sought the life of Jerry Bennett. The informations charge the defendants with riot. The names of the persons indicted have been kept secret and will not likely be revealed until the arrests are made.

The county detective has also made information against City Policeman James McGrady for the shooting of John Miller last week, while the latter was running to escape arrest, charging him with manslaughter. McGrady has not been arrested.

LONG DISTANCE MOTOR CYCLE TRIP

BOSTON, Nov. 20.(Special.)—Edwin H. Corson, the pioneer motor cyclist of Boston, started this morning for Milwaukee on his motor bicycle via New York state, Niagara Falls, the Canadian route, Michigan and Chicago. He will arrive in Milwaukee about December 5, and, returning, will travel via Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Hartford, reaching Boston again about January 15, after having covered 3,000 miles.

He will make no attempt to establish records, going mainly for pleasure. Mr. Corson already has ridden 5,000 miles on his machine without accident.

REVOLUTION MENACES STRICKEN GUATEMALA

Government Seems to Be Taking Pains to Conceal Extent of Calamity.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.

Revolution, and, perhaps, anarchy, threaten to follow in the wake of the destruction wrought by the eruption of the Santa Maria, which devastated the coffee bearing district of Guatemala. Through official sources, a letter has been received which, despite the effort made by the president of Guatemala, shows the country has received a setback from which it will not recover for years. The letter says:

"While the eruptions were in progress the feast of Minerva was being celebrated with great merrymaking in Guatemala City, and no effort was made by the government to postpone it. This continuance of hilarity at a time of national disaster greatly incensed the people. Serious civil disturbances are threatened.

"The officials are now trying to prevent the truth from becoming known. The loss of life is great, but the government will not make public the number.

"Within the zone affected by the eruption—and that is practically the entire coffee-bearing belt—nearly all the live stock was killed by the sulphurous fumes which were emitted from the crater.

"Santa Marie is not the only volcano which threatens Guatemala. Several others, including Fuago at Antigua, are emitting smoke and showing other evidences of unrest."

A. Lazo Arriaga, minister from Guatemala, has just received from his government letters and telegrams saying the reports published in this country about the loss of life and property caused by the eruption of Santa Maria volvano are exaggerated. While it is true that a part of the present coffee crop is lost, the dispatches say it is generally expected that most of the plantations of the affected district will recuperate. The loss of life was very small, says the minister's advices, and the president of the republic from the first moment adopted the most energetic measures of relief, which, the dispatches say, avoided considerable suffering and preserved peace and order in the affected region.

Minister Lazo Arriago tonight emphatically denied reports that bands of robbers were swarming the desolated sections.

TALKS ON MISSION WORK.

Were Heard at Annual Meeting of Epworth League Training School.

The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh District Epworth League Training school was held yesterday afternoon and evening in the Lincoln Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. The relation of the work in the Epworth league to home and foreign missions was the principal topic of discussion. Both meetings were largely attended.

Addresses were made on mission work by S. Earl Taylor and the Rev. Harry Chalfant of the Duquesne Heights Methodist Episcopal church. Other speakers were Charles T. Beggs, Paul Sturtevant, the Rev. W. W. Youngson, the Rev. Titus Lane, W. R. Brown, the Rev. Theodore N. Eaton and Miss L. Martha King.

24-FOOT PYTHON CAPTURES A SHIP

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(Special.)—Escaping from its cage when the ship was two miles out at sea from Singapore, a python, 24 feet long, terrorized the crew of the British steamer Afridi for two hours, and after a struggle was dispatched with a broadax by Capt. Golding, the commander, just as the snake was climbing the bridge to take full charge of the vessel.

SALEM MUST CONTINUE TO PAY HIGH FOR COAL

President Baer Declines to Sell Supply to Central Labor Union.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SALEM, MASS., Nov. 20.—An effort by the Central Labor union to purchase coal from President Baer of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal Company has failed, and the attempt of the union to bring down the price by such a step has not succeeded.

Acting for the Central Labor union, George N. Wadleigh on November 13 wrote to President Baer, stating that the local coal dealers were charging $9 a ton for coal here, while at other places within a distance of 10 miles it was being sold as low as $7 25.

Mr. Wadleigh asked President Baer: "Will you allow coal to be sold at retail from the Pennsylvania pier in this city with the understanding that consumers will do their own carting, the total price of coal to be $7 per ton or less?"

The letter of Mr. Wadleigh was referred to the Philadelphia & Reading sales agent in Boston, from whom the following reply has been received:

"The small amount of coal which we have been able to obtain in New England since the strike has been distributed on previous obligations in moderate amounts. We have many more such obligations which will require a long time in the future to cover. I regret for this reason we cannot accept any new orders nor take up the subject of your letter just now."

RACES WITH DEATH.

Special Train Carries Surgeons 422 Miles to Bedside of Wounded Mine Manager.

DENVER, Nov. 20.—Four surgeons hurried from this city to Telluride, Colo., by special train today to attend Arthur L. Collins, general manager of the Smuggler-Union Mining Company, who was shot last night by an unknown assassin.

Mr. Collins was playing cards with friends in the library of the company's office building at Pandora when a charge of buckshot was fired through the window, striking him in the back. Buckshot penetrated his kidneys, stomach and lungs.

When news of the shooting reached Denver Benjamin B. Lawrence of Boston, Mass., president of the Smuggler-Union company, chartered a special train to take himself, Mrs. Collins and the surgeons to Telluride. The train left Denver on the Denver & Rio Grande road at 1:15 this morning and arrived at Telluride at 2 p. m., having made the run of 422 miles at an average of 32 miles an hour. Mr. Collins has a fighting chance for life.

Bruce Head Much Better.

The condition of Bruce Head at the Keneseck camp was reported to be good last night. The victim of Dr. Duncan's bullet is recovering rapidly. Employes at the camp took occasion to deny the story published yesterday purporting to have come from Dr. Walker, that Head was worse, and claimed that he was resting very easy.

Effort to Prove Lunacy.

CANTON, O., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—To save him from trial on a charge of murder, friends of Melvin R. Smith are making an effort to prove that he is insane. Several months ago he shot and killed James B. Shetler, a street car conductor. An inquest in lunacy was commenced today.

Cargo of Cotton on Fire.

FUNCHAL, ISLAND OF MADERIA, Nov. 20.—The British steamer Calliope, which sailed from Pensacola October 29 for Genoa, has arrived here with her cargo on fire. The fumes are very bad. Efforts are being made to discharge the cotton in the steamer's hold and water is being pumped into the vessel.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

—Nine cases of typhoid fever, five of diphtheria and five of scarlet fever were reported yesterday.

—John Strong was held for court by Alderman McMasters on a charge of larceny, made by G. W. McMillan, a broker in the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings building. He claims Strong stole a $40 overcoat.

—The national Association of Stationary Engineers intended to hold today a continuation of the meeting of Wednesday, but owing to the absence of several officers the meeting has been postponed to Monday.

—Benjamin Harris of No. 321 Benton street, Braddock, who is violently insane, was arrested in Pennsylvania avenue, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon by Officer H. H. Wills and removed to the county home at Woodville.

—Michael Broskinski, a Slav, aged 47, yesterday morning drank half an ounce of carbolic acid in mistake for alcohol at his home in Lecky avenue, Allegheny. Dr. T. S. Luther, who was called to attend the man, has some doubts as to his recovery.

—F. S. Schneider of New York was yesterday held in $500 bail by Magistrate McKenna on a charge of false pretense, preferred by George W. Johnson, who alleges that Schneider represented himself as the canvasser of the United States Business Directory Company, of which Johnson is the local representative.

The Fine Sharon Mills.

The Sharon Steel Company was formed by Senator William Flinn, George W. Darr and others, in October, 1899, and its control rested with these interests, John Stevenson, Jr., and others. The property of the Sharon Steel Company consists of 400 acres of land, one blast furnace in operation, and two under construction, 12 open hearth furnaces in operation, blooming mills, tin plate works, sheet and tube works, wire rod and nail factory, all in operation, besides limestone quarries, coal lands and coke ovens and coal property in the Connellsville region. The Sharon steel works have an annual capacity of 480,000 gross tons of ingots, and the rolled products aggregate 480,000 tons, wire, 75,000 tons; nails, 1,000,000 kegs; sheets, 30,000 tons; tin plate, 48,000 tons.

The Sharon Steel Company has a capital issue of $6,000,000 and a bond issue of $6,000,000. The investment is much above the aggregate of these figures.

Room for Independents.

F. T. F. Lovejoy, who was secretary of the Carnegie Steel Company from 1889 to 1901, on being asked if the consolidation of the Donora and Sharon steel plants would have an unfavorable effect upon the stocks of the United States Steel Corporation, replied:

It should not. The building of such plants as those now under construction and in part operation by the Union Steel Company and the Sharon Steel Company, will help to supply the rapidly increasing demand for steel, and it would be very unfortunate indeed if there were not such plants as those being built at this time. The United States Steel Corporation and the steel industry will soon be in the position of the Pennsylvania railroad and other railroads today, not able to care for the wants of the country. In fact, it is almost there now. Quite a large amount of structural steel is being imported.

What would be the situation today if the Bessemer line had not been built from the Edgar Thomson and other works of the Carnegie Steel Company to Lake Erie? It is hard to estimate the great loss that would have resulted to the blast furnace industry in the vicinity of Pittsburgh through inability on the part of the old railroads to transport the ore. It is to be regretted that the Carnegie Steel Company did not build the projected road to the coke region. It would have been of vast benefit, directly and indirectly, to the whole country, and also to the railroads now entering the coke region.

Steel Corporation Intrenched.

It appears to be known to comparatively few people throughout the country that the United States Steel Corporation has such a tremendous holding in the ore and coke regions; so large, indeed, that it is now practically impossible for new enterprises in the steel line to obtain ore and coke property; and without these sources of supplies it is foolish for any concern to expect to make a success of the steel business.

Notwithstanding the various investments in steel properties being made throughout the United States, I consider that when the public generally begins to understand just how valuable are the holdings of the United States Steel Corporation of ore and coke lands, it will not be long before its preferred stock will sell far above par.

DIVISION OF TRADE.

Vice President Stevenson Explains Some Details of the Steel Combination.

SHARON, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—John Stevenson, Jr., vice president and general manager of the Sharon Steel Company, returned to Sharon tonight from Pittsburgh and made the following statement:

"At a meeting today it was decided to merge the Sharon Steel Company and the Union Steel Company. The plants of the two companies will be turned in at actual cost, also the accrued profits, and $14,000,000 in new money, the latter to be furnished by the Union Steel Company. The merging of the two big corporations will be of more benefit to both than had they remained distinct organizations. The Union plant will supply the eastern trade and the Sharon plant the western trade. The new company has improvements under contemplation, but as there is nothing definite decided upon, I cannot state what they will be.

"The papers were drawn up and signed by the stockholders who hold a controlling interest, and the merging will take effect December 1."

Mr. Stevenson said the merger was not for the purpose of fighting the United States Steel Corporation, but to maintain a steady market for all products and prevent the slackening of prices.

John Stevenson, Jr., invested his millions in the company and it is largely through his efforts that the company has reached its present prosperous condition.

VETERAN HORSE WINS THE PRIZE

Fashion, Supposed to Be 35 Years Old, Is Awarded a Blue Ribbon.

NO TEETH TO EAT HAY

Dr. John L. Wentz of Scranton Wins the American Coaching Club's Cup—Myopia Goes Over Six Fences.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

Never was there so distinguished a gathering, nominally to see horses, as was packed today into the Madison Square garden. The horse show was a magnet that attracted thousands from every section of the country to see and be seen. The vast auditorium was well filled in the afternoon and there was scarcely breathing space in the evening.

Surely, the most popular award of the day was the blue ribbon that went to that grand old campaigner, Fashion, and his get. Fashion has been a great show horse and the admiration of many generations of debutantes. About his quality there has never been a question, though the captious have held that he was a little too fine in some points. Judge after judge has awarded him prizes, but now he is very old and his owner, Prescott Lawrence, announced that the veteran would never again be entered in any public competition.

Sentiment was all with Fashion as against any other entry, despite the fact that he was to compete with so great a favorite as Robin Adair II. The women were all in the Fashion contingent, and all were curious about his age. The available information was that he is not less than 24 years old, some persons insisting that he is 35.

At all events, every fair one in the audience heard that Fashion had lost all his teeth, or that those remaining in his jaw were so loose and useless that he cannot eat hay, and his regular diet consists of milk and sugar.

The American Coaching club's cup, one of the most coveted trophies at the show, went to Dr. John L. Wentz of Scranton, whose four-in-hand was adjudged the best at the show. Four-in-hands in this event also were shown by the Vanderbilt brothers, J. Hobart Moore of Chicago and William H. Moore.

A very difficult event over the fences was won by Myopia, owned by George Pepper of Canada. The contestants had to go over six fences, two of which were six feet high.

J. Hobart Moore of Chicago carried off first prize in the class for pairs of horses shown before a victoria with his spanking team, Burlingham and Victory, while Joseph E. Widener of Philadelphia took second and Alfred G. Vanderbilt, third.

The breeders' challenge cup for hackneys in harness went to Frederick C. Stevens of Attica, N. Y., who showed Cyrena. The cup becomes the property of Mr. Stevens, as his entry has won it twice.

CARE OF THE INSANE.

Speaker W. T. Marshall on Two Commissions on That Subject.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—W. T. Marshall, speaker of the Pennsylvania lower house, arrived today. Two legislative commissions of which he is a member will meet this week.

One will pass upon the site for the proposed state homeopathic hospital for the insane, for which $50,000 was appropriated at the last session, and which will be located in one of the northeastern counties. The members of the commission are W. T. Marshall, chairman; Senators Snyder and Keyser and Representative Harrison, Dr. L. H. Willard of Allegheny and Dr. Hysinger of Philadelphia. A vacancy exists owing to the death of William Stroh of Carlon. Gov. Stone is expected to appoint his successor.

The other commission was empowered to examine and investigate the insane institutions of the state, which has been done, and the report is being prepared. It will be submitted to the coming legislature. Mr. Marshall said the commission would recommend a change of system, a central authority or control, more room and the classification of patients. Now, he said, a person not hopelessly insane would soon become so if placed in any of the present institutions.

The commission favors either giving the state board more authority or the creation of a special bureau to have charge of such institutions.

TEN DAYS OF THIRST.

Camden Saloons Closed Because of Illegality of Excise Board.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—All the saloons in Camden were ordered closed today by Mayor Nowrey, under the recent decision of the supreme court ousting the excise board because the act creating it was unconstitutional. When the sun set there was still a fringe of open drink dispensaries along the river front.

The thirst may last 10 days, or until councils can grant licenses.

Kane's Postmaster Arrested.

J. W. Leonard, 22 years old, of Kane, Pa., was committed to the Allegheny county jail last night, on a charge of violating the postal laws. He was postmaster at Kane and is alleged to have opened a letter containing $100, and appropriated it to his own use. He will be arraigned for a hearing Monday before United States Commissioner W. T. Lindsey.

SAMUEL W. M'ELROY SUCCEEDS GOEHRING

New President of Allegheny Council Elected—Action on Bridge Raising.

Samuel W. McElroy of the Second ward was elected president of Allegheny common council last night. He succeeds John M. Goehring, who was elected to the state senate at the last election. Mr. McElroy was elected without opposition.

Under suspension of the rules, a resolution was adopted to appoint a committee, five from common council and three from select, to look out for Allegheny's interests in the Greater Pittsburgh movement. Henricks, Davidson, Speidel, McHenry and Trimble were named to represent common council.

Common council rejected, by a vote of 17 to 13, the resolution protesting against the raising of the bridges over the Allegheny river, adopted by select council, but the resolution to appoint a committee of five to consult with the United States engineer was adopted. The resolution to appoint a committee to confer with a similar committee from Pittsburgh councils, regarding the proposition to connect the water supply of the two cities was adopted. Wagner, Sauer and Stelzbrenner were appointed a committee to confer with the Pittsburgh Railways Company concerning a better car service between the hours of 5 and 7:30 a. m. and 5 and 7:30 p. m.

Ordinances providing for the building of piers and abutments for the bridge on Shady avenue over Woods Run avenue, to cost $119,000, and widening the West Park roadway to 55 feet were passed.

NATIONAL AGREEMENT FAVORED BY FOUNDERS

National Association Requests Its Members to Stand by Set Terms.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—The convention of the National Founders' association was brought to a close this afternoon by the election of officers and the adoption of a resolution in favor of a national agreement with the molders' union, and requesting the members of the association not to make any further local agreements.

The resolution declares, however, that in favoring the making of a yearly national agreement the association "does so only on condition that any such agreement must embody equitable conditions relating to apprentices, restriction of output, set day's work, limitation on a man's earning capacity, abolishing of fines imposed on molders for the purpose of limiting an individual molder's production, the right of an employer to operate molding machines or any other foundry appliance in accordance with his best judgment, and to maintain equitable piecework and premium system, the abolition of a flat minimum wage rate and the establishment of a differential wage rate for molders."

The resolution also declares that no agreement shall be entered into for a shorter work day unless the conditions above are made a part thereof.

The following officers were elected: President, F. T. Towne, Stamford, Conn.; vice president, H. W. Frank, Pittsburgh; treasurer, John B. Russell, Detroit; secretary, A. E. McClintock, Detroit.

Manhattan Railway Company Passes Under Control of the Company Building the Subway.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—It was definitely stated in official quarters this evening that the control of the Manhattan Railway Company has passed into the hands of the Inter-Borough Rapid Transit Company, more familiarly known as the Subway Company. An official statement to this effect probably will be issued within a few days.

The passing of the control of the Manhattan "L" from its present owners, the Gould family and Russell Sage, to the strong financial syndicate headed by August Belmont, which controls the Inter-Borough Rapid Transit Company, is conceded to be the most important traction deal in the history of the city.

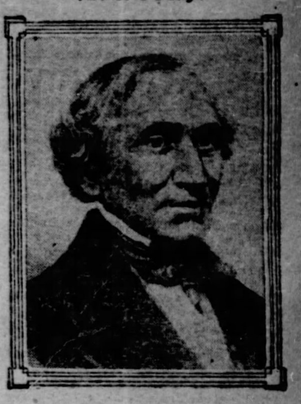
THE FOUNDER

Of the System by Which All American Pianos Are Built Today.



JONAS CHICKERING.

In the above portrait thousands—yes, tens of thousands—of Americans will recognize the strong, sterling features of the great pioneer of piano manufacturing on this side of the Atlantic ocean.

Jonas Chickering founded the now world-famed house of Chickering & Son, Boston, over 75 years ago, beginning then the manufacture of pianos, after years of experiment study. Then began the manufacture of pianos upon a plan and system radically different from old ways. But it speaks volumes for the marvelous inventive genius of the grand old man that there has been no inventions differing from his in all these intervening years. The present plans and principles of piano building were given to the world by Jonas Chickering, and may never be improved upon, though this great house, ever maintaining its leadership, is always first in introducing features that ever and ever lend their splendid Chickering plans toward perfection. Others, the best of them, are but conceded followers of the world-renowned Chickering, which is made today upon the same spot where its great originator first started his modest plant. The present Chickering factory is the largest and best equipped in the world, a grand monument to a grand man, worthy of the homage and honors that are now shown his name and memory. This famous instrument is sold only by W. F. Frederick, 633 Smithfield street (entire building). Exclusive agencies for the reliable Hardman, Kroeger, McPhail, Schomacker, Behr Bros. pianos, and the Chase & Baker piano players. Come and spend a pleasant half-hour in our piano department.

MAKING HEADWAY WITH FREIGHT

Supt. Starr Says the Pennsylvania Lines Are Catching Up.

GETTING CARS PLACED

Officials Working Day and Night. Effect of Anthracite Strike in Swelling Soft Coal Shipments. Figures on Movements.

"We feel we are in much better condition in the freight situation," said A. B. Starr, general superintendent of freight transportation of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, last evening. "Although it was a bad night for train movements, on account of the heavy fog, much was accomplished. There is no let-up in the effort to clear away the congestion. Officials are on duty day and night, and will so remain as long as this condition continues."

This statement represents the freight congestion situation on the Pennsylvania lines. No effort is made to disguise the fact that the troubles are worse than ever before; but every effort is being made to remove as many cars as can be removed with the present facilities. By means of the hard work which is being done, much is accomplished daily.

Putting Cars Where They Belong.

In his statement last night Mr. Starr made the point that the reports of the number of cars in the various yards in and about Pittsburgh do not always give a true conception of the situation. "The great effort for the last three days has been more to place the cars in the right yards for unloading than to remove them, loads and all, from the Pittsburgh district," he said. "It is in this that improvement is being made daily. Cars are being placed for unloading, and it is more than ever up to the consignees to unload the cars promptly, in order that the railroads may get them out of the way.

"Our attention is being given more to the northwest system than to the southwest, because the lake coal traffic and the Mahoning and Shenango valley coke trade are bothering us much. We realize the importance of keeping the valley furnaces supplied with coke, and every effort to that end is being made.

"The closing of navigation of the lakes in the near future calls for a great rush of coal to the northwest. Precedence is being given to this class of freight along with the valley coke. There certainly is a shortage of coal in the northwest in sight, and this despite the fact that we have broken all records in the amount hauled this year. The total of last year was about 1,800,000 or 1,900,000 tons. The total for 1902 will be between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 tons.

Effect of Anthracite Strike.

"One of the principal causes for all this trouble lies in the closing down of the anthracite coal mines for six months by the strike. Traffic was diverted from its natural channels, the plans we had laid were interfered with, and the result is the prevailing chaos.

"We are looking for some relief from the arrival of engines which are now four months overdue from the manufacturers. There should be 30 new ones on hand now on the lines west, and, beginning January 1, over 100 more are promised for delivery within a short period. If we secure this additional motive power, and the weather remains open enough to permit of good work, there will undoubtedly be some relief brought."

Conditions on Other Roads.

The Baltimore & Ohio, while traveling far from an easy path, is still in better shape than the Pennsylvania. The yards of the Baltimore & Ohio are not large enough to permit of great difficulties in clearing them. It is possible for the Baltimore & Ohio to get into trouble in a much shorter time than the Pennsylvania, but relief can be obtained in an equally short time.

C. L. Glat, superintendent of transportation of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, said that the Lake Erie is able right along to hold the freight situation in good control. Whatever surplus accumulates during the week is always removed in full in the 48 hours ending with Monday morning. Each week is started with all the facilities of the railroad in condition for good results.

It is likely that next Sunday will see the greatest cleaning up of any day in the history of Pittsburgh railroads, because of the fact that much less freight is received on that day than any other, the chance is afforded to remove the accumulations of the preceding week, when freight was being sent in faster than it could be hauled away.

In an interview in a Philadelphia paper, upon his return Wednesday to that city after his trip here with President Cassatt, Charles E. Pugh, second vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, said:

"Talk about freight congestion! Why, the freight seems to be springing up out of the ground. In fact, it fairly grows. Up to date the Pennsylvania railroad has handled an increase in tonnage of 20 per cent, and with our immense tonnage you can readily understand what that means. All the railroads in and about Pittsburgh are congested, and in that respect I think we are rather better off than some of our neighbors."

Mr. Pugh said also that it has been practically decided to undertake certain improvements contemplated in Pittsburgh, but he would not divulge what these improvements are. He said the purpose of the trip west was to hurry up some of the improvements in and about Pittsburgh, whereby the facilities for handling freight would be increased and for providing additional facilities there and at other points.

A statement of the train and car movement in 24 hours, on the three principal systems at Pittsburgh, the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio and Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, was compiled from official sources yesterday. It covers the movement for the 24 hours ended yesterday morning at 6 o'clock.

Total movement, all lines, 20,000 cars.

Pennsylvania—In and out of Allegheny, 70, trains, 3,500 cars; Conway, 97 trains, 4,200 cars; Wellsville, O., 59 trains, 1,279 cars; Cleveland, 42 trains, 930 cars; Alliance, 50 trains, 922 cars; Chicago, 23 trains, 650 cars; Ft. Wayne, 26 trains, 635 cars. Panhandle, in and out of Pittsburgh district, 120 trains, 3,500 cars; Pennsylvania lines, east, in and out of Pittsburgh, 100 trains, 5,000 cars.

HELP AT HARRISBURG.

Pennsylvania Railroad Lets Contracts for Great Improvement in Center of State.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company today awarded contracts for improvements which will prevent future freight congestion in and about Harrisburg.

The contracts were awarded to H. S. Kerbaugh of this city and include the grading and track-laying for large east and westbound classification freight yards at Fair View, on the Northern Central railroad; the grading and masonry for two additional tracks on the same line from Bridgeport, opposite Harrisburg, to York Haven; the building of three miles of double track railroad from a point south of York Haven to a point on the Susquehanna river, opposite Schacks Mills, on the Columbia branch of the main line, and a double track stone arch bridge, 2,200 feet long, across the Susquehanna river.

The new classification yards at Fairview will be located on either side of the Northern Central tracks and will extend almost from Fairview to Marysville, a distance of six miles. The plans have not been completed and the exact dimensions of the yards are not now obtainable.

NERVE OF LITTLE BOY.

Five-Year-Old Walter Gusky Encourages Motorman Whose Car Fatally Injured Him.

Little Walter Gusky of Woods Run displayed most remarkable nerve when he was injured by a street car in that section last night. He was run over by car No. 146, his left leg was torn from his body, his right foot and left arm were cut off. He was removed to St. John's hospital, and after being told that he was going to die refused to permit the physicians to administer opiates to relieve the pain. He never lost consciousness until death closed his eyes.

Walter was 5 years old. He was riding on the rear of a wagon in Lacky avenue. The street car was running just in the rear of the wagon and Walter fell off. The car passed over him. He was taken to the hospital in a carriage, and while lying on the bed told of the accident.

Motorman George Williamson followed the boy to the hospital and was deeply affected over the accident.

Williamson told the boy how he regretted the occurrence.

"Don't cry," said Gusky. "It was my fault. You were not to blame."

Then he died.

Escaped from Four Tramps.

James Stevenson, a Braddock contractor, had a lively encounter while returning to his home along the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad, between Wilmerding and Pitcairn, late Wednesday night. He was followed by four men. One of them caught Stevenson and both men fell on the railroad track and were cut and bruised on the stone ballast. Stevenson regained his feet and succeeded in making his escape, but was struck on the head by a large stone, thrown at him by one of the tramps.

Deserted After Three Days.

Alexander Burrell of Cleveland, O., was arrested in Braddock yesterday by Constable Edward Quinn, on a charge of deserting his wife. He was married in Cleveland, but in three days he deserted his wife. He came to Braddock and his wife followed. Then Burrell returned to Cleveland, then back to Braddock. He was committed to jail by Justice Frank T. Redman of Braddock, to await the action of the grand jury.

THE WEATHER.

Fair.

Another fair day is promised for this vicinity. The forecast sent out last night by the Washington weather bureau was for fair weather and stationary temperature. Yesterday's weather was unusually disagreeable. The heavy fog that enveloped the city and suburbs made traffic and pedestrianism dangerous and added to the material discomforts by increasing the gas and electric light bills. The temperature rose steadily from noon until almost midnight. The minimum at noon was 47, and the maximum at 8 p. m. was 60.

The Gazette weather service thermometers at Kaufmann's corner registered:

THE PASSPORT TO PROSPERITY.

Every man and woman earning wages should have one. There is nothing that helps so well over the rough places of life as a snug bank account, and no working person in these days of prosperity should be without this help. A dollar or more makes this start with the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, Smithfield street, opposite postoffice, and earns 4 per cent interest. This bank, established 40 years ago, has $13,000,000.00 deposits belonging to some 35,000 persons. If you have not a savings account with this bank you should give the matter early attention. Write or call on the bank for Booklet No. 25.

GROSVENOR TO DEBATE WITH CHAMP CLARK

There will be a battle of oratorical giants next Tuesday evening in Carnegie Music hall, Braddock. Hon. "Champ" Clark of Missouri and Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio will debate on the subject of "Imperialism." The debate was arranged last winter by the late Walter Crane, librarian of the Carnegie library at Braddock. Gen. Grosvenor has written that he will keep his appointment.

CHARTERS GRANTED FOR ELEVATED LINES

State Board Passes Favorably on Parentless Applications for Pittsburgh.

The state charter board, created by the last legislature, consisting of the governor, attorney general and secretary of the commonwealth, held its first meeting in Harrisburg yesterday and considered the mysterious applications for charters for two elevated railroads in Pittsburgh. Nobody appeared in behalf of the applications, nobody appeared against them, the board simply considered the matter of regularity of form and will grant the charters today. The governor's son, Stephen Stone, is attorney for the applicants, whose identity is not yet disclosed.

The Bloomfield Street Company is to be capitalized at $80,000 and to build a line one and six-tenths miles long in Pittsburgh, commencing at the intersection of Fourteenth street and Liberty avenue and running along Liberty avenue to Denny street, near the Forks of the Road, Lawrenceville. The Second Avenue Company's line is to be four and eight-tenths miles long, beginning at the intersection of Grant street and Second avenue and running along Second avenue to the line of the Glenwood high bridge, returning by the same route. This company is to b capitalized at $240,000.

The incorporators of both companies are A. P. Weitel of Allegheny, W. O. Anderson of Wilkinsburg, T. K. Bishop, T. B. Rook and W. Douglass of Pittsburgh. These persons are young clerks in brokers' offices. M. K. McMullin was at first credited with being the promoter of both companies, but he has denied connection with them. Connection has also been denied by President J. D. Callery and other officers of the Pittsburgh Railways Company.

W. S. Guffey, the head and moving spirit in the Anti-L league, said last night: "I do not know yet who is back of the successful application for charters, but I do know that we will fight them to the bitter end. The councilmen elected last spring are almost every one pledged against granting franchises to any elevated roads in Pittsburgh and we will hold them to those pledges.

"If they fail us we will attack the charter act in the courts. I have been advised by some of the most eminent attorneys in the state that this act is unconstitutional, and we will carry the fight to the supreme court, if necessary. The Anti-L league is still very much alive, and will be heard from when the time comes. The incorporators named in the charter for these roads are merely straw men, and I have been trying to find out who is back of them. They will have to come out of the bushes soon, and we will then begin our attack."

A New Baptist Chapel.

A meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Union of the Baptist church, was held last night in the South Nineteenth German Baptist church. The object of the meeting was to provide for the erection of a chapel for the Forty-sixth Street Baptist congregation. The Rev. Walter Rauschbach, professor of church history in the Rochester (N. Y.) Theological seminary, delivered an address.

DYNAMITE BLAST KILLS FOREMAN

Premature Explosion Among Gang of Workmen Tears Man's Limbs Off.

Joseph Turon, foreman of a gang of Italian workmen, constructing a sewer at Verona, was so terribly injured yesterday that he died later in the West Penn hospital.

Turon was directing the placing of a blast of dynamite when the cap was exploded. He had not time to get out of danger, and his arms and legs were torn from his body. All the men near the spot at the time were thrown down and stunned, but none but Turon was seriously hurt.

The man was unconscious when picked up and was sent immediately to the West Penn hospital, where he died last night.

CHRISTIANITY, OLD AND NEW, DESCRIBED

Dr. Patton's Third Lecture Dealt With Different Viewpoints Taken of Bible.

"The New Christianity" was the subject of a lecture delivered in the Third Presbyterian church, Fifth and South Negley avenues, last night by the Rev. Dr. Francis L. Patton, president of the Princeton Theological seminary. This was the third lecture of the present series and the spacious church was filled with men and women of a scientific, theological or philosophical turn of mind. The great number of young women who have faithfully attended these lectures has been marked. In his lecture, Dr. Patton compared the old with the new Christianity. He said, in part:

"There are two postulates in regard to what Christianity is: That the Christian religion is a revelation from God to men through the Bible; or, that it is a stage in a great process of evolution. These are the postulates; between them we must choose. It is important that we choose now.

"I believe that this religion of ours is God's information to us, in respect to a way of salvation. No one can help being interested in this great question. Loss of interest must mean loss of sense or belief. But what we now want is definite information on this question of authority in the Bible and in religion.

"The old Christianity was intensely interested in the Bible. It studied this great work on all possible occasions, and hence was well versed in its contents. But it was not always sure as to the exact interpretations. The Calvinists interpret the meaning of a certain prophecy as one thing, the Lutherans take another meaning, and so on. But that they all believe what they read is true, whether or not they agree as to the meaning intended, unites all these religions and disposes of the question of authority.

"The new Christianity wants to know the particular environment as each book became part of the Bible. It doubts the authenticity of the works and deeds recorded in the Bible. It presents an uncomfortable proposition. It claims that it believes the gospel, but does not have it; it doubts Paul, while it has him. The new Christianity is more interested in finding out how we got the Bible, rather than what it contains. It says that we have undergone a change in our religious thoughts and opinions."

THE DEMOCRATS FAVOR FUSION

Old Line Party Men Are Not Working for a Straight Ticket.

WILL JOIN WITH CITIZENS

City Committee to Be Called to Fix a Date for Primaries and a City Convention—County Officials to Confer.

The action of the Twentieth ward Democrats has stirred the old line members of the party, who favor fusion in the recordership election. There were several conferences yesterday, at which steps were taken to see that the Democrats are not too hasty. The indications are that the candidate named by the Citizens will be indorsed by the Democratic convention.

The Democratic city convention will be held about the first of the new year. The party is practically without rules. A year ago, when John B. Larkin was nominated for controller, a rule was adopted constituting the delegates to that convention a city committee for a term of three years. George W. Guthrie was made chairman of the body for three years. In the past it was customary to hold triennial conventions and the makers of the rule of 1901 overlooked the fact that a city recorder was to be nominated in 1902. The party managers now have to rely on the unwritten rule of the party. As it was the custom of the past for the city committee to fix a date for primaries and a convention it is altogether probable that this plan will be followed this year.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the city committee within a few days. This body will no doubt decide that the proper procedure is to call the city committee together at an early date and adopt a resolution fixing a day for primaries and a convention. Chairman Guthrie is said to favor this plan. It will also be necessary to make some new rules, determining whether the present city committee will continue in power or the delegates to the proposed convention will constitute the body. If such action is not taken there will be two city committees and two chairmen.

While some of the Democrats are declaiming for Mr. Guthrie for recorder, it is not likely that he will be a candidate. On the subject of recordership timber he is silent, but there is nothing to indicate that he intends to change his course. He was among the original advocates of a Citizens movement, and his friends believe that next spring he will be found a chairman of the Democratic city committee, supporting a fusion candidate for recorder.

The new county officials are to hold a conference about the first of the month. At this meeting they will discuss their appointments. It may be that there will not be any changes made at the court house until after the February election.

ENGLISH LABOR LEADERS.

Plans for Entertaining the Visitors on Their Arrival Here Today.

Alfred Mosely, the British manufacturer, and his train of trades union workingmen, did not arrive in Pittsburgh yesterday. According to telegrams received by John Jarrett, they will come this morning. Quarters have been secured for 20 at the Hotel Griswold, and Mr. Mosely, Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the National Civic Federation, and others of the party will stop at the Hotel Lincoln.

John Pierce, assitant to the president of the Amalgamated association, with a delegation of labor leaders, will meet the party on its arrival. They will pay particular attention to the entertainment of the workingmen members of the party while J. W. Orth of the American Window Glass Company, will look out for Mr. Mosely. John Jarrett, as a former millworker, and now a representative of the sheet steel manufacturers, will make it pleasant for manufacturer and workers.

SAY BROWN DID NOT KEEP FAITH

Thirteenth Ward Citizens Claim He Promised to Fight Pest House.

OFFERED TO GIVE MONEY

First Opportunity He Had to Be of Service, He Used His Veto Ax—Fight to Be Continued.

In vetoing the resolution relative to the erection of the Municipal hospital Recorder J. O. Brown is said to have broken faith with the Thirteenth ward committee that is fighting the location of the pest house in that ward. Effort will now be made to pass the resolution over the head of the recorder.

There were two resolutions. One requested Attorney General John P. Elkin to allow the use of the name of the commonwealth by Thirteenth ward citizens in a suit to be filed by those fighting the location of the hospital in that ward. The other one directed the city attorney and director of the department of public safety to withdraw their opposition to the granting of such permission.

"Recorder Brown has not kept faith with us," said W. W. McElhaney, chairman of the Thirteenth ward citizens' committee last night. "Some time ago several of us called upon him and he then told us that he would do everything in his power to prevent the building of the hospital in our ward. He said that he would sign any legislation we brought before him. 'I will do more than that,' the recorder added. 'I will subscribe as much to a fund to fight the hospital as you will, Mr. McEldowney,' and Brown pointed to William McEldowney. Continuing he said: 'If you will come to my office I will give your committee a check for $500.' We thanked the recorder and said that we did not need the money then.

"The first legislation to come before Brown he vetoed. He gives as his reason that Kerr & Fox, the contractors, would sue the city for damages if work is stopped on the building. So far the contractors have let only the excavating and probably $1,000 worth of work has been done. From information that I have received that Kerr & Fox would be glad to be relieved of the contract, as they have agreed to do the work at a very low price.

"Councils passed those resolutions without a dissenting vote. We will ask the councilmen at the meetings next week to refuse to sustain the vetoes. I am of the opinion that we will win. If we fail the fight will continue along another line. We want the hospital erected outside the city limits and believe that the necessary legislation can be gotten. The committee is also informed that an arrangement can be made with a railroad company to run a special car to convey patients to the hospital."

MOTHER WROTE TO CORONER.

Charles Coss of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Disappeared Here.

Coroner McGeary received a letter from Mrs. H. Coss of No. 225 Rich avenue, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., yesterday afternoon asking him to aid her in locating her son, Charles Raymond Coss. Coss was a salesman and left his home on October 15 to travel through West Virginia, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania. On October 20 he came to Pittsburgh. On that day he went to the reading room of the Hotel Anderson and wrote a letter to his mother. He took off his overcoat and cuffs and left them in the room while he went out to post the letter.

He never returned to the hotel. His luggage, coat and cuffs were found and sent to his mother in Mt. Vernon. Detectives traced him to Griffith, O.; from that place to Woodsville, O., then to Bellaire, O., where they lost the trail. His mother says he came from Bellaire to Pittsburgh. He is well connected in New York state and is prominent in Masonic circles.

WHAT A SAMPLE BOTTLE OF SWAMP-ROOT DID

To Prove What the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, Will do for YOU, Every Reader of "The Pittsburgh Gazette" May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

W. F. Lohnes, a prominent business man of Springfield, Ohio, writes the following strong indorsement of the great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, to the Editor of the Springfield, Ohio, Republic:

Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 21st, 1901.

"Having heard that you could procure a sample bottle of Swamp-Root free by mail, I wrote to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle and it was promptly sent. I was so pleased after trying the sample bottle that I sent to the drug store and procured a supply. I have used Swamp-Root regularly for some time, and consider it unsurpassed as a remedy for torpid liver, loss of appetite and general derangement of the digestive functions. I think my trouble was due to too close confinement in my business. I can recommend it highly for all liver and kidney complaints. I am not in the habit of indorsing any medicine, but in this case I cannot speak too much in praise of what Swamp Root has done for me."

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

EDITORIAL NOTE.—If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking this wonderful discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root, containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women who owe their good health, in fact their very lives, to the great curative properties of Swamp-Root. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co.: Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in The Pittsburgh Gazette.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BUYING CHRISTMAS PIANOS

W. F. Frederick, 633 Smithfield St., Has Already Taken Many Orders for Christmas Delivery—His Holiday Stock Is Complete—The Best Pianos in the World and More World Standard Makes Than Can Be Found in Any One Store In the Country.

There is a glorious promise of a glorious Christmas time. All signs point to it. The number of pianos and piano players that W. F. Frederick has already sold and put aside for Christmas delivery leaves no room to fear that the joy of this Christmas season will be marred by a money stringency.

People from the wealthiest class down the scale of money seem to have plenty now and seem to be convinced that the future has plenty in store for them all.

The best-to-do people of the "greater" city are purchasing of Frederick beautiful instruments for Christmas gifts, and they are set aside for delivery at the proper time.

It is extremely important that you buy hundreds of magnificent instruments that make up our holiday stock and you make sure that your purchase will be delivered promptly as you direct—not a day too soon or a day too late. Buying early enables us to arrange for hauling, and when you consider the delivery of many pianos on a single day to all parts of the city and suburbs you can imagine how important it is that we are given plenty of time.

We want Christmas piano buyers to come now—our stock is complete and we guarantee you

The largest collection of pianos between New York and Chicago; and more accepted world-standard and high grade pianos than can be seen under any one roof in the United States.

The list is headed by the acknowledged leader of the world—the peerless Chickering, the oldest piano in America, the standard by which all pianos are good or bad.

Then come Hardmans, Kroegers, Schomackers, McPhails, Behr Bros., Haines & Co. and others, and every one a piano of name and fame.

Then see the Chase & Baker Piano Player—beyond a doubt the best—Exhibitions free every day.

FOURTEEN PAGES.

Those who construed the circumstances attending the appointment of Director McCandless as an indication that he was there to represent the interests of the new reservoir contractors will find much in his present behavior to confirm their theory. He certainly does not act as if he represented the city. While it is true that some seepage takes place from every large reservoir, yet the streams pouring into the Haight ravine are too large to be accounted for in that way. They indicate leaks which should be found and stopped before the reservoir can be accepted as a fulfillment of the contract. Instead of exerting himself to have the reservoir accepted as it is, the duty of the director is to enforce the obligations assumed by the contractors.

The report that an increase of freight rates is pending is not surprising, and if the increase were made without discrimination, so as to be equally distributed over competitive interests, it would not need to be injurious to business. Rates in this country have been much lower than in Europe, and it is becoming more important to production to have better service at a little higher rate than inadequate service at present rates. The increased expense would be simply one factor of cost to consumers and not the controlling factor, and on the other hand the vast army of railroad employes gain by the higher rates of compensation which the railroads can make only on the basis of increased earnings, and this wage increase will promote the welfare of every community in the country. Information as to the shape which the increase of freight rates will take excites apprehensions that they will bear hardly upon Pittsburgh industry. It is reported that bulk shipments will have to bear the chief burden of increased rates, and such shipments constitute the greater part of the tonnage output of the Pittsburgh district. The matter hence becomes of much more concern to this community than if the increase were general, and Pittsburgh commercial interests should bestir themselves to see that they receive fair consideration.

It is stated upon undeniably good authority that iron and steel products are scheduled to bear an advance of 20 per cent, while wheat and corn are to be advanced only 2 or 3 per cent. This is manifestly unfair. True, grain shipments from the west to the Atlantic are in competition with the Canadian railroads and the great lakes, while Pittsburgh freights must go over the railroads, except such as find an outlet down the uncertain Ohio. This is a reason why the railroads may prefer to put the tax upon Pittsburgh, but it is not just. Pittsburgh shippers will not object to paying their full share of additional rates, or even a little more, but they have cause for complaint in the prospect of having to pay pretty nearly the whole fee of the piper while other interests do more of the dancing to the music. Iron is not a direct competitor with wheat, of course, but the whole plan of readjustment appears to put an undue burden upon the industries of this region.

The wage raising movement started by the railroads has spread to the large industrial corporations, and advances of from 10 to 15 per cent are being announced. How great the aggregate gain to labor is is shown by the fact that a general advance of 10 per cent by the railroads alone would amount to over fifty million dollars a year. This is only one phase of a general movement. Business activity in all lines is so great that there is a sharp demand for labor of all kinds, and in accordance with the law of supply and demand, wages are going up. The movement is not in the least philanthropic, but is based upon the business necessity of offering sufficient inducements to keep present labor and procure additional supplies. Doubtless, during the present year, the increased gains of wage earners will run into hundreds of millions of dollars. And this notwithstanding the check upon prosperity, caused by a currency system unable to make a proper response to business requirements.

The Populist party is fast going to the general doom of third parties in this country, and it will probably disappear from the next edition of the congressional directory as a political designation. Senator Harris of Kansas, who has been heretofore designated as a Populist, has requested that he be classified as a Democrat hereafter. The three Populists on the present roll of the house were all defeated. There have been many attempts to found new national parties in this country, but the Republican party is the only one that has permanently established itself. It dates back to 1856 and was originally a third party, the two leading parties then being the Democrats and the Whigs. It succeeded because it embodied an issue that the old parties avoided, but which the people supported, and it took the place of the Whig party as the national antagonist of the Democratic party. The Republican party has had a longer tenure of power than any other political organization which ever existed in this country. The Federalist party, which founded the government, controlled it for two terms. The Republican party of Jefferson held for six presidential terms. The Whig party, Republican party of Adams and Clay got in with John Quincy Adams, but never had a majority. The Democratic party, which rose to power under Jackson's leadership, had six terms before the war and two terms since, or eight in all. The old Whig party won two presidential elections, but in both cases lost its chosen head by death and the vice presidential succession turned out badly for it. The Republican party has had nine presidential terms already, with the promise of many more.

An interesting phase of the new development of Western Canada, in which American farmers are largely participating, is shown in the bonding of the Humboldt mill of the Washburn-Crosby Company at Minneapolis to grind Canadian wheat for export, and the bonding of an elevator at the same city to store Canadian oats to be made into oatmeal. Thus the agricultural benefits accrue to Canada, while the industrial benefits come to the United States. Canada may grow the wheat and England consume the flour, but the United States excels in manufacturing the one into the other, as it excels in making the machinery used on the Canadian farms. At times American and Canadian statesmen assail each other in vigorous terms. Tariffs and boundaries are discussed with heat. But when all is done there is a lasting friendship between the peoples on either side of the border and a commercial intercourse without parallel anywhere. The interests of Canada and the United States are as nearly identical as those of two countries could be.

LOOKING FORWARD.

In the consolidation of the Union Steel Company with the Sharon Steel Company is to be seen the working of the prevailing industrial tendency. Large operations have a better chance of success than small. The two companies concerned in this combination are among the largest of those outside the United States Steel Corporation, and united will rank with the outside leaders. Taken together they are located advantageously to the supplies of raw material and for the construction of a railroad between the coke fields and the lake shore—a project that is clearly indicated in the announcement of the consolidation.

The pace was set by the Carnegie company management in the matter of consolidated ownership of fuel, limestone, ore and transportation. That policy has been continued and enlarged by the United States Steel Corporation, whose most valuable assets are the coal and ore beds owned by it. These must necessarily increase in value, as Mr. Lovejoy states, and justify the highest estimates of investors in the corporation securities. The new consolidation, in common with the Jones & Laughlin Company, has rightly appreciated the far-sighted plans of the former Carnegie company management and followed its example to the extent of buying coal and ore lands and planning independent transportation.

To Pittsburgh this latest combination of interests is significant. It belongs to Pittsburgh and it assures the continued supremacy of this region in iron and steel. The principal business of the United States Corporation is in this region and will remain here. The Jones & Laughlin Company belongs to this city and the consolidated Union and Sharon Companies have been added to the galaxy of concerns that are equipped to meet the competition of the world upon favorable terms. There is ample room for all of them. The increasing demand for iron and steel products will keep them all busy, so there is no conflict between them. If there comes a time when the demand is less these Pittsburgh companies owning their own fuel, ore, limestone and transportation may divide the world's markets amnog them.

IMPETUS TO COMMERCE.

The impetus which the completion of the Isthmian canal will give to commercial development is already indicated by the way the prospect of its construction is stimulating collateral enterprise. Recent consular reports issued at Washington state that enterprises in which New York, Boston and Pittsburgh capitalists are interested are already afoot in Peru. The agent of the syndicate has obtained a contract to build a street railway, establish a telephone system and install a lighting plant in Iquitos, a Peruvian city of some 20,000 people, in a district lying in the water shed of the Amazon. A similar contract is pending with Manaos, a Brazilian city of 40,000 population, on the upper Amazon. The Peruvian government is offering inducements to capital to construct a railroad from the headwaters of the Amazon to the Pacific coast, opening up to commerce a region which for centuries has been reported to be one of the richest in the world in natural resources. In addition to vast mineral wealth, it possesses vast forests of valuable hard woods and economic plants, rubber especially being found in quantities unknown elsewhere in the world. With the completion of the Panama canal, the seaport terminus of the proposed railroad will be but eight days' steam from New York. The distance from Pittsburgh will be much shorter than from New York, and with proper river improvements an immense market will be opened for Pittsburgh products by direct shipments via New Orleans. River improvement is necessary to give Pittsburgh direct participation in the commercial opportunities that will be created by the Panama canal, as the distance to the gulf is so great that railroad shipments will always find their most economical outlet in the Atlantic ports.

FUTURE OF CIRCUS CANDIDATE.

In considering the Hon. Tom L. Johnson, mayor of Cleveland, O., as a factor in politics and government, it is profitable to contemplate his distinguishing characteristics as exhibited in his record and proclaimed by himself. Therein is the prophecy of his future. Mr. Johnson has been before the people in business and in politics for many years, and though he has posed as a public reformer and is understood to have cherished presidential ambitions that were planted in his breast lang syne, his real attitude toward reform appears in his declared readiness at all times, for his own advantage, to make use of means at hand that he professes to condemn. At the moment he is restrained by an order of the supreme court of Ohio from "reorganizing" the government of Cleveland by turning out people not subservient to him and turning in people who are. As he poses as a municipal and all 'round reformer, it might be assumed that his motive is the good of the city were it not that he is condemned out of his own mouth. For the files of the congressional record contain his boast that he does not labor exclusively for the good of the people. In a certain memorable tariff debate in congress, when Mr. Johnson was taken to task for inconsistency in denouncing the protective tariffs under whose shelter he had with entirely commendable enterprise founded a flourishing business, he replied, with what some might consider brazen effrontery, that if other people made bad laws he would not hesitate to take advantage of them. Now, the tariff law is not a bad law, even if it did give Mr. Johnson the opportunity to enrich himself by the exercise of his undoubted abilities; on the contrary it is a beneficent provision for the protection of American capital and labor. But Mr. Johnson's manner of replying to the criticism passed upon him is a beautiful illumination of his attitude toward public matters in general. His reply did not dispose of the tariff, but it did reveal the man. Mr. Johnson could have squared his business conduct with the simple assertion that when he went into business he was compelled to accept conditions as he found them, which would have been the plain truth. But an answer like this did not suit his purpose, and because it didn't we see Johnson as Johnson wanted himself to be known—out for Johnson, let the chips fall where they may, and regardless of who got in the way of the ax. In the light of this can it be believed that the mayor of Cleveland in seeking to turn out employes of the city government and put Johnson men in their places is animated by other than consideration for the political future of Johnson? The circus candidate is the witness against himself. He is judged out of his own mouth.

Doubtless the people have seen Johnson as he is without this aid to a true estimate, and as a result we may judge his political future by what happened to his ticket in his effort to give Ohio a secretary of state of his own choice.

In harking back to Tuesday, November 4, when his man, Bigelow, was buried under an adverse majority of 90,000 votes, it is not mere imagination that sees a connection between the circumstance and popular perception of the hollowness of Johnsonism as a panacea for ills, real or financial, of the body politic. We think the mayor of Cleveland has been voted among the has-beens for the good and sufficient reason supplied by himself when he made his memorable declaration before being retired from congressional activity. It is only because people had forgotten it that he came into temporary prominence in Ohio, and it is because it sticks up in plain sight in his more recent public career that he has been again voted down. No man can serve the people on such a platform, and even a circus tent is not big enough to conceal the truth from public view.

HOW PANICS ARE BRED.

The current issue of The Annals contains two timely articles upon the present monetary disturbance. Such a phenomenon as the decline of good securities in market value while their actual worth is increasing demonstrates an abnormal condition of affairs. This condition is produced by the fact that the currency system is inadequate to business needs, so that the abounding prosperity produces financial stringency.

The present trouble is traceable to two causes: The inelasticity of the circulating medium and the keeping of bank reserves in financial centers. The national banking law divides banks into three classes. The first class, consisting of banks located in New York, are required to keep a reserve of 25 per cent of their deposits; banks of the second class, located in 16 of the leading cities, are required to maintain the same reserve, but may deposit one-half of that reserve in New York banks. Banks of the third class include all others, and they are required to keep a reserve of only 15 per cent, and of this 9 per cent may be deposited with national banks of the first or second class. Thus the law tends to accumulate the bulk of bank reserves in financial centers, where they are loaned out. There being no way of increasing supplies of currency in accordance with business needs, demands for funds cause an immediate pressure upon bank reserves. When interior banks need funds for the moving of the crops or other special business activity, loans must be called in by the New York banks irrespective of values; and the stock market instantly collapses. The well known financial expert, Albert I. Bolles, thus explains the process:

All are on the same plane; the man who has gilt-edged securities, as well as the man who has the most questionable ones. They cannot borrow for the reason that all the banks are calling loans; all want money. Why is it needed? Because the country banks have recalled their deposits. To this it is said the borrowers may sell their stocks. But can they? The exchange is open, to be sure. But, in order to sell, there must be buyers. No one can buy when there are no funds available to pay for purchases. This is precisely the situation. The only course open is to borrow from outsiders. These, however, are depositors; and in making loans new demands are made on the banks for payment of deposits. This may again operate to reduce the reserves, which in turn forces them to "call." The market instantly collapses because so many wish to sell collaterals, and so few are in condition to buy. There are persons enough to know that, at the prices offered, stocks are very low, and will surely advance, but they cannot buy because they have no funds and cannot borrow, except at exorbitant rates. The banks, usually most willing and glad to lend, are suddenly prevented from lending because depositors are demanding their money. Loans, therefore, at such a time, are practically impossible.

It is conclusive testimony to the prudence with which American banking is conducted that it has been able to withstand such periodical strains, but this is accomplished by a practical suspension of the transactions for which banks are established. The public hears the walls of the stock speculators whose margins are wiped out and whose holdings are sacrificed, but the chief sufferers are those engaged in the regular transactions of business. They are unable to obtain discounts of unmatured obligations, or the ordinary accommodations called for by mercantile credit, and thus perfectly safe business operations are paralyzed.

All these evils are quite unnecessary. Canada, right along side of us, is quite free from them. They are wholly the products of unwise legislation and unless congress can be induced to grant relief the very prosperity we are now enjoying will breed a financial panic.

Socialism was rejected by the Federation of Labor, but it was by a narrow majority. In this connection it may be remarked that state socialism has been growing rapidly in this country, though its advocates do not always stop to consider what it really means. It is encouraged by such incidents as the late anthracite strike with its accompaniment of unreasoning stubbornness on the part of the operators. But that is only one side of the question. The other side is the control of everything by politicians probably as selfish and less competent than the coal operators.

Wu Ting Fang's last words as he withdrew from Washington official life formed a query that we would all be pleased to have answered in the affirmative. "Shall I ever see beautiful Washington again," said the departing diplomatist.

Mr. Bryan went to the theater last week, says an exchange. The significance of the item lies in the fact that the play was "The Comedy of Errors."

A healthy hog without a heart is an Ohio curiosity. It may be well to add that this particular hog was of the four-legged variety.

When it comes to answering questions John Mitchell shows quite as much skill as the questioners have displayed in the asking.

The name of the new president of the Cuban house of representatives has a very cigarish sort of sound. It is Portmondo.

The Democratic editors are beginning to discuss the 1904 prospects. The optimism of some people is really marvelous.

The weather man tried yesterday to further befog the freight congestion situation in the Pittsburgh district.

ALL EYES BENT UPON L SHARES

Something Seems to Be Doing, but George Gould Not One to Give It Away.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.

Notwithstanding that the upward movement of Manhattan "L" has been the sensation of Wall street for two or three days, there is a singular absence of well-founded explanation for the flurry. The price went up to 154¾ at one time today. George Gould, the one man who could give some interesting information if he would, has kept carefully out of sight, and scores of frantic would-be interviewers spent most of the afternoon dodging about the Western Union building, in the hope that they could catch the alert young president of the company; but Mr. Gould, like his distinguished father, is a past-master in the art of avoiding questioners when it suits his purpose. The statement at his office was that Mr. Gould was attending a directors' meeting, or "away at lunch," or "down Broadway," or "gone home," or—well, anything that suggested itself to the mind of the harassed watchdogs of his privacy. One effect of the impossibility of substantiating yesterday's rumors that the entire Manhattan system was about to pass into other hands was that there was a reaction soon after the opening of the market today, and some of the wise ones looked for a steady and rapid tumble. That there was no such catastrophe, set the newsmongers going again. The rumor of yesterday that the subway company, which is known now as the Inter-borough Rapid Transit Company, is negotiating for control of the "L," has been revived vigorously, and, as it is not specifically denied by the heads of either corporation, the feeling is prevalent that the deal may be going through. The horse show is obliged to share with the Manhattan Company excitement the interest of the public, and at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight groups of Wall street men sat on the leather couches and in the big easy chairs along the corridor at the western end of the hotel, so deeply interested in the market that they almost forgot there was a horse show in the city.

Bronx Zoo a Rival to Highland Park.

Evidently W. T. Hornaday, the zoological enthusiast, is determined that the city's collection of animals at the Bronx park shall be the most interesting in the country, if he can manage it. He is always on the watch for new specimens of birds and beasts, and doubtless would look for fishes as well, but that he does not wish to encroach on the rights of the aquarium downtown. A shipload of animals of all kinds, including some "snatx," arrived today, and Mr. Hornaday had secured a bear, a leopard, a lot of monkeys, a python and a few other beauties before rival animal collectors had a chance at the shipment at all. The Bronx zoo will give the Highland park manageric a pretty hard tussle for first place if Pittsburgh does not look out.

Prefers Local Option to Prohibition.

A man who is credited with knowing something about the subject, boldly declared today in this city that prohibition is a failure in the fight against drunkenness. The man was the Rev. Raymond Calkins of Pittsfield, Mass. He was addressing the New York state conference of religion in the United Charities building on "The Saloon, Its Functions, and Its Perils." He was of opinion that the only solution of the great drink problem in this country is local option. There will be many to disagree with Mr. Calkins, but he made out a good case for himself, nevertheless, as most of his hearers conceded.

Goat Nuisance on Staten Island.

People on Staten Island have many troubles, including crazy old ferryboats, a poor street car service and mosquitoes in summer. Now there is something new to make life hardly worth living in what should be the most desirable suburb of Manhattan, considering its natural advantages. It is complained that goats break windows to get at the flowers set forth inside by domestic lovers of nature, and that the crash of glass and munching of geraniums and rubber plants are perpetual sounds on the island. The police have been asked to interfere; but what can police do against goats in full health and activity?

Actor Harry Lacy in Hospital.

Harry Lacy, the actor, who was sent to Bellevue suffering from mental aberration a week ago, is still in that hospital, and it is feared he will have to remain there many months before he will be convalescent. In fact, some of his friends fear that it may be longer than that.

Miss Astor Like Her Father.

It is said that Miss Pauline Astor, daughter of William Waldorf Astor, who arrived in New York this morning by the steamer Majestic, does not like American interviewers any more than does her distinguished father. When some one asked her on the way down from quarantine how long she intended to remain in New York, she cut the interviewer dead by turning her back. Some one, speaking for her, declared that she would not be the guest of Mrs. William Astor, however.

Miss Dressler Near Death.

Marie Dressler, the actress, is so ill tonight with typhoid fever that her physicians are afraid she may not live until morning unless a radical change in her condition takes place.

Slips of the Weather Man.

The weather forecaster, after trying to make it rain for nearly a month gave it up today and prophesied fair weather. That is what New York has had right along, barring a few morning fogs. The northeaster predicted for yesterday did not come, and every time rain has been promised the sun has insisted on shining with extra brilliancy. There is some anxiety as to the whereabouts of Device, the Hackensack weather prophet. He has not delivered himself of an opinion publicly since last summer.

Croker's Retirement Seems Real.

Mr. Cram, formerly president of the New York board, had a talk with Richard Croker two weeks ago, and when he reached this city from Europe today he had a great deal to say about the old Tammany "boss." Croker told him he would not come to the United States for several years, being busy with his horse-breeding work on the other side. This will settle some of the controversy as to whether Croker is likely to return to New York to take charge of Tammany hall again; only some of it, of course, because there will be always people to say that Murphy, the present leader of the organization, is holding the office only as a representative of the great and only Richard. Murphy laughs at such reports, particularly now that Mr. Cram has brought a message of congratulation to Murphy from Mr. Croker on his excellent management of Tammany affairs. It looks as if Croker really has retired this time.

Where Block Signal Failed.

A railroad collision over in Jersey this morning suggests again that even the block signal system is not infallible when weather conditions are not perfect. Two freight trains crashed into each other, head-on, because the fog was so dense that one of the engineers could not see the block set against him. He was close to the signal. Fogs have caused a great deal of trouble every morning for the last few weeks around New York, particularly in the harbor; but this is the first railroad accident of any moment that has happened. An engineer and fireman were badly hurt, but no one was killed.

Wanton Rumors Reflecting Upon Show

One of the annoyances suffered by the managers of the horse show is the positive assertion that there are several horses ill with pneumonia at Madison Square garden, and that there is danger of an epidemic. The management are trying to trace the stories to their source with the intention of punishing the founders of them. They declare that there is no pneumonia in the garden, and that of the two horses belonging to Judge Moore, reported to have died yesterday and today, one of them is alive and well and the other, Dr. Pitzer, died several months ago. Every year there are rumors of an unpleasant kind which seem to be set afloat in sheer wantonness, and this time the Horse Show association declares it is determined to run them down.

Carrie Sees Enough of Horse Show.

Carrie Nation does not like the horse show. She said so, loudly and emphatically, today. Then, as she passed through the cafe at the garden, she seized a quart bottle of champagne from a table and began to pour the wine upon the floor. There were two men and a woman at the table, and their howls of dismay could be heard all over the big room. Then a policeman took the gentle Carrie around the waist and lifted her into the outer air as gently as was consistent with a certain amount of necessary force. Carrie only smiled as she trotted across Madison square to take a Broadway car. She had had all she wanted of the horse show.

Apprentices Get the Worst of a Strike.

Sixty-five apprentices in the employ of Tiffany & Co. deliberately forfeited $100 apiece, which would be given to them by the firm at the end of their apprenticeships, by going on a strike in sympathy with the silversmiths, who have been out for several weeks. The works are at Newark. Besides giving apprentices $100 each, it has been the custom of the firm to pay apprentices for their time when away on vacations, but this little douceur also will be cut off. Altogether, it is likely to be rather an expensive strike for the bold 'prentices.

Kubelik's Rival Lands.

Kocian, the much-heralded violinist, who is to put Kubelik's artistic nose out of joint if Rudolph Aronson has his way, is safely in New York. He came on the Majestic. As soon as he was ashore his manager seized him, hustled him into a cab and took him away, to be prepared for giving out interviews later in the day. Kocian is a slim little chap, and he seemed to be somewhat bewildered by the hustling American methods that caught him in a whirl as soon as he landed. It is said that he is a remarkable violinist. New York will have an opportunity of judging that on Saturday night in Carnegie hall.

Gaiety in Broadway.

Broadway and the various uptown hotels were never more brilliant than this week. It seems as if the crowds that pass leisurely up and down the main thoroughfare of Manhattan are better dressed, better humored and better mannered than usual. Perhaps it is because the weather is so delightful. A nervous community like this is easily affected by meteorological conditions, and such a long and uniformly pleasant Indian summer as New York has had and still has, is enough to drive the blues out of the grumpiest man or woman that ever came down the pike from the interior, or hung to a strap in a crowded Harlem car. From what one can see, it looks as if the Broadway promenaders were there to enjoy the exercise of walking along in the light of the stores, theaters and other establishments without any consideration of going anywhere in particular. As for the hotels, they are jammed. The Waldorf-Astoria, the Holland, the Imperial and the Fifth Avenue seem to be part of the horse show, for one meets the same people there that one sees at Madison Square garden, and the yellow and black of the horse show are not as prominent in one place as another. The motto of the night all over upper Manhattan seems to be, "Abandon care, all ye that enter here."

Mean Swindle on Catholic Priests.

A new and dirty swindle has broken out in Brooklyn. A man named Frank Richards has been victimizing Catholic clergymen by making arrangements for a mass to be said for a near and dear relative, and tendering in payment of the regular $10 offering a bogus check for $24. He received the change in half a dozen cases, but was caught today by Father Carr of St. Mary's church, Williamsburg, and has been held for trial at special sessions. It is characteristic of rascals in New York that many of them try to victimize Catholic priests under one pretense and another, taking advantage of the Christian charity that is naturally with their holy calling. And the worst of it is that they generally "land" two or three times before they are caught. It is, perhaps, hardly necessary to say that this is not the Frank Richards who was a well-known theatrical manager in Pittsburgh a few years ago.

Ward Man Bissert Jumps His Bail.

George Bissert, the former policeman who was sentenced to five and a half years at Sing Sing, but was, after serving a few months in stripes, released on bail pending a new trial, has disappeared. In other words, he has "jumped his bail." It is whispered that his second conviction might mean trouble for someone "higher up." The sensational convictions of millionaire politicians in St. Louis have sent a sympathetic shiver through certain highly respectable circles in New York.

Popular Prince Cupid.

From the Topeka Journal.

Everybody should be satisfied with the election of Prince Cupid to congress from Hawaii, except Wilcox, who was defeated. Both the Republican and the Democratic parties offered him the nomination. He is a Home Ruler himself. He accepted the Republican tender and was elected by a plurality of about 2,000.

Henry Watterson's Ambition.

From the Baltimore American.

Henry Watterson won't be satisfied unless he is written down in history as a social arbiter and a political dictator.

PERSONALS.

"Pittsburghers may expect an epidemic of trauconia, a disease of the eye, if immigration to this section is not in some manner checked soon," said Richard Haron, United States immigrant inspector at Ellis Island, at the Union station last night. Inspector Haron has been detailed to Pittsburgh for special duty. "The number of immigrants to this country this year is greater than ever known before," he said. "The majority of foreigners coming in are of Swedish, Slavish, Norwegian, Greek and Roumanian Jewish descent. At the coming session of congress it will become necessary to pass new laws regulating immigration. These laws must be more stringent than the present ones and many changes and alterations will have to be made. The foreigners who come to this country to live as a general rule have practically no intelligence and are extremely detrimental to our country. In many of the schools in the poorer districts of New York there are epidemics of the disease that may reach Pittsburgh soon. Trauconia is a peculiar disease. It is contagious and spreads very rapidly. The New York board of health statistics show that nearly 25 per cent of the children in many schools are afflicted with the disease, while hospitals in the various parts of the city are crowded with children suffering from this affliction."

On account of the New York horse show and the football game which is scheduled for New Haven Saturday between Yale and Harvard, travel over the roads leading east last night was very heavy. The Baltimore & Ohio ran extra sleepers to Philadelphia and New York on all their eastern trains last night and many passengers went out during the day. At least 200 Pittsburghers will see the crimson and blue battle for supremacy. Four extra Pullmans were attached to the fast line over the Pennsylvania last night, while one extra sleeper was attached to the 9 o'clock train. These cars were all crowded and not a berth could be had. The sleeping apartments in these coaches have been sold for weeks ahead and it is expected that the greatest crowd will go out tonight. Many Pittsburghers who left the city last night will attend the horse show in New York today and will go from the metropolis tonight to New Haven.

An extra passenger coach had to be attached to the regular 7 o'clock train over the Pennsylvania railroad last night in order to accommodate about 75 Italians en route to New York, going to Italy.

H. D. Townsend of Youngstown, O., one of the most prominent sewer-pipe manufacturers in the Buckeye state, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh and was registered at the Hotel Lincoln last night.

Frank M. Wallace, formerly a national bank examiner, but now vice president of the Second National bank of Erie, Pa., is a guest at the Hotel Lincoln this week.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Judge George J. Black.

Judge George J. Black, aged 74, died suddenly at his residence at Meyersdale, Pa., yesterday. He was one of the best-known citizens in Somerset county. He was a brother of A. G. Black, a merchant of Confluence. Judge George J. Black was a lifelong Republican. He was elected county treasurer in 1887 and served three years, and in 1896 was elected associate judge with Judge Jacob H. Longenecker of Bedford county, serving three years on the bench with Judge Daniel J. Horner of Somerset and two years with Judge A. F. Dickey.

Mrs. Anna Gilroy.

Mrs. Anna Gilroy, wife of John Gilroy, died yesterday morning at her home in Perry street, Sewickley, aged 50 years. She had been an invalid for about two years, but was not seriously ill until last Saturday. She came to this country from Ireland and lived in Sewickley seven years. She is survived by her husband and four children, Katherine, Anna, John of Allegheny and Thomas of Glenfield. The funeral will be from St. James' Roman Catholic church, Sewickley, Saturday at 8 a. m.

Obituary Notes.

Miss Belle Jones, aged 88, died yesterday at her home in Somerset township, Washington county, of heart failure.

Joseph Sterling of the firm of Grossbeck & Sterling, bankers and brokers of New York, died yesterday. Mr. Sterling had been a member of the stock exchange since 1877.

The war department at Washington has been advised of the death of Maj. Robert P. P. Wainwright, Fifth cavalry, at Manila, November 18. Maj. Wainwright graduated from the military academy June 16, 1875.

What's Freedom Without Fun?

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Processions have been arranged in Havana and popular demonstrations are to be made at the same time in other parts of the island. Delegations are to proceed en masse to the executive palace of President Palma. All this, not to secure reforms in government, to advocate better commercial relations with the United States, or to accomplish any social or economic improvement. No; the cause of this grand ground swell of popular feeling is the desire for the restoration of chicken fighting. The American invasion and the mailed hand of the army destroyed among other Cuban liberties the privilege of having yellow fever and chicken fights. The former immemorial prescriptive right was superseded inevitably; but the latter will not be yielded without strife. The gratitude felt at the shattering of the Spanish yoke is soured by the interdiction of the national pastimes, laid upon the people by the American government and maintained by the government of Palma imposed by the United States. Better to groan beneath the heel of Spain and whoop at chicken fights between groans than to be a free and independent people set upon a high moral pedestal that will permit of nothing more vicious than lemonade festivals. What is liberty if it is not liberty to enjoy one's little sins? A nation must have its peccadilloes. It is safer to trample on its laws than on its amusements.

Honors Even.

From the New York World.

Mr. Bryan says Mr. Hill "has not gone Democratic for several years." In the true meaning of the word "Democratic" the same thing might be said of Mr. Bryan.

TOO MUCH HURRY UP.

WHATEVER may be said of the spirit of enterprise the methods it adopts are not always satisfactory to all concerned.

A contract firm composed of two hustling Irishmen is making excavations and constructing embankments for a reservoir in a neighboring state. They have a gang of Italian laborers and one member of the firm acts as overseer. A few days ago all work suddenly ceased and the men gathered in a crowd talking and gesticulating violently. A strike was on. The overseer hurried to the spot and broke out in angry exclamations seasoned with blood-curdling oaths. "Look here! Why ain't you fellows workin'?"

One of the men stepped out from the crowd and acting as spokesman for his companions waved his hand toward them as he said, "We no like to work."

"What!" screamed the overseer, "you don't like to work! Blankety, blank, blank, blank; why don't you like to work? I'll teach you to work."

The Italian spokesman enumerated a number of complaints, concluding with, "We not like you alla time, too moocha, to say blankety, blank, blank, blank. Yesa, alla time. We not like too mucha hooray up."

"THERE is more than one way of killing a dog," says the old saw, and a local physician proved, the other night, that there is also more than one way to flag a train. The doctor was called to see a patient in a little suburban town where the trains stop only on signal. It was a night trip, and he was compelled to return by the last train. A lantern was left on the depot step for him to use in stopping the train. He arrived in plenty of time, but just as the train was rounding the curve the light in the lantern flickered and went out. It looked like a "babe in the woods" case for him, but doctors are ever resourceful. He jammed his hand into his pocket, and finding a very small piece of paper he lighted it. The engineer had good eyes—as all engineers should—and the doctor heard the welcome toot of the whistle that meant to stop.

"It's a good thing to have a piece of paper handy, even if it be only a prescription blank," said the physicians to himself as he climbed aboard.

He was seated comfortably in the smoker enjoying a mild Havana, when he heard the call of "Tickets, please!" Then he began a search of his pockets, but there was no ticket to be found. Suddenly he remembered that he had taken his "flag" from the pocket in which he had carried his ticket.

"It's all right," he said to the conductor as he put up cash fare and explained his trouble. "I'd rather pay three times than have to spend a night counting stars."

IT IS the custom of a Pittsburgh business man and his wife to read a chapter of the Bible each night before retiring; and this is supplemented Sundays by reading The Gazette's sermon. The exigencies of business called the head of the family down town last Sunday, and he returned home about supper time very much fatigued. He was more disposed to sleep than anything else after supper and immediately sought his couch. His wife, seeing he was worn out, told him she would omit reading the Bible, but would read to him The Gazette sermon, to which he drowsily assented, really not understanding what she said. His wife read the sermon to him, and, while falling asleep, he gave a grunt of approval now and then to show he was interested. Arising next morning earlier than his wont, he picked up part of The Gazette and read the sermon attentively while waiting for breakfast. At the table he said: "Eita, dear, you must read The Gazette's sermon of yesterday; it's great."

"Why, Jim, I read that to you last night, and you must have been deceiving me by pretending to listen. You are the meanest thing ——"

MEANS MILLIONS TO PITTSBURGH

Councils Expecting Favorable Action by Court in Franchise Tax Case.

DECISION IN A FEW DAYS

Special Committee Holding Back Until State Tribunal Passed on the Matter—Would Reduce City Tax Levy Four Mills.

Over $1,000,000 will be added annually to the receipts of the Pittsburgh government if the supreme court sustains the decision of the lower court in the Scranton case, which held that a municipality has the right to tax corporations holding public franchises, such as street car, light, heat, water, telephone and telegraph companies.

The reform councilmen are waiting anxiously for the decision of the state tribunal in the Scranton case. A decree is expected to be handed down any day. If the right of Scranton to tax the corporations is upheld the local councilmanic leaders will proceed at once to pass a general ordinance assessing all corporations which hold franchises from the city.

Common Councilman W. C. Reitz said yesterday that the special committee on franchises was waiting to hear from the supreme court before proceeding further. "We expect a decision some time this month," said he. "If it is favorable councils will draft an ordinance taxing all corporations holding public franchises from the city. They will all be put on the same plane.

Estimate Is Conservative.

"It would be a very conservative estimate to say that the revenues from this source would amount to $1,000,000 a year. A 2 per cent tax on the gross receipts of the various local companies would easily yield this much and more.

"For instance, if the gross receipts of the Philadelphia Company are $10,000,000 a year a 2 per cent tax on this amount would yield $200,000 from this company alone. The committee has no doubt about its right to proceed at once and tax the telephone and other corporations, whose ordinances do not provide any compensation to the city, but there is some doubt about the power to tax the street car lines. This matter will have to be passed upon by the courts and the decision in the Scranton case will settle it.

Present System Unsatisfactory.

"The ordinances of the street car lines provide for a tax on each car. This system is not satisfactory. Where a company is operating 700 cars it is easy to pay taxes on but 400. It remains to be seen whether the city can change this method, and provide a more equitable system of taxation.

"If we are allowed to go ahead and tax public corporations I am satisfied that the increase in revenues will enable us to cut down the general tax levy at least 4 mills next year. This is a reduction of two more mills than Controller Larkin is figuring at present. A reduction of 4 mills would make the tax levy for next year 11 mills.

"It has got to come to this. The corporations that are enjoying valuable franchises for practically nothing should be made to pay up. They will have to pay up if the supreme court gives us the authority."

W. H. Stevenson, chairman of the finance committee, said that he thought 2 per cent corporation tax too small. He favored 5 per cent tax. "Why, how much would it amount to?" asked he. "Suppose a car earns $30 a day. A 5 per cent tax would mean but $1 50 a day on each car."

Chairman Stevenson said that he thought, under the new charter, the tax on the traction companies would have to be laid on the cars, as a license tax, instead of upon the receipts of the company.

A meeting of the finance committee was called for 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the controller's office, but a quorum was not obtained.

DOLAN OPPOSED TO FEDERATION CHANGES

Thinks Western Movement to Organize on State Lines Would Be Injurious.

Among labor leaders who do not approve of the scheme to make the state organizations of the American Federation of Labor paramount, thus rendering the national headquarters superfluous, is Patrick Dolan, president of district No. 5 of the United Mine Workers. It is Mr. Dolan's opinion that the American Federation has done well by the workingmen affiliated with it, and he believes that any drastic change in methods would be harmful. He is also of the opinion that the movement does not really originate within Federation circles, but that the American Labor union, a western labor organization not associated with the Federation, is back of it. This is what Mr. Dolan said of the movement now going in the west:

"If it could be successful it would be the worst thing that could happen to the cause of organized labor. The American Federation of Labor is the greatest educator the working people in America have. It has increased its membership 100 per cent within two years. It has generally been successful in everything it has undertaken.

"The labor movement is making better headway here than in Great Britain. Any change in the methods that have been observed by the American Federation would retard the progress of the workingman, instead of advancing it. Most of those far western labor organizations are not affiliated with the Federation."

Fortune Tellers Arrested.

Homestead was flooded by a band of Arabian women fortune tellers and the entire borough police force was employed gathering them in. Eight of them were captured and given hearings before Burgess J. Clyde Miller. All were fined $5 and ordered to leave town.

TEACHER BADLY BEATEN IN INDIANA COUNTY

Warrant Is Issued for the Arrest of a Pupil's Father.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANA, PA., Nov. 20.—R. E. Harbison, an Armstrong township school teacher, was attacked this morning, it is alleged, by E. J. Keibler of the same township. Harbison teaches the Ferguson school, and reported Keibler's children to the truant officer for frequent absences from school.

Keibler, who, it is alleged, has frequently given the directors and teachers trouble in school affairs, thought his children were imposed upon. This morning he went to the school house and waited for the teacher's appearance. When Harbison came the irate father, it is alleged, struck him, knocking him down. Harbison arose and defended himself, but was soon out of the fray with a swollen face and a cut eye.

The teacher came to Indiana this afternoon and had 'Squire Cressman issue a warrant for Keibler's arrest. The town constable is seeking Keibler.

The nearest thing to a certain Cough Cure, is Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant; and it is deceptively cheap; it takes so little of it to do the work.

SOCIETY

OF ALMOST equal importance to the social debut of the girl each season is the appearance of the new man in society. The new men must be counted upon as well as the tried men of several seasons to be the beaux of the girls who come out. Each season their number grows smaller, for the young men after leaving college spend a year in foreign travel, take up the study of law, or another profession, and with their professional studies or business engagements find but little time to take part in the social affairs which compose so large a part of the girl debutante's first season. Their entrance into the round of social engagements is not attended by a round of entertainments in their honor, as is the girl's, but their appearance is observed with much interest by the leaders of society, who rely upon them to carry to success the plans for the season. Upon the new men, in time, fall the mantle of the cotillion leaders of several seasons' experience.

The majority of the new men this season will be those who graduated from college last June. Yale has a good many representatives, among them being Rodman Wister Moorhead, the son of William J. Moorhead of St. James street, Shadyside. Though beginning the study of law this winter, Mr. Moorhead will take part in the social entertainments planned for the younger set. He is related to the Moorheads and Hollands of this city and the Wisters of Philadelphia.

His friend, James King Scott, a Princeton man, though appearing a little in society last winter, is counted among the young men of this season. He is the son of William Scott, the attorney, a member of the law firm of Dalzell, Scott & Gordon.

Thomas MacConnell, Jr., is one of the new men this year and is the son of Thomas MacConnell of Wilkinsburg avenue, East End. His mother's family was one of the earliest to settle in Pittsburgh. In the early days of Pittsburgh John Winebiddle received a grant from the Penns, which he named "Friendship." His daughter and grandchildren inherited the estate, which is now the property of Mrs. MacConnell, who was Miss Mathilda Gross before her marriage. The pretty little park in Bloomfield, which has been presented to the city and is called "Friendship," was formerly a part of the estate. Thomas MacConnell's eldest son married Miss Rosalind Smith, the daughter of Alan Wood, a year ago.

Two eastern men, Ledley Johnston and Lloyd Waddell, both graduates from Yale last June, have come to Pittsburgh to live and are among the new men in society in this city this season. Two young men from Virginia, Mr. Janney and Charles Talcot, also Yale men, have come to Pittsburgh this fall to make their home. They are identified with the Westinghouse interests and will take part in many of the East End dances which will be given this season. Frank Nevins is another Yale man who hails from Connecticut and is in the little group of Yale men in this city. Thomas McGinley, though he appeared in society somewhat last season, is included in the set of younger men of this year.

Miss Sellers' Debut.

Miss Elizabeth M. Sellers made her debut yesterday afternoon at the tea and reception which her mother, Mrs. Harry D. Sellers, gave at their home in Wightman street, Shadyside. The hours were from 4 o'clock until 6. It was a large and handsome reception with several hundred guests to meet the hostess and her young daughter, who received in the parlors, surrounded with a wealth of bouquets received by the young girl just entering society. They were artistically arranged about the room, upon the mantelpiece, crowded together on tables and grouped upon cabinets. Mrs. Sellers wore a handsome gown of white voile and lace and her daughter appeared in a girlish gown of white crepe de chine. Assisting Mrs. Sellers and the debutante to receive were Mrs. George Burgwin, Mrs. Joseph Woodwell, Mrs. Harry Beggs, Mrs. H. T. Aiken, Mrs. William Scott, Mrs. George Benney, Mrs. W. S. Kuhn, Mrs. Baldwin and the Misses McIlvaine, Miss Gertrude Childs, Miss Anne Burgwin, Miss Louise Kay, Miss Ethel Cassidy, Miss Alberta Harper, Miss Ethel Bryan, Miss Margaret Scully, Miss Sara Hill, Miss Jeannette Lupton, Miss Sarah Verner Lloyd, Miss Katherine Murdock and Miss Beatrice Hawkins. The matrons were handsomely gowned while the young girls in the assisting group wore dainty white frocks. Tea was served in the dining room where white chrysanthemums decorated the table, relieved by the artistic arrangement of palms and delicate ferns. Miss Sellers was educated at Farmington. Several other Farmington girls are among the debutantes this year. She belongs to a patriotic family, her father being a member of the Pennsylvania society Sons of the Revolution, of which he is an officer.

Greves—Hays.

Miss Tenie Dick Greves, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. L. J. Greves of the East End and John Ruben Hays of Swissvale, were married last evening at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in Larimer avenue. The ceremony was performed by a brother of the bride, the Rev. Ulysses Sherman Greves of Lawrenceville, assisted by the Rev. H. P. Hummel. It was a quiet home wedding. The house was prettily decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums. There were no attendants save the little page, Master Richard Dale Adams, a nephew of the bride, who carried the ring. The bride wore a wedding gown of white mousseline de soie trimmed with lace and prince of Wales ostrich tips in her hair instead of the bridal veil. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The manly little page, only 3 years years old, wore a suit of black velvet.

After a wedding trip lasting over a couple of weeks Mr. and Mrs. Hays will return to Pittsburgh to make their home, expecting to board in the East End until their new house in Melon street is completed and they enter it in the early spring.

An Illustrated Musical Story.

Mrs. Frank Smith of Beaver street, Sewickley, entertained the Entre Nous Fancy work club of Pittsburgh, of which she is a member, from 2 until 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There were 25 guests and the entertainment consisted of a musical story, which the hostess read, the blanks in the story being filled in by selections on the piano. Preceding this event Mrs. Smith served luncheon to a few of the ladies from a distance who are members of the club. Covers were laid for Mrs. L. L. McClelland, Mrs. William Scott and Miss Humes, all of Aspinwall, and Mrs. Robert Ferris of the East End.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes' Theater Party.

Mrs. J. Walter Rhodes entertained a number of friends last evening at the Alvin, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Newberry of Detroit, who came on for the Walton-Childs wedding. The guests occupied two boxes and included Mr. and Mrs. John Denniston Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Willock, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Painter, Mrs. Elizabeth Horne, Mrs. James Wood, William J. Patton and George E. Painter. After the play the party went to the Pittsburgh club where supper was served.

Debutante at the Horse Show.

Miss Sallie Hill, a western girl and a niece of William Speer Kuhn, who will make her debut a few weeks hence, being introduced by her aunt, Mrs. Kuhn of Morewood avenue, Shadyside, has been in New York attending the horse show. Miss Hill has attracted a good deal of attention by her beauty and her smart gowns. On Tuesday evening she is described as having worn a velvet gown of olive green, with facings of cream panne embroidered in blue. The skirt had flounces edged with narrow green and gold braids.

Domino Whist in Shadyside.

Mrs. Henry S. Atwood Stewart gave a very handsome domino whist yesterday afternoon at her home in Morewood avenue, Shadyside. It was in the nature of a farewell to the hostess' personal friends as Mrs. Stewart leave next week with [illegible] at Atlantic City [illegible] going to Florida. Mrs. Stewart entertained [illegible] tables for

Mother and Child

Rubber balls are such fun. Of course if you haven't got any small folks and don't know—why, that's your loss. Anyway, you've missed something if you've never played a romping game of ball with a laughing, shouting youngster. Better invest 10 cents in some of those splendid ones to be had for that price, and try it on your neighbor's baby. If you're afraid the rubber ball might hit you too hard in the face, and it's quite likely to—why, there's a bright soft kind made of wool, covered with bright worsted, that wouldn't hurt a flea.

Inexpensive Gifts for Little Folks.

How can a little maid sing "bye low, baby bye" properly if she hasn't a cradle to lay her precious doll baby in? It would be absolutely wicked of Santa Claus not to invest a dime for her pleasure in one of those pretty blue, white or red enameled cradles, with really truly rockers on.

You wouldn't care to keep house with naught but a dusty broom, would you? It raises so much dust. Now there's a certain small—very small—sweeper that really picks up the scraps on the floor in a truly marvelous manner, and it costs—well, isn't this a 10-cent chapter?

There's the miscellaneous array that must be mentioned—irons and ironing boards, tiny clothes horses and the dearest of tubs and wringers and washboards—a regular "blue Monday" collection. Horns of all varieties and—oh, yes, pigs, funny, grunty, brown and yellow china pigs, with a slit in their backs that says so plainly: "Pennies, pennies, if you please, for I'm a piggish bank."

The baby's basket should contain the following articles: One pair of round-pointed scissors, one bunch of white silk floss, a cake of castile soap, a small jar of pure lard, a soft sponge, a piece of old white flannel, a bath blanket, a powder puff or bag, a tiny comb and brush, a small roll of linen, or a white sponge, for washing out baby's mouth. The best bath blankets are made of Turkish towelling, as they are easily washed and readily absorb moisture.

Molasses Cocoanut Drops.—Place a pound of sugar, half a pint of water and two teacupfuls of molasses into a five-quart saucepan, set it over a moderate fire and let the mixture boil; stir it easily and contiue the boiling until a spoonful of the hot syrup will form a soft ball when dropped into cold water. At this juncture stir in all of the shredded cocoanut that the syrup will take up; make it extra thick with cocoanut. Stir the thick mass over and over until it separates from the sides of the pan, remove from the fire, take out a small portion of the candy on a fork and let it stand in a cool place for a few minutes. Feel of the sample, and if it is firm enough to form into a ball the whole batch is ready; if it appears soft, place it over the fire and stir a little longer. Test it again, and when it seems right let the candy stand in the saucepan until it is nearly or quite cold. Make from this mass lumps which resemble haystacks, about the size of English walnuts. The addition of a quarter of a pound of butter just before removing the candy from fire improves the flavor.

Wholesome Molasses Candy.

Molasses Cocoanut Squares.—Instead of forming the above mixture into haystacks it can be rolled half an inch thick, cut up into squares and then sprinkled with granulated sugar.

"I dread the coming on of cold weather," said a mother of seven—five boys and two girls. "The children will have to stay in the house, when out of school, and they are such dreadful teases—so restless, they give one the fidgets."

To Prevent Teasing.

The best way to provide against the natural restlessness of children is to give them something to do—some interesting vent for their superabundant energies. Some mothers teach their boys to sew, to make rugs, to mend and to help with housework—such as sweeping and making beds. If boys can have pet stock to look after—rabbits, chickens (even if tiny bantams), it serves to keep them profitably occupied, and educates their instinct to care for and to treat with kindness creatures less strong than themselves.

* * *

Babies must not be encouraged to stand upon their feet until nature prompts them to do so, for if trained to walk at too early a stage the weight of the fat little bodies upon legs whose bones are yet comparatively plastic and inefficient in endurance, will have a very ugly and unhealthy result.

Babies Who Walk Too Soon.

While the bones are tender and impressionable, it is highly important that no bad habits should be allowed which are likely to affect the figure afterward. A cot that is too short will induce a child to draw up its legs and maintain its knees in a bent attitude that is afterward hard to overcome. One of the most important gymnastics taught by all teachers of callisthenics is that which has for its object the straightening of the knees. It is a well-known gymnastic, the body being bent forward from the waist while the finger-tips endeavor to touch the ground, the knees remaining rigid. Straight knees help to an erect carriage and to affording the figure the full value of its inches.

In the matter of education, the physical as well as the intellectual pursuits should be considered essential, and they should receive special care; but no gymnastics should be taught until the child is 5 years old. Babies, however, should be allowed to perform any gymnastics that inspire them while lying in their cots, for the more they exercise their little limbs the better, and their beauty in after life is due in a measure to the care they receive during the days of infancy.

Hare—Morton.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of John W. Hare, 7605 Tioga street, last evening, when his daughter, Miss Bella N. Hare, was united in marriage to William A. Morton. About 200 guests were present. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lida Hare, and the groom's best man was W. R. Hughes. The house decorations were red and green. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. W. P. Hall, of the Arch street Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny, Mr. and Mrs. Morton left for the east to spend their honeymoon.

Sisters Entertain.

Mrs. Frank E. Rutan and Miss Frank E. Richardson, sisters, gave the first of several little card parties at their home in Centennial avenue, Sewickley, from 2:30 till 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There was no honor guest. Forty women were present. This afternoon a similar affair will be given with the same hostess.

Card Party for Miss Watts.

Miss Clyde Nichol, who will be an attendant at the Watts-Dickson wedding next week, gave a card party at her home in Beaver street, Sewickley, yesterday, in honor of Miss Hortense Watts and Miss Elizabeth Snow, of Greenfield, Mass. There were 25 guests and the game was six-handed euchre.

Gill—Cochrane.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 20.—William F. Cochrane of New York, son of the late William Cochrane, millionaire of Yonkers, was married here today to Miss Nina Lorraine Gill, daughter of the late C. Lorraine Gill. The event was a fashionable one in Baltimore society.

Notes of Society.

Miss Anna Macbeth gives a luncheon this afternoon in honor of Miss Clothier of Philadelphia.

The Women's Exchange in Penn avenue inaugurated its annual Thanksgiving and Christmas sale yesterday.

Miss Madelaine Laughlin will entertain today at a luncheon, her guest of honor being Mrs. Newberry of Detroit.

A dinner and bazar will be conducted this evening at the Highland Presbyterian church, North Highland and Wellesley avenue.

Mrs. William H. Cassidy and her daughter, Miss Ella Cassidy, are in New York where they expect to remain until after the first of December.

Last night the women of the Tabernacle Presbyterian church gave a turkey dinner and bazar at the church. The entertainment will be repeated this evening.

The Margaret McCandless Missionary society will hold its Thanksgiving sale of home made cakes, pies, doughnuts, bread, desserts and candies tomorrow afternoon, November 22, from 3 o'clock until 5 at the home of Miss Gertrude McCandless, Center avenue and Dinwiddie street.

who is visiting Miss McGinley. The guests included a number of the debutantes of this season, several of last and one or two out-of-town girls who are visiting here. Covers were laid for 30.

Will Give a Euchre.

A well-attended meeting of the Father J. G. Beane Tourist club, an organization composed of about 300 prominent Catholic men and women interested in temperance work, was held last night in the hall of St. Paul's cathedral. Twenty-five new members were admitted at the meeting and a resolution admitting associate members was passed. It was decided to hold a euchre at Kane's auditorium on Friday evening, November 28. Admission will be by invitation only, which may be obtained from members of the club. On this club will depend the erection of the Beane Hall of Catholic Temperance and the entertaining of the officers of the National Total Abstainance society, which holds its convention in this city in August, 1903.

Two Honor Guests.

Mrs. Mansfield Brown entertained at cards at her home in Beaver street, Sewickley, yesterday afternoon in honor of her two nieces, the Misses Brown, of Asheville, N. C., who are her house guests. There were 50 guests present. The game was six-hand euchre, seven tables being in use. The decorations were quite elaborate. In the parlor were pink roses, in the dining room pink and white carnations and in the reception room and hall white chrysanthemums. Pretty prizes were awarded the winners in the game.

A Corry Wedding Announcement.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Mrs. Lottie Lee to John M. Arters, at Mrs. Lee's home at Corry, Pa., on Wednesday, November 26. Mrs. Lee is a social leader in her home city. Mr. Arters is a well-known oil man, general sales agent for the Ajax steam and gas engines and first vice president of the manufacturing company, with offices in this city. After a trip to the east Mr. and Mrs. Arters will be at home to their friends, after December 15, at the Hotel Dorset, East End, Pittsburgh.

Brent—Tierney.

Quietly yesterday morning at 9 o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Camelia Marie Brent, daughter of R. D. Brent, and Dr. John Schell Tierney of Cleveland, in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Center avenue, East End. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis Keane, pastor of the church. There were no attendants and after the wedding breakfast the bride and bridegroom left for an eastern trip. They will go in a few weeks to their home in Cleveland.

Whist at the Concordia Club.

Mrs. Kaskel Solomon gave a whist party yesterday afternoon at the Concordia club house, Stockton avenue, Allegheny, entertaining in honor of her house guests, Mrs. Berk of St. Louis, Mrs. Sello of Chicago and Mrs. Levy of New York. Tea was served after the game in the cafe which was decorated in yellow chrysanthemums. Handsome prizes were played for, the winners being Mrs. Kingsbacker, Mrs. Jacob Weil and Mrs. Joseph Fink.

Timons—Caldwell.

At the home of the bride's parents, near Canonsburg, Pa., occurred the marriage yesterday of Miss Jennie W. Timons, daughter of the Rev. Joseph H. and Mrs. Timons, to Robert S. Caldwell of McDonald. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the Rev. W. A. McConnell, D. D., of Hickory, in the presence of about 50 guests. After a wedding trip the couple will make their residence in McDonald.

Brenner—Bossert.

The marriage of Miss Hannah Brenner to Lewis Bossert took place Wednesday night at the First Reformed church, Youngstown, O., the Rev. Frederick Mayer officiating. The bride is a popular young lady and the groom is connected with the office force of the Republic Iron and Steel Company. The bride and groom left on a wedding trip yesterday.

Miss Tindle Entertains.

Miss Alice Wood Tindle entertained yesterday afternoon at luncheon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Hanna Small in Penn and Negley avenues, East End. The guests of honor were Miss Montgomery of Philadelphia and Mrs. Edward Duff Balken, the bride, who was formerly Miss Lois Bailey. Covers were laid for 18. The decorations were yellow chrysanthemums.

In Honor of Miss Clothier.

Miss Laura McGinley was hostess at a pretty luncheon yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Clothier of Philadelphia,

THE LIFE OF

The Man Behind the Desk.

"Coffee soaked me hard for about three years and I was troubled with indigestion, headaches and drowsiness; I had no appetite and could not sleep, and I was steadily losing flesh all the time.

"I had spent a small fortune on medicine and doctors' bills; I consulted several doctors, one told me that I had liver trouble, another told me that I had kidney trouble, others prescribed remedies for numerous complaints, but none helped me and I finally looked upon my bad stomach as a part of my miserable existence, giving up all hope of ever being myself again.

"I knew that the cause of it was all due to office work, which precluded sufficient bodily exercise and the eating of nourishing and non-digestive food, and the drinking of tea and coffee. I had to quit my work as I lost my mental and physical strength.

"A friend of mine, who weighs about 240 pounds, and who looks the picture of health advised me to use Grape Nuts as ing Grape-Nuts and Postum Coffee for He said that his perfect health was due to the ues of these two pure cereals. He said that they would build up the delicate cells of the brain and body and restore me to health.

"I acted on his advice and have no cause to regret it. I have now been using food and drink Postum Cereal Coffee. some time and am in perfect health and weigh 10 pounds more than I ever did.

"Grape-Nuts Food is the crystalized essence of all cereals. I eat it four times a day, prepared with cream, and also by pouring some of it out of the box into my hand and then eating it. Postum Coffee has also helped me greatly." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Evening Clothes

There's a distinct departure in dress clothes this winter—
English ideas prevail—
Long graceful lines—fitted close to the figure—
The most distinctively artistic evening clothes ever made for men—
Yet not enough away from the old ideas to make them unduly prominent.

Let us show you the new things—in materials as well as styles.

"OLD BILL" PRITTS SELLS FAMOUS FARM

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Nov. 20.—"Old Bill" Pritts, the famous moonshiner, who is waiting in his little cabin on the peaks of Laurel Hill mountain for the call of the Death Angel, made a transaction yesterday which may mean the passing of the moonshine industry with which his name has been associated for 40 years. He sold his farm, with its famous sparkling spring, for a site for a legal distillery, where whisky will be made under the supervision of government officials, who will see that the law gets its just revenue from the manufacture of distilled spirits.

Peter Adolphus Johns, register and recorder of Fayette county, is the purchaser, who, with others, expects to engage in the distillery business. Plans for the building of the new distillery will be made at once.

Among the mountain people the new industry is well received. They have tired of the unrest that has characterized the reign of distrust under which they have been kept by the internal revenue officers. It has been hard for all who lived there. The district was always suspected and while there has been very little moonshine, if any, made in Saltlick and the adjoining territory of Somerset county for a long time the reputation of former years continually kept it under the eyes of government officers.

BOARD WANTS MONEY.

Funds Are Needed for Emergency in Case of Epidemics.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of the state board of health was held in the senate chamber this evening and action taken to urge the next legislature to restore to the board its $50,000 emergency fund for epidemics. This fund was established by the legislature after the Johnstown flood and was provided for by every succeeding legislature until 1901, when it was cut off. The appropriation was made as usual at the session of 1899 and was reduced by Governor Stone to $25,000.

Dr. J. H. McClelland of Pittsburgh was re-appointed chairman of the legislative committee of the board, which will have charge of the movement to secure the restoration of this emergency fund.

Mrs. Bander Killed Herself.

ELLWOOD, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. E. Bander, aged about 20, a well-known woman of Hazel Dell, was found dead by her husband last night upon his return from work. By her side was her 2-year-old girl asleep. She left a note saying she could live no longer, and asked her husband to take good care of the baby. No cause is known for the woman's act.

Two College Students Wounded.

TIFFIN, O., Nov. 20.—Last night Edward Zechiel of Culver, Ind., and Roy Zachman of Marion, O., members of the freshman class in Heidelberg university, were seriously wounded by a shotgun in the hands of a member of the sophomore class. The freshmen attempted to steal the conveyances of the sophomores, who were holding a class party.

ALLEGED NATURAL CURE FOR INEBRIETY

Potter Spring at Mingo Junction, O.

Steubenville, O., Nov. 20.—Potter Spring at Mingo Junction has for 150 years had the reputation of furnishing a natural cure for inebriety. Temperance organizations recommend the use of its water, which is said to destroy all desire for liquor. Many old topers have been cured there. A distillery once flourished near the spring, but the spring put it out of the business. The Mingos, who were wandering Seneca Indians, had their camp there and knew of the qualities of the water to destroy the effects of "firewater" and used it, and its fame spread to other Indians, who visited the spring while out hunting or raiding. Washington partook of its waters on his way down the Ohio and noted its peculiar effect on the system. The National Steel Company has its water carried to the 2,500 men employed in the mill there, and the percentage of drinking is on the decrease.

COKE OUTPUT HAMPERED BY SHORTAGE OF CARS

Connellsville Ovens Idle Because Yards Are Congested.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Nov. 20.—The Courier will say tomorrow:

Coke production in the Connellsville region took another slump last week, not because there was not sufficient demand to keep the ovens in active operation the six working days, but because the railroads were unable to supply the cars and motive power to move the production and stock from the greatly congested yards.

The H. C. Frick Coke Company last week was compelled to lay off 10 of its plants five days. Many of the smaller operators shut down two days and not a few of them only ran five. The plants that are credited with six days' run did not produce as much coke in some instances as they would with a regular five days' run and plenty of cars.

The detailed report of the operation and output of the region for the week ending on Saturday, November 15, shows a total of 21,852 ovens of which 21,215 were active and 637 were idle. The estimated tonnage was 238,635 tons, a slump of 8,675 tons compared with the production of the previous week. In two weeks the region's tonnage has fallen off nearly 20,000 tons. There were no changes worthy of mention in the active and idle lists of ovens.

Shipments last week were 10,094 cars, distributed as follows: To Pittsburgh and river tipples, 3,859 cars; to points west of Pittsburgh, 4,630 cars; to points east of Connellsville, 1,605 cars. Compared with the shipments of the previous week this was a gain of 488 cars.

In the lower Connellsville region there are 4,066 ovens, of which 3,942 were active and 124 idle. The tonnage was 48,004 tons, compared with 48,051 tons the previous week. On the whole the car supply in the lower region was better than it was in the Connellsville district. Shipments were 1,423 cars, compared with 1,510 cars the week of November 7. Furnace coke is quoted at $3 00 and $3 50, foundry coke at $3 75 and $4 00 a ton.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The McKinley and Raney furnaces here of the National Steel Company closed down this morning for lack of coke. The company has been having much difficulty for many weeks in securing sufficient quantities to keep the plants here in operation.

INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST COAL DEALERS

Fairmont Freight Blockade Ended by Order of Court.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
FAIRMONT, W. VA., Nov. 20.—Judge Jackson of Parkersburg granted, this afternoon, an injunction to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company against Foster, Robinson and Manear, coal shippers of this city, restraining them from loading coal from what is known as Walkers siding and interfering with traffic by blocking the opening to the siding and freight station. The papers were served on the parties late this evening by United States Marshal Elliott.

As soon as the papers were served the several loaded coal wagons that were at the entrance to the siding and station street were drawn away and the ropes that were used to designate the company's line were taken down.

On account of the blockade, no freight goods have been drawn to or from the station for two days. As a result, contractors and wholesale and retail dealers are heavy losers. The case will be argued before the court in a few days. Attorneys claim that the company is compelled to permit coal-loading from the sidewalk the same as brick, lumber, etc.

To Build Water Works.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The West Pittsburgh Water Company has been organized to furnish water to the new industrial town of West Pittsburgh, south of this city. The incorporators are John W. Garland, Robert Garland and F. C. Hodkinson of Pittsburgh, and John F. C. Cunningham and Attorney W. K. Hugus of this city.

ODD FELLOWS' HOME DELAYED.

West Virginia Grand Lodge Failed to Agree on Location.

ELKINS, W. VA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The West Virginia grand lodge of Odd Fellows in session here voted today to postpone the selection of a location for the Odd Fellows' home. Although the committee reported favorably to accepting Fairmont's offer, there seems to be a feeling among the majority of lodges in the state that the home should be on a farm.

The local lodges gave an excursion on the West Virginia Central to Davis this afternoon. An entire train, bearing many banners, was filled with the 500 delegates. Members of the order at Davis served luncheon.

Acquitted of Murder.

POTTSVILLE, PA., Nov. 20.—Joseph Palewicz was tonight acquitted of the murder of Joseph Beddall, who was fatally beaten during a riot incident to the coal miners strike at Shenandoah July 30.

TOY MISSION IS READY FOR WORK

Old Second U. P. Church Opens as Main Depot on Monday.

NOBLE WORK IN PAST

This Year Banner Season Is Expected—Downtown Stenographers Band Together to Aid the Work.

The Toy mission, the Pittsburgh charity that sends rays of Christmas cheer and brightness into so many places that would otherwise be destitute of these, is preparing for a banner season this year. The work starting from a humble beginning in 1804, has been so thoroughly organized that its efforts reach not hundreds but thousands of poverty-stricken homes in Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

This year the main depot will open next Monday in the Second United Presbyterian church building, Sixth avenue and Cherry alley, and the entire downstairs will be used as a depot. The Republican city committee has had the rooms upstairs, but Recorder J. O. Brown has written Maj. R. W. A. Simmons, the head of the mission, that if it is needed or can be used to any advantage, the Santa Claus of many poor homes can have the whole structure.

Last year the mission brought toys to 9,400 poor children, the greatest number in its history, the records of the other seven years in its history being as follows: 1804, 25 children; 1805, 200 children; 1896, 1,600 children; 1897, 3,600; 1898, 6,500; 1899, 7,500; 1900, 8,500. This year Maj. Simmons anticipates that toys will be provided for more than 10,000 youngsters, and the number may run as high as 13,000.

Work Begins Monday.

The rooms in the old church building will be ready on Monday and from that time on the wagons of the mission will be kept busy answering calls, from those who wish to aid in the work. Although the toys are largely second-hand they bring just as much happiness to the second recipient as to the first, and generally a great deal more.

The Gazette reporter has already seen indications of a banner year for the mission. In the Carnegie office building yesterday he came down in the elevator with two bright-faced young girl stenographers, each of whom had a mysterious package, which was the source of much merriment. Inquiry of the elevator boy elicited the information that all of the 50 girls in the building had banded together and were using their spare moments in preparing dolls for the mission.

Similar organizations are forming in many other downtown office buildings, and in several cases, the employers of the young women are buying dolls, which the girls dress.

An Effective Charity.

The method pursued by Maj. Simmons and his aids in distributing this Christmas charity is effective, and few if any cases of imposition are found. About this time every year circulars and memoranda are sent out to all the benevolent organizations, schools and police departments of both cities, inclosing blanks to be filled out with the names and address of poor families, and with the names of each child. The bundles for each family are put up separately and the presents for all the children inclosed, and they are distributed by the parent, who is given a card-check telling where and when to go for the package.

Not only are children made happy in their own homes, but each inmate of the beneficial institutions is remembered and a warmth of Christmas happiness is brought to many a young orphan. The mission does not confine its work to children and in many cases indigent old people get presents from the same source, while a large number of Christmas baskets are sent out to destitute families, under the direction of the mission. No money is solicited for this object, but George K. Stevenson, Sixth avenue, will receive any checks from those wishing to contribute.

STATE AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

STEUBENVILLE, O.—James Haggerty, a blacksmith of Mingo Junction, was fatally injured by being struck by a street car.

SHARON, PA.—Two of the foreigners who drank wood alcohol last Monday have lost their eyesight and two others will likely go blind.

OIL CITY, PA.—Burglars broke into the barn of Henry Strall, stealing a valuable horse and harness. Officers and citizens are tracing them.

NEW CASTLE, PA.—The Rev. Father O'Connell, rector of St. Agatha's Roman Catholic church at Ellwood, was quarantined as a smallpox patient.

JOHNSTOWN, PA.—A 7-year-old son of Robert Heisel of Moxham died from wounds inflicted by a revolver which was discharged while he was examining the weapon.

ATHENS, O.—Two hundred miners are on a strike here as the result of the discharge of Mine Motorman Clarence Russell, who, instead of reporting for work, went rabbit hunting.

WOOSTER, O.—The new buildings erected to take the place of those on the campus of the university destroyed by fire will be dedicated December 11, the first anniversary of the fire.

MT. PLEASANT, PA.—Mrs. Malinda Mellinger of Reynoldsville, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Breckbill of this place, dropped dead on the street here. She was 62 years old and is survived by her husband and four children.

YOUNGSTOWN, O.—The hearing of Dr. John M. Evans' habeas corpus case before Probate Judge Ewing was continued. The prosecution asked to submit additional evidence in the case. There is no prospect of an immediate decision.

SHARON, PA.—The citizens of Sharon will, through the city council, present a petition to Congressman Joseph C. Sibley from this district, urging him to present a bill for the appropriation of $200,000 for a public building for Sharon.

GREENSBURG, PA.—A street car collided with a carriage containing the Reinhold-Steinas wedding party at the foot of Main street, killing the pair of milk-white horses owned by Liveryman Long and valued at $1,000, and wrecking the carriage, but not injuring the occupants.

GREENSBURG, PA.—The Webster Coal Company has agreed to erect Young Men's Christian association buildings in six towns in Cambria county if the bituminous region committee will establish branch associations. If the proposition is accepted the buildings at Gallitzin and Emrenfield will be begun at once.

ALBANY AND TROY MAY AID SCHENECTADY MEN

Threaten to Enforce Boycott If Cars Manned by Non-Unionists Come.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
TROY, N. Y., Nov. 20.—A serious development of the boycott instituted against the Schenectady Railway Company by the Schenectady trades assembly, came to light in this city today in the possibility of action by the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes of Troy and Albany, employed by the United Traction Company, in indorsing the action of the Schenectady labor body. An official of that organization said tonight:

"That body will positively refuse to allow the cars of the Schenectady railway to enter Troy so long as there are non-union men aboard them. If the company insists on the carrying out of the terms of its contract with the United Traction Company to use its tracks, the men will go on strike. In this way we hold the real key to the situation, and we can make or break the boycott as we desire. We have tried a long time to unionize the Schnectady railway, but we have not succeeded in doing so. Now we have the opportunity we have coveted so long."

The leaders of the boycott movement in Schnectady are said to be jubilant over the possible action of the Amalgamated association of Troy.

Salaries Remain the Same.

The committee on teachers and salaries of the board of controllers of the Allegheny schools met last night and adjusted the salaries for the year beginning June 1, 1903. The committee estimated the cost for instructors for next year to be $894,500 and recommended the present schedule of salaries without change for the next school year.

Remembered the Firemen.

The members of the Braddock fire department were made happy yesterday by a pleasant surprise from Congressman John Dalzell. During the afternoon Mrs. Dalzell called up the Braddock fire department on the 'phone, and notified Chief Oliver McMichaels that Mr. Dalzell had forwarded to Braddock a billiard table with all accessories. Braddock is the largest borough in Congressman Dalzell's district.

Bad Time for a Fit.

Andrew Holler, a colored man, 40 years old, of Jones avenue, met with a peculiar accident yesterday afternoon at the Ward-Mackey new building, at Thirty-first street and Liberty avenue. He is a laborer and was engaged in wheeling a wheelbarrow load of brick from the first floor to the second, and was on a plank when he took an epileptic fit. He fell to the ground with the load of brick on top of him. When picked up he was unconscious.

PUTTING IT STRONG.

But Doesn't It Look Reasonable?

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves, or going to opposite extremes or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters" "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty, even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained.

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leaves no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach.

The sufferer from Dyspepsia according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs, or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

Paris-Made Waists for $1.98.

Friday morning we open the sale of 530 imported French Waists, bought from a Broadway (New York) house which caters to the very finest metropolitan trade. In their own windows these goods were marked at various prices from $3.50 up to $7.00 and hundreds were sold at these prices at their counters. But they bought too many, and turned the surplus over to us on condition that the firm name should not be mentioned in our advertising. The materials are the finest French flannel and albatross. Many styles, all sizes and a large number of good colors are represented in the lot. We will sell them—not at the New York prices, but let them go without reserve for..... $1.98

This is the first chance Pittsburgh women ever had to wear genuine Paris-Made Waists at a trivial cost.

"Last Call to the Dining Car."

Holiday goods are crowding hard upon the house furnishings yet unsold. Friday will be a day of "finalities" downstairs. We reset the special price tables with a fresh lot of utensils, china and glassware for the last whirl.

WORK IN MINES SHORTENS LIFE

Men Cough Up Coal Dust Nine Years After Changing Their Occupation.

IT BRINGS ON ASTHMA

Doctors Testify That Health Is Quickly Affected—Many Children With Others Dependent on Them.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SCRANTON, PA., Nov. 20.—The economic and sociological features of the anthracite coal industry and the effect employment in and about the mines has upon the health of the mine workers are the principal things brought before the arbitrators or commission today by the attorneys of each side to the controversy.

The physicians who have practiced in Scranton or Wilkesbarre took the stand for the miners and in substance testified that the occupation of a mine worker was "very unhealthful," and shortened his life. One physician, Dr. Frank P. Lenahan of Wilkesbarre who says he has had a long experience among mine workers, testified that fully 90 per cent of the men who worked in the mine are anaemic. The health is impoverished and their general condition is below par, thus decreasing their earning power. The principal ills suffered by the miners, the physicians said, were miner's asthma, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatica.

Cause of Miners' Asthma.

Miners' asthma comes from coal dust, powder smoke and vitiated air. Dr. John O'Malley of Scranton said that at postmortems he had seen miners' lungs as black as anthracite itself and Dr. Lenahan testified he had personal knowledge of a man coughing up coal dust nine years after he left the mines. He said he had information that a man had coughed up coal dust 15 years after he had left the miners. It was also stated that 90 per cent of miners who reached the age of 50 years are afflicted with some form of rheumatism.

The cross-examination of the Rev. Dr. Peter Roberts of Mahanoy City, Pa., who has studied the anthracite coal industry and has written a book on the subject, left the witness stand shortly after the noon recess. He began his testimony yesterday. Copious extracts from his book were read and placed on record. Ex-Congressman Simon P. Wolverton, counsel for the Reading company, read much of the matter pertaining to violence in the 1900 strike and also read articles written by Dr. Roberts during the progress of the late contest in which he described in strong language the acts of violence, intimidation and boycotting committed during that suspension.

Unions Not Wholly to Blame.

In articles spoke of some of these acts as "brutal outrages," and he also branded the union's action in calling out the steam men in June as "foolhardy."

In explaining his articles Dr. Roberts said that he did not wish to infer that the organization was responsible for all the lawlessness committed.

Dr. Roberts gave it as his opinion that attempts to have non-union men form a separate organization instigated by parties opposed to organized labor. In attempting to show that carelessness of the miner contributes materially to the dangerousness of his occupation, Chairman Gray interposed with the remark that a margin of carelessness incident to human nature must be taken into account when estimating the dangerousness of any hazardous occupation.

Answering a question by Commissioner Parker, Dr. Roberts said that of the 64 children employed in the Olyphant breaker, near this city, 50 per cent were under 14 years of age, and had others dependent on them.

SETTLED BY COMPROMISE.

Miners Will Return to Work for A. Pardee & Co.

HAZLETON, PA., Nov. 20.—The trouble at the Cranberry and Crystal Ridge collieries of A. Pardee & Co., where the employes refused to return to work because they were asked to sign an agreement not to interfere with non-union men, was settled today and operations will be resumed on Monday.

Instead of signing the agreement individually at the mines the men decided in a body to abide by its provisions and empowered a committee of their "local" to make written promises that all of the employes will comply with its conditions.

TEN ARE CANDIDATES ON P. R. R. RELIEF ASSOCIATION TICKET

James H. Collins, member of the advisory committee of the Pennsylvania railroad division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Voluntary Relief association, has issued the formal notice of the election to be held November 24, when his successor will be chosen.

The candidates announced in the circular are George S. Canon, engineman, Pittsburgh division; William E. Shaffer, baggagemaster, Pittsburgh division; D. W. Boyle, conductor, Pittsburgh division; James C. Layton, engineman, West Penn division; William R. Gilliford, clerk, Altoona machine shops; Charles F. Weston, machinist, Altoona machine shops; William O. Miller, engineman, middle division; James H. Collins, baggagemaster, middle division, the present member; John Helferty, Sr., yard clerk, Philadelphia Terminal division, and George H. Thomas, brakeman, Schuylkill division.

Ballots will be received until December 1, and the count will require a week or so for completion at the headquarters in Camden. The fight has waged far warmer than any preceding one. The two leading in the contest seem to be James H. Collins, the incumbent, and William E. Shaffer. The board of seven tellers who will make the count has been appointed. John McCully, chief clerk in the office of the master mechanic of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley division, will represent that line, and George Wichum will represent the Pennsylvania railroad division.

WILL BUILD NEXT SPRING.

James Neale Says Surveys Are Completed for New River Line.

"Our surveys are all finished and we expect to start construction work early in the spring," said President James Neale of the Pennsylvania, Monongahela & Southern railroad last night. This railroad is projected to run 22 miles, from the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania at West Brownsville, along the west bank of the Monongahela river to a connection with the Greene County railroad, the proposed Wabash line. This construction will be made at the mouth of Little Whiteley creek, Greene county. The road will develop fully 50,000 acres of coal land not touched by any line, Mr. Neale says. The Clyde Coal Company, of which he is president, owns 1,000 acres along this route. There are several other independent coal projects and the Monongahela River Coal and Coke Company owns still more land.

The surveys have been completed by the engineering firm of Elliot & Baton of the Keystone bank building. The work was done quietly and the route had been adopted before the opposition had time to awaken to what was planning. It is believed that some effort will be made by the Pennsylvania to prevent construction. The company is capitalized at $250,000 and has strong backing. The other officers beside President Neale are: Vice president, Jesse H. Sanford; secretary, George M. Hosack; treasurer, Stuart Brown; directors, the officers and Henry Graham Brown, George M. Hosack and John A. Murphy.

Lake Erie's Excursion Plans.

By making a close arrangement with the Raymond-Whitcomb tourist agency the Lake Erie plans to have 10 or 12 personally conducted excursions out of Pittsburgh for Mexico and California during the present season. Headquarters for the new agency were yesterday opened in the city ticket office of the Lake Erie, in charge of Charles A. Cooke as manager and Chester W. Smith as traveling passenger agent. On the days of the excursions one of the tourist company's cars will leave Pittsburgh on the Cleveland flyer to join the through tourist train from Boston.

Right of Way Secured.

Practically all the right of way between Washington and Waynesburg has been secured for the Wabash without cost. The time for calling for bids for the construction of the branch is now becoming close. Actual work of grading is expected to start within a few months. It is planned to have the work almost completed before this time next year.

To Name New Superintendent Soon.

L. G. Hass, general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Pittsburgh, said yesterday that the new superintendent of the Pittsburgh division to succeed S. P. Hutchinson, resigned, will be announced in a few days. There is no great hurry in making the change, since Mr. Hutchinson remains in charge until December 1.

To Elect Real Estate Agent.

The position of real estate agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh will be filled at the meeting of the board of the Pennsylvania Company and the Panhandle in Philadelphia Wednesday next. The position was made vacant by the death of Charles D. Law.

Railroad Notes.

The Chartiers branch of the Panhandle is to have better passenger service. A full vestibuled passenger train of four coaches will make the trip twice daily in each direction.

L. E. Sniveley, traveling freight agent of the Lackawanna, was in the city yesterday.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad shops at Parkersburg are to be greatly enlarged, the force increased and other arrangements made to accomplish more effective work for the four divisions centering there.

John R. James, central passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain systems, announces the opening of the full winter service for Hot Springs over the Iron Mountain. A new through train leaves St. Louis daily at 8 p. m. and arrives at Hot Springs at 8 o'clock the following morning. It is through vestibuled and electric lighted.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Change in Runs of Toledo and Detriot Sleeping Cars from Pittsburgh via Pennsylvania Lines

The following arrangement will take effect on Sunday, November 23, 1902:

Passenger trains No. 405 and No. 408, now running between Pittsburgh and Mansfield, will be discontinued and the Toledo and Detroit sleeping cars, now leaving Pittsburgh at 10:15 p. m., will be run on train No. 5, leaving Pittsburgh daily at 8:35 p. m., central time. There will be no accommodations for coach passengers on this train.

The Pittsburgh sleeping cars from Detroit and Toledo will be run through from Mansfield on train No. 8, due at Pittsburgh at 5:50 a. m., central time; 6:30 a. m., eastern time. There will be accommodations for coach passengers on this train from Toledo to Mansfield, and from Mansfield to Pittsburgh.

E. A. FORD,
General Passenger Agent.

WEISS HELD FOR COURT.

Restaurant Keeper Bound Over on the Assault Prosecution by Dr. Hodgens.

Matthias Weiss, the restaurant keeper of Smithfield street, had a hearing before Justice Walker of Wilkinsburg last night, on the charge of assault and battery preferred by Dr. I. W. Hodgens of Wylie avenue. After the commonwealth's witnesses had been heard, M. L. Thompson, attorney for the plaintiff, objected to the introduction of witnesses for the defendant, on the ground that the state had made out a prima facie case. The justice sustained the objection. Mr. Weiss was held for court in the sum of $300 and bond was promptly given.

In his testimony Dr. Hodgens stated that he and four other men were in Weiss' place on the evening of October 16, and that, without provocation, Weiss came to the table where they were laughing and talking and struck him two blows in the face. The defendant was represented by Attorney Roan, and the latter, in cross-examining, attempted to show that Dr. Hodgens and his party were drunk and raising a disturbance, but all the witnesses testified to the contrary.

MONEY BAG COSTS TWO LIVES.

Mother Tries to Save It, and Daughter Tries to Rescue Mother.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. Mary Bownes, a widow, 65 years old, was burned to death, and her daughter, Mrs. Myra Wanacker, probably fatally burned in the fire which destroyed their home at Woodside, L. I., this afternoon.

Mrs. Bownes tried to save a bag of money and was caught in the flames. Her daughter was burned in trying to save her.

Opened Annual Session.

The Pittsburgh district Epworth League training school of the Methodist Episcopal church, opened its annual session in the Lincoln Avenue church yesterday. The speakers were: The Revs. H. M. Chalfant, W. W. Youngson and T. N. Eaton, and S. Earl Taylor, Miss L. M. King and W. K. Brown.

AMERICAN MILL BONDED TO GRIND CANADIAN WHEAT FOR EXPORT ONLY.

St. Paul, Minn, Nov. 20.—The Washburn-Crosby Milling Company of Minneapolis bonded its Humboldt mill today for an indefinite period to grind nothing but Canadian wheat. The mill will have continually within its walls government storekeepers, who will see than only Canadian grain is used. The grain will be delivered to the mill in cars direct from Canada, which will be in charge of customs house men. The entire product of the mill will be loaded into bonded cars and will be taken directly east for shipment entire to Liverpool.

The custom heretofore prevailing was to ship the grain of the Canadian northwest bonded through the United States to Liverpool. The grinding of the grain in Minneapolis instead of in England will create a great saving in the expense of transit to Europe. A bond of $30,000 was also given at the customs house today by the Great Eastern Elevator Company of Minneapolis for the storage in elevator H, Minneapolis, of Canadian oats. This grain eventually will be ground into oatmeal in this state in some mill yet to be designated and used entirely for export business.

MANSLAUGHTER SUIT DROPPED.

Accused Chemists Financially Ruined by Explosion in Building.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Judge McMahon today dismissed indictments of manslaughter in the second degree against Thomas F. Main and William Powers. These men formerly comprised the firm of Tarrant & Co., wholesale chemists. Their building was blown up on October 29, 1900, and seven men were killed.

District Attorney Jerome recommended the discharge of the indictments, saying it was impossible to get enough evidence to convict the men of manslaughter. Since the explosion the prisoners have been out on $2,500 bail. They say they were ruined by the explosion and are practically penniless.

Grown-up people experience quite as much benefit as children from Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge. It eradicates many alarming obstructions besides worms, and health comes as a consequence.

FIREMAN IS KILLED.

Passenger Train Collides With Freight on Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh.

FRANKLINVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 20.—A passenger train on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad, running south, ran into a freight train at Summit station. Fireman Dye of the passenger engine was killed and Engineer Brown and a passenger were slightly injured.

The freight ran into a siding to allow the passenger train to pass. The two engineers on the freight train were unable to stop in time and ran out on the main line again just as the passenger train came along at the rate of 30 miles an hour.

NOVELIST FORD'S WILL.

It Disposes of an Estate Worth $205,000 After All Debts Are Paid. To Widow and Child.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Surrogate Fitzgerald has passed on the accounts of the appraiser, Clarence K. Lexow, as to the estate of Paul Leicester Ford, the author, who was shot May 8 by his brother Malcolm.

The appraiser finds the estate was worth $214,000, but deductions for funeral expenses and other debts leave an amount distributable of $205,000, of which Ford's widow will receive one-third and his daughter, Lesta, born after his death, two-thirds, subject to small legacies to his brother, Worthington C. Ford, and his sister, Mrs. Roswell Steel. Mr. Ford's books, which include "Janice Meredith," are valued at $1,575. His other property consists of stocks in the Brooklyn Railroad Company, valued at $42,000, and stock in several other corporations, at an aggregate of $205,000.

TO HONOR WESTINGHOUSE.

Plan to Consolidate East Pittsburgh, Turtle Creek and Wilmerding.

The prospect of free mail delivery has led the citizens of East Pittsburgh, Turtle Creek and Wilmerding to begin a movement for the consolidation of the three boroughs into one municipality, to be known as the borough of Westinghouse. The majority of the residents are favorable to the proposition and declare that the business done in the three postoffices, if consolidated, would insure free delivery.

The object in conferring the name Westinghouse on the new borough is to honor George Westinghouse, whose plants are the industries that support all three towns.

Depot Burns, One Man Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The Southern Pacific depot and ferry slips at the end of the Almada mole, which extends far into the bay from the eastern shore, were totally destroyed by fire early today. A large number of passenger coaches were also burned. Loss $45,000. One man is missing.

GERMAN COAL-MAKING MACHINERY TO INVADE AMERICA

To Introduce Plan for Converting Waste Into Fuel.

KAISER IN AN ACCIDENT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—The manufacturers of machinery for compressing coal waste and lignite into the fuel called "briquettes," of which enormous quantities are used in Germany, have organized a syndicate for promoting the export of this machinery to the United States and have sent an engineer to America to explain to mine owners how to make estimates of the costs of plants and describe the processes of manufacture.

The syndicate is importing samples of American coal waste and lignite to analyze them and test the machines with them.

During the recent coal strike in the United States "briquette" dealers here arranged to send 10,000 tons to New York, but before cargo space could be engaged the strike was ended.

MANY AMERICAN FRIENDS.

New French Ambassador Talks of Recent Appointment.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Ambassador Jusserand arrived here yesterday evening from Copenhagen on his first visit to Paris since his appointment to the Washington post. He comes now to confer with foreign Minister Delcasse in order to receive instructions and to arrange for the departure of himself and family for Washington, where he expects to arrive early in the new year.

At his apartments he talked interestingly on American men and American affairs. "Although I have never lived in the United States," said the ambassador, "I feel fairly well acquainted with that country, as my diplomatic life has brought me into contact with many Americans, and I have formed many lasting American friendships."

KAISER'S HORSES SHIED.

Emperor of Germany Narrowly Escaped an Accident.

EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND, Nov. 20.—Emperor William, on his way to embark on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, arrived at Daimeny this afternoon.

As his majesty's carriage was leaving the station the horses attached to it became frightened, and shied. The postillions lost control of the horses, which got mixed up in the crowd.

An accident was averted only by the alertness of Lieut.-Gen. Sir Archibald Hunter, who seized the horses' heads and managed to control them. After luncheon the emperor boarded the Hohenzollern and sailed for Kiel.

Martial Law Repealed.

PRETORIA, Nov. 20.—Martial law was today repealed throughout the new colonies. The proclamation, however, reserves the right to reimpose military rule in case of necessity, provides for the expulsion of everyone considered dangerous to the peace of the country and authorizes the arrest without a warrant of anyone suspected of sedition.

Parliament Member Stoned.

BELFAST, Nov. 20.—Thomas W. Russell, Unionist member of parliament, was stoned by a mob after he had addressed a meeting at Dromore last night. The rioters attacked the hall where Mr. Russell had made his speech and caused him to seek refuge in a neighboring house. Mr. Russell is opposed to home rule for Ireland.

YALE MEN SQUELCH THE SPECULATORS

Swoop Down On Them and Forcibly Take Possession of All Tickets.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 20.—An extraordinary scene was witnessed here tonight, when Yale students made an attack on the ticket speculators and relieved them of every ticket for the Yale-Harvard football game in their possession. The speculators were given the regulation price of $2 for every ticket taken. In several instances when the ticket dealers remonstrated they were roughly handled.

The exorbitant price demanded by speculators for tickets had aroused the student body and they decided to take the matter into their own hands.

Most of the tickets taken were on the Harvard side of the field and were obtained in Boston by the speculators. A few tickets on the Yale side of the field were found, however, and as every ticket bears the name of the student to whom it was issued, it is expected that there will be interesting developments, in view of the fact that the football management some time ago threatened to publish the names of students whose tickets were found in the hands of speculators.

TWO WOMEN IN TROUBLE.

South Side Father Charges Them With Administering Poisonous Drugs to His Daughter.

Two Allegheny women, Mrs. Catherine Carr of East Ohio street and Mrs. John Merger of Clark street are charged by Charles Feibr of No. 82 Boggs avenue, South Side, with administering poisonous drugs to his daughter. The informations were made yesterday before Alderman Henry Grefie, of the Thirty-eighth ward, and the two women gave bail for a hearing tomorow afternoon.

The prosecutor alleges that his daughter was ill and confided her secret to Mrs. Merger, who is said to be on friendly terms with a man whose name appears in the case. It is alleged that the young woman then visited Mrs. Catherine Carr, and the latter gave her two bottles of medicine, charging her $50 for it.

Fire on South Side.

Fire damaged the buildings at Nos. 1002 and 1004 Frederick street, South Side, early this morning. The fire started from a defective flue in Henry Petrosky's grocery, which was damaged to the amount of $150. Stimey Muntunis and Mrs. Mary Khyulhia each lost about $175 on household goods.

Stahl Died in Hospital.

YOUNG AMERICAN LOST IN EUROPE

Princess Salm-Salm. Frederick C. Johnson.

Detectives are searching Europe for Frederick C. Johnson of Vineland, N. J., nephew of the Princess Agnes Salm-Salm of Bonn, Prussia. He mysteriously disappeared nearly three months ago. Young Johnson, who was prominent in society at Vineland and a dental student at the University of Pennsylvania, had for the past eight months been abroad taking a course of study at the Darmstadt University. He is 20 years of age, and the favorite nephew of his aunt, the princess, who, being childless, took charge of him when he was 2 years old, and gave him the care of a mother until about five years ago, when he rejoined his parents at Vineland. It was at the request of his royal aunt, who heard that his health was failing him at the University of Pennsylvania, that Johnson went back to Germany last March. On September 1, Johnson started from Bonn for his home at Vineland and that was the last his relatives saw or heard of him.

ANARCHY IS DEFIED BY KING OF THE BELGIANS

Leopold Says Assassins Succeed in Overthrowing Government.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

BRUSSELS, Nov. 20.—King Leopold made a somewhat striking reply today to a deputation from the chamber, headed by the president, who presented his majesty with an address of congratulation on his escape Saturday from the anarchist's bullet. After thanking the deputies the king continued:

"The times are very troubled. Agitators are constantly stirring up their followers to disturb that order which is the guarantee of public liberties. Without order only license remains, which leads inevitably to despotism. These agitators find in their path, firstly the heads of states. If they fail to reach them they attack their wives, as in the case of the horrible drama at Geneva.

"Their blows are also aimed at ministers, as in the case of Senor Canovas, and they also blow up the houses of private individuals. They want to intimidate us, but they will not succeed. Even if they struck down the head of the state, it would make no difference as he would soon be replaced. In addition to revolver shots they employ the pen, which can write what calumnies they please. I am nearing the end of my life. I do not know how long I shall live—how long they will let me live—but I can assure you that all the rest of my existence will be devoted within the limits of my constitutional powers to the good of my country and the protection of its liberties."

A warrant for the committal of Rubino, the anarchist, has been officially confirmed. The would-be assassin will be tried on two counts—an attempt on King Leopold's like and a homicidal attempt on the lives of the court officials who were in the carriage at which Rubino fired.

NEXT ADJUTANT GENERAL.

John A. Wiley and Thomas J. Stewart Said to Be Candidates.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Friends of Brig.-Gen. John A. Wiley are urging his appointment as adjutant general under Gov. Pennypacker. Some very influential persons are behind the movement.

Thomas J. Stewart, present adjutant general, is, it is said, a candidate. Gen. Stewart is now commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. He served two terms as secretary of internal affairs, and this is his second term as adjutant general. He is a resident of Montgomery county, as is also Gov.-Elect Pennypacker.

COUPLE ON TRIAL FOR DOUBLE MURDER

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Upon appeal the double case of Jesse Jenkins of Pittsburgh and Mary Fleming of Philadelphia, charged with the murder of wife and husband, respectively, was called today at Kingston. The jury was impaneled and the taking of evidence was begun. Jenkins, who is an iron molder with some wealth, came here with his wife last fall. Shortly afterward Mary Fleming's husband accompanied her here also. Three weeks afterward both Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. Fleming died, and the two are being tried for having murdered them with some secret poison.

POLICEMAN HAS WHISKY AND IS ARRESTED

Fred W. Hammer, a policeman patrolling the beat on Third avenue, was arrested early this morning and locked up in Central station charged with drunkenness. He was taken out of a disorderly house. At Central station his badge and mace were taken from him and a bottle of whisky was found in his pocket.

Local Honors in Yale Societies.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Announcement has just been made regarding admissions to the junior Greek letter fraternities at Yale university. Among the lucky men are: Deta Kappa Epsilon, Lawrence Darr, Pittsburgh; Alpha Del Ta Phi, McLane Brown, Allegheny. Most of the successful candidates are from the west.

PRINCE IS NOW ROUGH RIDER.

SAN JOSE, CAL., Nov. 20.—The special train of the crown prince of Siam reached San Jose early this morning. Since coming west the prince not only has donned a sombrero, but has adopted the Mexican saddle and the western style of riding.

AMERICAN WOMAN SHOT DEAD IN PARIS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Helen Gore, said to be an American, was killed by a revolver shot yesterday in an apartment occupied by Jean de Rydzenski, a singer of the imperial theater of St. Petersburg. De Rydzenski at first said Miss Gore committed suicide, but subsequently he declared the revolver went off accidentally.

Consul General Gowdy is personally investigating the death of Miss Gore, who was completing her musical education here and resided in the fashionable quarter of Passy. When found the victim was unconscious with a bullet wound over her right eye, and died without regaining consciousness. The police have not accepted the theory of the young Russian singer, who was in the room at the time that the shooting was the result of an accident.

De Rydzenski comes of a rich and noble Russian family. He is the son of a Russian general and he has uncles who hold high positions in the government service. Miss Gore lived in the Avenue De La Grande Armee, not far from the apartment of the Russian, where the tragedy occurred.

The affair has caused much excitement in that locality, the police are continuing their investigation and De Rydzenski is kept under surveillance.

EMBALMED BEEF TO BE TRIED ON YOUNG MEN

They Are Volunteers for Subjects of Tests of Meats Treated by Chemicals.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Prof. W. H. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the agricultural department, next Monday will begin a series of experiments on 12 young men in government employ, to test the physiological effects of the use of meat preserved with borax and other chemicals. The experiments will be made with a view to deciding what basis there is for the objections of the German government to American meats on the ground that the borax and other chemicals used in their preservation are injurious to public health.

The 12 young men selected are volunteers and all are young and vigorous. Each has pledged himself during the period the tests are to last to abstain from food and drink except as it may be permitted by Prof. Wiley.

AUTOMATIC MAIL BAG A COMPLETE SUCCESS

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 20.—A successful test of a new automatic mail bag catcher and deliverer was made today before the committee appointed by the postmaster general. The last transfer was made at a speed of 76 miles an hour, with full maximum weight mail bags of 50 pounds, the device delivering the bag to the post and receiving another. The test was a complete success.

MANY ARE DROWNED IN THE BLACK SEA

VIENNA, Nov. 20.—A Bucharest newspaper publishes an unconfirmed report that the steamer Bosnia, loaded with cereals, has foundered in a gale in the Black sea, off Sulina at the mouth of the Danube. One hundred and fifty persons are reported to have perished.

Monongahela Fire Cost $80,000.

MONONGAHELA, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Sixty thousand dollars will cover the loss at last night's big fire, which started in Claude E. Towner's new department store. Mr. Towner will be the heaviest loser. His building and stock were valued at $46,000, on which he had but $21,200 insurance. The total insurance on the burned buildings and stock is but $27,000. All danger was not past until 5 o'clock this morning, when part of the front wall at the Towner building was pulled down.

Will Make Nickel Steel.

The Damascus Nickel Steel Company has been incorporated with authorized capitalization of $1,000,000. The company will take over the business of the Nickel Steel & Forge Company, which has a small plant at Carnegie. This is to be much enlarged, to operate under patents controlled by the National Refined Steel Company. The officers are J. W. Woodside, president; R. K. Jamison of Philadelphia, vice president, and J. C. Jamison, general manager.

THE CUBAN REPUBLIC DEFAULTS ON BONDS

New Yorkers Who Advanced Money During Struggle With Spain Protest.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

Through failure to pay accumulated interest on between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 worth of bonds, which were sold largely in this city while she was struggling to free herself from Spanish rule, the Cuban republic became a defaulter today.

The bondholders are making a protest. Communication has been opened with the secretary of the Cuban treasury and a call has been issued for a meeting of the bondholders to devise means for protecting their interests.

Under any construction which might be placed upon the contract implied by the bonds, the accrued interest up to October 1 was due today, and not a word was heard from any representative of the government. It was confidently expected by the persons who in the trying days of 1896 and 1897 generously and patriotically gave their money to Cuba in return for bonds, which were a hazard at best, that on the date which marked the first six months of independence of the new republic Cuba would liquidate at least the interest part of the debt.

HALIFAX ROW CAUSED BY CARNEGIE OFFER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 20.—The Halifax aldermen have got into a muddle over an offer by Andrew Carnegie of $75,000 for a free library in this city.

A year ago they asked Mr. Carnegie for the money, and he replied that if certain conditions were fulfilled he would give the cash. The city council fulfilled these conditions by selecting a site and notifying the donor, who replied that the trust company had been ordered to pay the money to the city as soon as the contract for the building is signed.

Then city council met again, and in spite of the recorder's opinion that such action would be illegal, they reconsidered their former action and directed the clerk to notify Mr. Carnegie that Halifax does not want his money. They did this in response to a sectional cry of North End against South End, for the site selected was in the southern part of the city.

Tonight an injunction was served on the mayor forbidding him to do anything further in the matter until the courts decide the legal point. The ground of the injunction is that the city has entered into a contract with Mr. Carnegie which they cannot now break.

REMINGTON MAY NOT CONSENT TO INQUEST

Offer of Newport Medical Examiner Not Likely to Be Accepted.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., Nov. 20.—The offer of Medical Examiner Ecroyd of Newport, R. I., to ask for an inquest if E. P. Remington will produce the necessary evidence with the report of the autopsy held on the body of his dead brother, is not likely to be accepted by Mr. Remington or his legal adviser, Seth T. McCormick, of this city. If a further inquiry is made into the death of Robert Reading Remington The Gazette correspondent is in a position to know that Dr. Ecroyd will be ignored, even if an inquest is demanded.

When questioned about the matter this evening, Attorney McCormick stated that he would not talk for publication of the future movements of Mr. Remington or himself.

"I know who Dr. Ecroyd is," he said, "and I do not care what he does or does not say. It does not amount to much either way, as he evidently did not give the body of Robert Reading Remington a very careful examination."

Mr. McCormick explained that he and Mr. Remington had not consulted on the seeming challenge of Medical Examiner Ecroyd, as he had received no word from the former since he went to Pittsburgh on Tuesday night.

PLEA OF INSANITY FOR MRS. LULU YOUNGS

Public Opinion of Rochester Inclined to Acquit Woman Who Killed Her Girl Rival.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 20.—That Miss Florence McFarlane died from stab wounds inflicted by Mrs. Lulu Youngs, who was jealous of her husband's fondness for Miss McFarlane, was the finding of the coroner's court today. Mrs. Youngs was held for the grand jury.

Mr. Youngs, husband of the accused woman, was subpoenaed, but failed to appear. He is believed to be in Buffalo.

The defense will be insanity.

BURNS FACTION UNDER ARREST

Get Into Trouble by Breaking Into the K. of L. Headquarters.

RESULT OF LITIGATION

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.

The trouble between the two factions of the Knights of Labor, which was aired in the courts of this city last May, last night resulted in the arrest of Simon Burns of Pittsburgh, Henry A. Hicks of New York, Thomas H. Canning of Boston, John Fernau of Pittsburgh and J. Frank O'Meara on a warrant charging forcible entry.

For two years there were two factions in the organization, one headed by John W. Hayes and the other by John W. Parsons, and the matter was carried into the equity court, where the late Justice Bradley issued the decree in favor of the Hayes party, accompanied by an order, it is said, debarring the Parsons faction from interfering with the building occupied by the Knights of Labor as headquarters.

Judge Bradley issued his decree last May, and the attorneys representing the Parsons faction gave notice of their intention to carry the case to the court of appeals, but it was never done.

Got Through Upper Window.

The Knights of Labor held a convention at Niagara Falls November 11 to 14 of this year. It is said Burns and Hicks, who had belonged to the Hayes faction, went over to the other side, and that, accompanied by Canning, Fernau and O'Meara, they came to this city Monday. The Hayes party, learning of their arrival, stationed a watchman at labor headquarters.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, it is said, the Burns party visited the building, gaining entrance through a second-story window by means of a ladder.

Mr. Hayes and L. D. Chamberlain, who live near by, were hurriedly informed of the matter and the police court was visited, where, after a consultation with the district attorney, a warrant was issued for the arrest of the men, and it was served by the police about 10 o'clock last night. Each was released on $100 real estate security for their appearance in court, and when the matter was called up consideration was continued until Saturday.

The general headquarters of the Knights of Labor are guarded tonight by an officer in the employ of the Hayes faction. He carries a formidable mace, and it is his duty to see that the opposing faction does not get possession during the night.

Hayes Is Relentless.

John W. Hayes, general secretary-treasurer, who caused the arrest of Burns and Fernau and three other members of the opposing faction, when seen at his home tonight, said:

"Burns and his people got into the headquarters by sending a hireling through a second-story window. This intruder opened the front door and the gang took possession, barring the doors and windows so that the police could not serve the warrants which had been sworn out charging them with forcible entry; but I knew where there was a loose shutter and was able to get in through a window and unlock the door for the police.

"The penalty for the offense with which Burns and his crowd is charged is one year's imprisonment or $100 fine, or both. We intend to push the cases to the limit and put them all behind the bars if we can. There will be no compromise.

"Burns and Fernau and their crowd held no convention in Niagara Falls. They could not have done so, as their organizations had not paid their taxes, and consequently were not entitled to representation. It is the same old fight with a new leader in Burns."

Colonial Wardrobes

It's a good thing to dip into the history of a century or two ago and get a glimpse of the things which the people of those days used in the equipment of their homes.

The fact that Colonial furniture is so greatly favored nowadays shows that the people who originated it were artistic and that the people of the present admire the quaintness and simplicity of the style.

The above picture is a very inadequate illustration of one of the handsomest Colonial Wardrobes in this notable stock. It is an exquisite piece of furniture, made of solid mahogany, 41 inches wide, 22 inches deep, 6 feet 6 inches high; mirror 50 by 28 inches.

However, the Colonial is only one of dozens of distinctive styles which this store shows in an amplitude of effects, comprising all the desirable woods.

You will always find it pays to come to headquarters, which is

YALE READY TO FIGHT PROTESTS

BLUE IS CONFIDENT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 20.—Yale's football association is loath to take notice of stories published in New York newspapers tonight declaring that a certain Dan McKelligott of Syracuse, alleged to be manager of the so-called Orange" eleven of Syracuse, paid Glass, the Yale guard, $20 for playing a game on the Orange team at Ogdensburg on Thanksgiving Day, 1898. Glass tonight flatly denied that he played at Ogdensburg in the game mentioned, saying that his name was put on the scoreboard without his consent and that he remained at home. Field Coach Swan of the Yale team said: "We have 14 affidavits, including that of the manager of the Orange team, and many of the players who were in the game at Ogdensburg to the effect that Glass did not play. We have received no protest from Harvard; we regard Glass eligible and will play him."

Among leading football men the opinion is growing that the blue will triumph next Saturday. The Rev. Mr. Cutting, the former coach and a regular coach all the fall, said tonight: "I think that Yale will win by about 15 to 6."

Mike Murphy, the Yale trainer, said: "I predict a Yale victory by the score of 18 to 0."

Ex-Capt. Charley Gould of last year's team reiterated his statement of last night that Yale would win by a score of 18 to 5.

Miss Alice Roosevelt will see the game as the guest of Whitelaw Reid and his party.

AS PRINCETON FELL SO HARVARD WILL BE MET

Same Victorious Lineup Will Start Saturday's Game—Old Eli Has Already Broken a Record.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Without once lining up for scrimmage work the Yale 'varsity football players took their afternoon's drill at the field, and Coach Swan said tonight that there would be no line-up between the Princeton and the Harvard games, nothing except a short signal drill will be taken tomorrow. This is the first time that Yale team has gone through the entire week between the two games without a line-up. The Yale coachers say that the players can be depended upon to play their game, provided they are in good physical condition, and therefore the work all this week has been light.

The regulars put in an hour at signal rehearsal, half of the time being spent in falling. The second and third 'varsity practiced for half an hour and broke training this evening with an elaborate banquet, at which the coachers praised the self-denial of the substitutes through the season, and lauded their part in developing the regular team by grading it on. Field Coach Swan said this evening: "The Yale eleven will line up against Harvard exactly as it met Princeton last Saturday. We have left in tip-top condition, and there will be no more practice this season."

Tomorrow afternoon the regulars will go to the Yale field for short signal drill. The 'varsity team has been taken to the infirmary at 10 o'clock nights till the Harvard game, in order that the excitement of the campus might be avoided. Metcalf and Rafferty have not quite recovered from their severe game last Saturday, and Hare and Farmer are regarded likely to be played in their places part of the game Saturday. Aside from these players all of the men are in the best condition of the season, and no other changes are expected during the contest in the make-up of the Yale eleven.

ANOTHER COUNT FOR YALE'S GREAT GUARD

Syracuse Football Men Claim Glass to Be Simon-Pure Amateur—Was Not in the Ogdensburg Game.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Local football circles are aroused over the controversy concerning the athletic status of Glass, the Yale guard, who is a resident of this city. It is not known that any specific charges have been made, but according to a report here Glass is suspected of having played in a game at Ogdensburg in 1898 with a team from this city, which included Syracuse university men, playing under an assumed name.

Those men who attended the Ogdensburg game declare that Glass was not there, other Syracusans assert that he was in this city all of the day in question, and aver that the report that he received $20 for playing in the game has no foundation. He ranks here as a pure amateur.

DISSENSION IN RANKS OF CRIMSON COACHES

Assistant Coach Mason Barred from Practice and Conducted from Field—Treachery Charged.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 20.—Assistant Coach Mason was barred from the secret practice of the Harvard football team yesterday by Head Coach Farley. It was understood that Farley and Capt. Keenan of the Harvard eleven had received information that Mason had used his knowledge of Harvard tactics to help Dartmouth in last Saturday's game. At any rate, when Mason appeared on Soldiers field for practice yesterday Coach Farley objected to his presence, and after some talk Mason was accompanied off the field by another coach.

Coach Farley says that he had good reasons for acting as he did, but beyond that he will not discuss the case.

Mason is a former football player and star member of the Harvard baseball team.

HALL TO PLAY FOR E. E. A. A'

Old Yale End Secured for the Thanksgiving Game With W. and J.

The E. E. A. A. has secured James Laits to assist Coach Ileh in preparing the team for the Thanksgiving game with W. & J. colleges at Philadelphia park. George Hall, who played left tackle on the Yale college eleven for three years, has been signed to fill that position for the East End team for the rest of the season. Reserved seats for the game are now on sale.

CORNELL SCRUBS SCORED AGAIN ON THE 'VARSITY

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Again the Cornell scrubs scored on the 'varsity football team today. However, the touchdown came on a fluke, for Lyford, the speedy right halfback of the scrubs, broke through the 'varsity line on a delayed pass, and skillfully evading Coffin and Brewster, ran 35 yards for a touchdown. The score came in less than two minutes after Capt. Warner had been forced over the scrub goal line for the first touchdown of the practice. When the regulars reported for work this afternoon Purcell was with them. His appearance was a big surprise, for he has been in the college infirmary for the greater part of the past week. He seemed spry as a cat, and ran signals with the 'varsity for more than 30 minutes.

WALTER BERGO MATCHED TO MEET MEL BOWSER

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Walter Bergo, the lightweight boxer of this place, has signed articles to meet "Mel" Bowser of Philadelphia on Thanksgiving evening at Indianapolis. The contest will be ten rounds and the men will meet at 135 pounds.

Ingram After Championship.

The Ingram football team claims the championship of Chartiers valley and is anxious to meet Crafton A. C. or Geneva of Carnegie. Ingram is willing to play either team, or the two of both teams for love or money at any time and at any time between now and Christmas. Ingram will play Pastime A. C. Saturday.

...ve Returns in Good Shape.

...FALLS, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—...in Lowe, captain of the Chicago ...ll team, arrived at his home ... an extended western trip.

CHARLES DONNELLY RAFFERTY,
Left end on the Yale 'varsity eleven, is a son of Gilbert T. Rafferty, who was for many years a resident of the East End. He played end on the Phillips-Andover team for two years before entering college, and last year was substitute end on the Yale eleven, playing in the Princeton game. In the Bucknell game Rafferty received a bad cut on the head, and in the Princeton game last Saturday he was again injured, but will, according to Coach Swan, line up tomorrow against Harvard.

GLASS CASE LAID AT HARVARD'S DOOR

Telegram Offering Proof of His Professionalism Placed Before the Committee.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 20.—A telegram received here today from Syracuse, N. Y., offered proof that Glass, the Yale football guard, had received pay for playing football in Syracuse. The telegrams indicated two men who could positively assert that the secretary of the Dunforth Athletic club of Syracuse had paid Glass money for playing football in October, 1901. The dispatch was at once placed before the Harvard athletic committee.

Prof. Hollis, chairman of the Harvard athletic committee, said tonight that Glass' connection with the Dunforth club was severed in October, 1901. The dispatch was at once placed before the Harvard athletic committee.

GREGOR K. AGAIN.

The Great Two-Year-Old Beat the Favorite, The Conqueror, on Lakeside Track.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Gregor K., one of the best 2-year-olds in the west for distances over six furlongs, won more laurels at Lakeside today, the closing day of the racing season here, by defeating the stake horse, The Conqueror II., the 2-to-5 favorite, in the third race. Gregor K. ran one of the best races of his career. Going to the front shortly after the start, he led his field by a comfortable margin throughout, and at the end showed marvelous gameness. Weather cloudy and warm; track slow and cuppy. Summady:

First race, 6 furlongs—Andes, 100, Robbins, 4 to 2, won; Peterless, 105, Walsh, 4 to 1, second; Inspector Shea, 109, Fuller, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 1-5. James J. Corbett, Howendobler, Anna, Georgie, Eminence II. and Viola Allen also ran.

Second race, mile—O'Hagen, 105, Walsh, 11 to 10, won; Chickadee, 96, Hicks, 8 to 5, second; Ida V., 102, W. Knapp, 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:48. Prue, Bandeh, The Caxton, Cougar and David S. also ran.

Third race, 7 furlongs—Gregor K., 86, W. Knapp, 7 to 10, won; The Conqueror II., 109, Hoar, 2 to 5, second; Barbary, 100, Robbins, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:31 4-5. The Don, Mayor Johnson and Moabina also ran.

Fourth race, 1 mile—MacG., 105, T. But-ler, 20 to 1, won; Woodwink, 99, W. Hick, 11 to 10, second; Scarlet Lily, 95, Phillips, 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:39 4-5. Lady Strathmore, Aldina and Sir Dan also ran.

Fifth race, mile—Jove, 95, W. Knapp, 8 to 1, won; Banter, 87, Robbins, 2 to 5, second; Aurie B., 87, Davison, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:48. Jasher, Goody Two Shoes, Muldrew and Amote also ran.

Sixth race, mile—Henry of Franstamar, 102, Davisson, 11 to 5, won; Compass, 99, Morton, 5 to 1, second; Sparkle Plenty, Cummings, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:40. Yellowstone, Bonita, Hub Prather, Lady Rice, I. Samuelson, Old Mike, Ballantyne and Prima II. also ran.

CORBETT MAY REFEREE THE ALLEGHENY BOUT

Jim Corbett may be selected to referee the Kennedy and Matthews 10-round contest at Turner hall, Allegheny, next Tuesday evening. Matthews wants an outside man to referee the contest, and Corbett will be showing here all week. If the ex-champion refuses Tim Hurst may be selected.

W. & J. Meets Bethany Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—It is probable that Washington and Jefferson will meet Bethany college eleven on college park on Saturday afternoon. The Geneva team, according to Manager Craig, refused to accept his proposition, and the faculty ordered him to call off negotiations. There is considerable disappointment over the result of the game yesterday. One noticeable feature of the game was the interference. The work field followed their interference. The work of Hupp was especially gratifying. Hupp is a McDonald boy, and this is his first year in college.

Lord Hawkes' Cricket Team Here.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Lord Hawkes' star cricket team will play its only American engagement next Wednesday at the Presidio athletic grounds against a picked team of 18 California cricketers. The English team is on its way to New Zealand for a series of matches, and waits here two days before the sailing of their boat. Lord Hawkes, it is announced, will be one of the players next Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Lord Hawkes' cricket team arrived here today on the steamer Majestic, but Lord Hawkes was not with them.

Keystone Lost at Indiana.

INDIANA, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—In a fairly interesting game today the Indiana Interstate league team defeated the Keystones of Pittsburgh. The visitors were short two players. Lineup and score:

Indiana—40		Keystones—24.
McCreight, Capt.	Forward	Moore
Ellis	Forward	Gardner
Seanor	Longwell	Center	Lotty
C. McCreight	Guard	Grosse
St. Clair	Guard	Gamble

Umpire—Jake Hood. Timekeeper—A. Wilson. Time—20 minutes halves.

Mt Pleasant Wants Another Try.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Mt. Pleasant Tigers have issued a challenge for a second game with Bradenville for any day next week, and proposes that the game be played at Athletic park, Greensburg, under the same conditions as yesterday. Yesterday's game was a great money maker.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHANGES.

Claimed That Minneapolis and St. Paul Will Not Be in Line.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 20.—The Tribune will say tomorrow morning:

It is reported on good authority that Minneapolis and St. Paul will not be represented in the American Baseball association next season. It is further rumored that the St. Paul team will be transferred to Chicago, under the management of Mike Kelly, and the Minneapolis team, if present plans materialize, will go to Detroit.

FOWNES BROTHERS MEET IN FINAL GOLF MATCH

In the play on the Highland Golf club course yesterday E. Z. Smith, who had won from George Ormiston by default, was beaten by C. B. Fownes, 4 up and 3 to play. Smith had a handicap of five strokes. W. C. Fownes, Jr., defeated H. C. Fownes by 5 up and 3 to play, playing against a handicap of three strokes. C. B. Fownes and W. C. Fownes, Jr., will meet in the final match on Saturday for the trophy cup.

FRED TENNEY WILL NOT JUMP TO THE AMERICAN

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 20.—A. C. Buckenburger of this city, manager of the Boston National league team, has received a letter from Fred Tenney, the first baseman, which assures him, he says, that Tenney will not jump to the Detroit Americans. Tenney will be the captain of the Boston Nationals next year.

Latonia Winner Disqualified.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20.—Arsiona, after winning the last race at Latonia today, was disqualified for crowding Optimo to the rail. Optimo, who beat Chorus Boy a nose for the place, was given first money and the others moved up. All the winners today were at 7 and 8 to 1 excepting Trocadero, who won the mile and a quarter event at odds of 5 to 2. Track muddy; weather cloudy.

Light Practice for Yale Team.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 20.—Nearly a thousand students marched to the field led by the old guard band today and cheered themselves hoarse. The 'varsity regulars were sent up and down the length of the field several times in signal practice and under Bowman's and Waldeperd's counts. Later the half backs were given catching practice. Harvard is expected here tomorrow afternoon.

Inter-National Lacrosse Games.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 20.—The international Lacrosse game between Harvard and a team made up of Oxford and Cambridge undergraduates, will be played here about Class day next year. The year following Harvard will send a team to England to play a return match. The English team will probably play games of other universities throughout the country during its visit.

M'CLELLAND WON OVER SULLIVAN

FIGHT A HARD ONE

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—Jack McClelland of Pittsburgh knocked out "Brooklyn" Tommy Sullivan in the twelfth round of what was to have been a 20-round contest, before the West End club tonight. Sullivan was the aggressor for the first six rounds, using his left to McClelland's face, the latter contenting himself with rights to the body in the clinches.

Sullivan closed McClelland's eye in the third round with a right swing. In the seventh round McClelland worked an inside right hook to Sullivan's jaw, putting him down and nearly out, the bell saving him.

Sullivan feigned grogginess in the eight and McClelland tried hard to finish him. Sullivan suddenly revived and rushed McClelland to the ropes and had the latter clinching to save himself at the end of the round.

In the twelfth round McClelland again worked an inside right to Sullivan's chin, putting the latter down for nine counts. When he regained his feet, McClelland feinted with his right and swung a hard left to the chin, putting Sullivan out.

"Billy" Trueman of Brooklyn got the decision over Jimmy Vickers of Chicago in the 12-round preliminary.

TURTLE CREEK BOWLERS LOST AT M'KEESPORT

The Turtle Creek bowling team was defeated at McKeesport last night by the W. J. Sowden team in three games. Scores:

Geneva and Westminster Disagree.

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Geneva management, wishing to secure a game with Washington and effeson on Saturday, consented to release Westminster from a Saturday game, accepting a game with Westminster on Tuesday. No advice came until Wednesday, and in the meantime the Westminster entered into negotiations with Muskingum. Geneva has been paid with it, and J. is reluctant to give up the date, but it is thought that a satisfactory adjustment will be made.

Miller Tossed Up the Sponge.

CUMBERLAND, MD., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Chris Himmler of this city and Glen Miller of Bridgeport, Pa., met in the ring here tonight for a 20-round bout, but at the end of the third round Miller threw up the sponge. Miller was repeatedly floored. He claims to be the champion heavyweight of Pennsylvania. Himmler is the champion middle weight of Maryland.

Weston Plays Some Good Pool.

Weston played the best game at pool in the afternoon contest yesterday, but fell down miserably in the evening. In the afternoon he scored 100 to Clearwater's 102, and made no fewer than eight difficult bank cushion shots. The evening score resulted Clearwater, 115; Weston, 84, leaving the total score to date 816 to 884 in favor of Clearwater. The contest closes tonight.

New Castle Will Play Youngstown.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 20.—The New Castle association football team will play Youngstown here on Saturday. Both teams are in good condition, and a hard fought game is expected.

Association Football Tomorrow.

The Roscoe Bangers will tomorrow meet the H. L. A. C. association football team at Steel Works park. The Roscoe people have been champions for the past two years.

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

Flavel will line up against the Pequots of Allegheny Saturday.

Carson A. Bigley of this year's Harrisburg High school eleven, will finish the season with the Orient A. C.

The Shadyside Seconds play the Clippers of Turtle Creek Saturday, and the Franklins of Pittsburgh Thanksgiving, both games at Pittcitra.

Harry Matz, the full back of the Kiskiminetas second team, is home for Thanksgiving, and will line up with the Pastime Reserves on Saturday.

Orient A. C. wants a home game for Sunday, November 23, with an 80-pound team. Address C. A. Bigley, No. 1 Randolph street, Allegheny.

Sewickley meets the Primrose of Allegheny Saturday. All players of Primrose A. C. report practice Friday night at Hollywood Place at 7:30.

The Pastime Reserves wish a game for Saturday with a 75 or 80-pound team: Superior A. C. preferred. Address John Moore, room No. 401, Penn station, city.

The Turtle Creek Tigers claim the 70 to 80-pound championship, out of 14 games having won 12, lost 1 and tied 1. For games address Thomas Lynch, Turtle Creek, Pa.

The Riverside A. C. desire a home game with some strong 110-pound team Thanksgiving afternoon. Full expenses guaranteed. Address C. R. Landers, No. 509 California avenue, Allegheny, or 'phone No. 4 Brady.

The Pentonys A. C. and the Colonial A. C. will meet Saturday at Bayley's field. The following will report this evening without fail: Farrington, P. Rogan, Buck, Lash, Rontmus, J. Rogan, McCaffery, James, Gray, Thomas, Nichols and Berner.

The Mt. Washington Tigers play the Cruver Reserves from Carnegie on Saturday at Mt. Washington. Tiger players will practice Friday evening. Tigers want game for Thanksgiving with 70-pound team. Address J. A. Miller, 70 Prospect street, Mt. Washington.

Through the cancellation of the Marshall A. C. the Bellevue Outing club is without a game for Saturday, and any 90-pound team address William Pitt, 2008 Sarah street, Pittsburgh, or call 3750 Court between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., or 141-2 Bellevue between 6 and 7 p. m.

Basketball Dribbles.

Referee Little called 22 fouls, 10 on Manchester and 12 on Keystone. These penalties were chiefly for rough play.

South Side and Manchester will come together for the first time this season tomorrow night at the South Side gymnasium.

Steele played a great game at center for Homestead third, especially in the second half. His dribbling was a feature and helped considerably to tie the score.

On Monday night the South Side Turners will play at Manchester Turner hall against Manchester. The South Side boys have a strong team in line this season.

There was much excitement in the games at Manchester Turner hall Monday night. In the big game the score was tied several times, and it was anybody's game until the last minute.

The Manchester Juniors would like to arrange a game with the South Side third team for next Monday night, the game to be a preliminary to the South Side Turner-Manchester contest.

Lou Seibel was there to the minute last Monday night. He got one from field and six from foul, making eight out of the 18 points scored by Keystone. In the first half Louie threw four without a miss.

Yeager played a good game at guard for Keystone, scoring four goals from field to his opponent's three. Walliser and Metzkes stuck to C. Lutz like leeches, permitting him but one goal during the game.

The Railroad Juniors want games for their hall for Monday evenings and games away from home either Thursday or Friday evenings throughout the season. They will play the Crafton Juniors Monday evening, December 1. All 13-year teams address W. E. Gillespie, No. 237 East Jefferson street, Allegheny.

Arlington A. C. has organized for the season, and have signed several Primrose Reserve players of last season. The team will line up as follows: Sutton and Anderson, forwards; Patterson, center, with Causey and Fairman on the guards. Arlington A. C. would like to fill schedule with 13-year teams in Western Pennsylvania, with the following preferred: Riverview Reserves, Watson Juniors, Crafton Juniors, Sharpsburg Intermediates and the Mt. Oliver Juniors. For games, address H. R. Shorton, No. 601 West Jefferson street, Allegheny.

J. B. DUFF,
Who yesterday defeated R. Kester, the Edgewood Golf club's champion, by 7 up and 5 to play. Duff meets Jos. Hill in final 36-hole match for championship tomorrow.

PLAY AT ANN ARBOR.

Much Disputed Michigan-Minnesota Game Finally Disposed Of.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Nov. 20.—At 11 o'clock tonight Michigan university athletic board of control decided to paly the Michigan-Minnesota football game on Thanksgiving day in Ann Arbor on Perry field, instead of at Detroit. The reasons given for holding to Ann Arbor in spite of protests from Detroit and Minneapolis are greater conveniences and better accommodations for a crowd of 15,000 people, a better gridiron and utter impracticability of the Detroit field. Minnesota mildly advised playing at Detroit to the last but was overruled.

JIM JEFFORDS AND M'CORMICK SLOW.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—At the Broadway Athletic club tonight Jack McCormick of this city and Jim Jeffords of California sparred six very tame rounds. The bout went the limit without material damage to either man.

BROTHERHOOD MET.

St. Andrew Members Elect Officers for Next Year.

The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held last night in Trinity Parish house, Sixth avenue. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Charles S. Shoemaker; vice president Theodore M. Hepke; secretary, Thomas J. Danner; assistant secretary, Alan B. Wells; treasurer, Earnest H. McKinley; chaplin, the Rev. Dr. Earnest M. Paddock; executive committee, William Robbins, James Pottington, William A. Cornelius, Harvey H. Smith and G. H. Randall.

It was announced at the meeting last night that the anniversary sermon to the Brotherhood would be preached in Calvary church, Pittsburgh, on Tuesday evening, December 2, at 8 o'clock, by the Rev. Dr. George Hodges, dean of Cambridge Theological school, former rector of Calvary church. The annual corporate communion of the Brotherhood will be held in Trinity church next Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

CALLS IT A MURDER.

Coroner's Jury Investigates Cutting Affray in Schoenville.

The coroner's jury yesterday held an inquest into the death of Antony Spinelli, who bled to death as a result of a fight in a Schoenville boarding house, and brought in a verdict that his death was caused by a hemorrhage, the result of a gash from a knife in the hands of Luici Cosomo, proprietor of the house where the fight occurred. The jury recommended that Cosomo be apprehended and held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder.

Eleven Italians were arrested as witnesses and held upon a charge of disorderly conduct. Cosomo's whereabouts are not known. The prisoners were all returned to jail to await a hearing upon the disorderly conduct charge which grows out of the affair. Spinelli died on Sunday morning at the McKees Rocks hospital.

SUSPENDED MINERS' UNION.

Members of Organization Refused to Work With Italians.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Ohio Mine Workers association today suspended the union at Sclineville, Columbiana county. Secretary-Treasurer Savage has gone there to recover the charter and seal and it is announced the union may continue as an organization independent of the United Mine Workers of America.

The members of this union refused to work with three Italians, notwithstanding the fact that many of that nationality are members in good standing of other unions of this craft, and the result of the attempt on the part of the state officials to settle the trouble is the suspension of the union.

ROBBED A POSTOFFICE.

Officers Capture One of the Alleged Burglars at Warren, O.

WARREN, O., Nov. 20.—Two burglars robbed the postoffice at West Farmington early today, securing only a small sum of money and some stamps. They escaped on a freight train. Several officers armed with shot guns were in waiting when the freight arrived here.

One of the burglars jumped and escaped in the darkness, while the other was captured. He gave his name as Frank Howells, Johnstown, Pa. He had a pint of nitroglycerin, some drills and two revolvers on his person.

FOR FREE DELIVERY.

Preparation Being Made for the System at McKees Rocks.

Postmaster Charles Sutter of McKees Rocks is completing arrangements for free delivery in Esplen, Schoenville, Norwood, West Park and other districts of Stowe township. The free delivery will start about March 1, when it is expected the new postoffice will be finished.

The requisitions sent to Washington by Inspector C. E. Roberts provide for a sufficient force of carriers, office room and equipment to serve 20,000 people. According to the rule in vogue in establishing routes, 2,000 people are alloted to each carrier and 10 carriers will be required at McKees Rocks.

It doesn't require an artist to draw conclusions. Anyone can do it. There is only one to draw after you've smoked a MOGUL Cigarette, and that will be—the best you've ever smoked.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MOVE SUSPECTED

Amusement Company Seeks Charter Right to Acquire "Piece of Land for Park."

Much speculation has been raised in local sporting circles over the advertisement of application for charter for an amusement company which many connect with the promoters of an American league club in this city. The advertisement gives the name of the intended corporation as "The Pittsburgh Steeplechase and Amusement Company, the object of which is the acquiring of a piece or pieces of land for park or parks, and thereon to build, maintain and operate a mechanical steeplechase plant and other appliances for the amusement of the people; to furnish innocent entertainment and amusement by music and other means."

"The other means" can cover a great deal in the eyes of those who see a shrewd move of the American in this application for charter. The steeplechase is a style of amusement common in the east at Coney Island and Atlantic City. It will be remembered that the announcements of the intention of the establishing an American league club here stated that music and other entertainments would be provided in addition to baseball, if the property desired was obtained.

Several men connected with the application for charter were seen last night, but refused to talk upon the plans and intentions of the new company.

SHAFFER FAILS TO PROVE CASE

FIGHT ON SOCIALISM

That Faction Comes Within 400 of Securing Control of American Federation of Labor—An All-Day Battle.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20.—The Socialists came within 400 votes of securing the control of the American Federation of Labor today. The struggle lasted almost the entire day and many able speeches were made on both sides, notably those of D. A. Hayes, James Duncan and President Gompers against the Socialists, and Victor Berger, Max Hayes and W. D. Wilson of the United Mine Workers, in behalf of the resolution introduced by Delegate Berger and amended by Delegate Wilson, in a manner acceptable to Berger. The resolution would practically commit the Federation to Socialism. The debate lasted until 6 o'clock, when a roll call showed 4,734 votes against the amendment of Mr. Wilson, and 4,344 in favor of it. The miners voted solidly in favor of the amendment.

No business was transacted in the convention during the day, other than that of the debate and the report of the committee which investigated the Gompers-Shaffer trouble, which completely exonerates Gompers. The report was adopted.

J. Sheridan, who brought up in the convention the resolution which resulted in the investigation, was present at the hearing and was asked if it was true that Mr. Shaffer had made any charges before the last convention of the Iron, Steel and Tin Workers against Mr. Gompers, and he replied that he had. Mr. Shaffer denied it.

Mr. Sheridan offered to read the minutes of the meeting at which the charges were said by him were made. Mr. Shaffer objected to this, because the minutes were those of a secret meeting, and if read by Mr. Sheridan would involve him in trouble with his own organization for divulging the inner workings of the convention.

NEW PHILIPPINE PARTY.

It Is Called Democratic and Will Work for More Self-Government in Legislation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—The Democratic party" is the latest addition to the political organizations in the Philippines, according to advices received at the war department. Prominent Filipinos have identified themselves with the party, among them Gen. Luksan, who organized and led the insurgents on the island of Samar and who was in command of the insurgents at the time of the Balangiga massacre.

The new party will demand modification of the present administration in the Philippines so as to afford a greater degree of self-government; immediate establishment of two legislative chambers, both chambers to be elected in accordance with suffrage laws as they obtain in this country, and that the acts passed by the two chambers shall become laws without further action.

Advices indicate that during the closing days of September the cholera epidemic in the Philippines reached its lowest stage for many months. Only seven new cases and seven deaths from the disease occurred in Manila on Saturday and Sunday, September 27 and 28.

MUTINY ON A GUNBOAT.

Ship Captured by Dewey Bringing Forty-Eight of Her Crew in Irons.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—The Isla de Luzon, one of the Spanish gunboats captured at Manila by Admiral Dewey, is en route to New York with 48 of her men in irons.

The vessel, which has been doing guard duty in the Philippines for about three years, started recently for New York. On the trip to Singapore machinery on the boat shifted and caused a panic among the crew and a mutiny. The result was the placing of 48 of her crew in irons.

GOLDEN GATE TOURS.

Under the Personally-Conducted System of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

California and the Pacific coast resorts have become so popular in recent years with the better class of winter rest and pleasure seekers that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has decided to run two Golden Gate tours this winter, one to include the famous Mardi Gras spectacle at New Orleans. On the going trip both tours will travel by the Golden Gate special, one of the finest trains that crosses the continent. Those tours will return by this train, while passengers by the other and later tour will use regular trains returning. In California, passengers will be entirely at their own pleasure in the matter of itinerary, so that should a sufficiently large number of passengers desire to join in taking an itinerary suggested by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the services of a tourist agent and chaperon will be at their disposal.

The first tour will leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburgh and other points on Thursday, January 29, and will travel via Chicago, Kansas City and El Paso to Los Angeles and San Diego, arriving at the latter point February 2. An entire month may be devoted to visiting California resorts, the Golden Gate special leaving San Francisco on the return trip Tuesday, March 3, and returning via Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs and Denver. The rate for this tour will be $295 from Pittsburgh, covering all expenses of railroad transportation, including side trips in California, as well as berth and meals on the Golden Gate special going and returning. No hotel expenses in California are included. Tickets are good for return trip for nine months, excepting that passengers who do not return on the special must provide their own Pullman accommodations and meals eastbound.

Tour No. 2 will leave Tuesday, February 10, by the Golden Gate special, Cincinnati, Montgomery and Mobile will be visited en route to New Orleans, where the party will stay during the Mardi Gras festivities. The train will be sidetracked for occupancy during the three days spent in New Orleans. Stops will also be made at Beaumont, Tex.; Houston, Tex., San Antonio, and El Paso. The train will arrive at San Diego, February 28. So far as special train arrangements are concerned this tour will be completed at San Diego. Passengers may dispose of their time in California as they see fit. Should a sufficient number desire to take a suggested trip through California, the services of a tourist agent and chaperon will be placed at their disposal.

The rate for this tour will be $270 from Pittsburgh, covering all railroad transportation for the entire trip, including side trips in California, seat at the Mardi Gras festival and Pullman berth and all meals on the Golden Gate special from New York until arrival at San Diego.

Private compartments, i. e., drawing rooms or state rooms, may be obtained by the payment of additional charges on both tours. A detailed itinerary is in course of preparation, giving all information concerning these tours. Application should be made to George W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent, Broad Street station, Philadelphia, Pa.

MARKET SENTIMENT NOT SO BEARISH

Call Money Easier and Offerings of Time Money Larger---New York Traction Shares Higher, Local Market Firmer.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

Sentiment in Wall street at the close of the market yesterday was not so bearish as it has been. The change was possibly due to the easier tendency for call money, which ranged between 3½ and 4½ per cent, and the free offerings of time money at 7 per cent. The day before time loans were quoted strong at 7 per cent, and in some instances—probably where collateral and margin were not entirely satisfactory—bids of 8 per cent failed to obtain the accommodation. Yesterday, however, there were larger offerings at 7 per cent than for some time past. The high rates are apparently again attracting money from the interior. Foreign exchange was steady to firm, but a sharp advance in the Paris rate more than offset the firmer rates here, and the consequence was that gold exports are apparently farther away than they were a week ago. Another favorable factor was the decline in wheat and corn at Chicago, which was followed by a better export demand for grain, and the clearances for the day of wheat and flour amounted to 659,200 bushels. The weekly statement of the Bank of France was also favorable, showing an increase of about $1,500,000 gold on hand, an increase of $600,000 silver and an increase in bills discounted of $7,000,000. The weekly statement of the Bank of England was not so favorable, showing a decrease of about 1 per cent in reserve, and there was withdrawn from the bank yesterday $2,150,000 gold for shipment to South America. The minimum rate of discount, however, remained unchanged at 4 per cent. There was some talk that tomorrow's New York bank statement might again make a much more favorable showing than expected, for while customs collections continue large, the net loss to the banks so far this week, in their operations with the sub-treasury, has amounted to only $238,000. The outlook does not by any means favor an easy money market, but with everybody preparing for a flurry next month, and with the public's dealings in the stock market greatly reduced, it looks as though the end-of-the-year requirements were being anticipated, and that no serious disturbance will occur.

Whatever the real condition of the money market, the stock market demonstrated that the Gould interests had apparently no difficulty in supplying their needs. The Gould specialties were again the strongest and most active in the market, and Manhattan and Missouri Pacific were conspicuous leaders in the day's dealings. There was considerable mystery surrounding the traction situation, and even at the close of the market the street was uncertain as to whether the upward movement of the past four days was due entirely to shorts covering, or whether an important deal was being negotiated for a consolidation of all the rapid transit interests of Greater New York. Manhattan opened at 150, broke to 147¾ and advanced to 154¾, a new record price, closing at 152⅝. Metropolitan and Brooklyn Rapid Transit were not so active as on the day before, and did not retain their early gains. During the midday session there were heavy dealings in New York Central, which tended to strengthen the theory that this company had something to do with the movement in the tractions. The railroad list did not sympathize with the strength in the leaders until toward the later part of the day. The action of the leading railway companies, however, in agreeing upon an advance in freight rates, which it is estimated will average 15 per cent in order to make good the recent 10 per cent advance in wages, entirely robbed the latter action of the effect which the "bears" sought to attach to it. In addition to this, one of the anthracite coal companies announced a further advance of 50 cents a ton on hard coal, making a total advance of $1 a ton over the prices quoted during the strike. These incidents demonstrated that the general public and not the shareholder in the various corporations would foot the bill, and so long as business remains good there would be no serious decrease in the amount of net earnings applicable to dividends. In the late dealings the entire railway list became firmer, and Reading and St. Paul were leaders in the advance. It was natural that the short interest in Amalgamated Copper should become nervous, and that stock advanced 2 points. The close was not at the highest prices, but generally showed net gains for the day.

In the local stock market the movements of a few specialties relieved the monotony of the day. Westinghouse Electric was strong, advancing from 98½ to 100, following a rise in the east, which was apparently based upon the announcement that the company had been successful over British and German competition in securing the contract for the equipment of the subway stations of the London district railway. The stock reacted from the highest price, but closed 2½ above the previous day. The other Westinghouse stocks were entirely neglected. Window Glass common, which had remained extremely dull around 51½ @51¾, until late in the session became quite strong and jumped to 53½ at the close, a net gain of 2 per cent. The advance was based upon the report that a final agreement had been reached with the jobbers' association whereby the latter would handle the products of the three manufacturing combinations, thereby assuring higher average prices for the product. Philadelphia Company preferred in the face of the fine October statement, declined to 48¾, while the common was nominally quoted at 46¾@46¼. The steel stocks were quieter than for some time past. Not a single share of Crucible common changed hands all day, and less than 200 shares of the preferred sold at 84, the stock closing at 83¾@84½. United States Steel sold to the extent of 500 shares at 36⅝@36⅜, closing offered at 36⅞, while 220 shares of the preferred sold at 83¾@84, closing at 83¾ bid. A block of 1,000 shares of River Coal common changed hands at 10, and smaller lots at 10@10⅛. The preferred sold at 39@39½. Pittsburgh Coal common closed a shade higher at 28⅛, while the preferred declined to 87½, closing at that price bid. Fire Proofing preferred was stronger, advancing from 37 to 37¾, and the common was fractionally higher at 25⅝. Brewing common sold off to 30¼, but recovered to 30½. There was nothing doing in the preferred, but the bonds were fractionally higher at 112¼.

The principal feature of the banking list was the recovery in American Trust. The stock opened 3 points higher at 145, advanced steadily to 149½, a net gain of 7½, and closed at the top price. Pennsylvania Trust continued to decline on light transactions, 50 shares selling at 282½, a decline of 5 for the day. There were no transactions in Safe Deposit and Trust, but the stock was strong, advancing to 112⅜, or about 2 points above the price at which a considerable amount of the stock has been marketed within the past two months. Colonial Trust sold unchanged at 580, Real Estate was a fraction higher at 287½, and South Side Trust advanced 1 per cent to 101.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Bank for Secured Savings was higher at 88 bid.

Buying of Amalgamated Copper yesterday was said to be of a good quality.

The gross earnings of Panhandle for the second week in November increased $10,193.

The General Chemical Company will pay a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock on December 1.

The Fourth National bank of Pittsburgh has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent, payable forthwith.

North American Savings closed at 130@ 132½; Colonial Trust, 580 bid; South Side Trust, 100½@101½.

The encouraging feature of yesterday's market was that declines did not bring liquidation and advances brought buying orders.

The Adams Express Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of $2 a share and an extra dividend of $1, payable January 2.

Pressure to sell St. Paul was considerably relaxed yesterday, but the recent erratic course of the stock discouraged investment buying.

S. S. Pinkerton bought a block of 1,000 shares River Coal common at 10. Sproul & Co. sold. Lawrence & Co. sold $10,000 Pittsburgh Brewing 6s to Long.

Mr. John Caldwell has been elected vice president of the Merchants and Manufacturers National bank to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. George A. Kelly.

For the first time in weeks the day passed in the local market without a public transaction in Crucible Steel common. The stock was quoted at 19¼ bid, 19½ asked.

The Westinghouse Company has secured the contract for the equipment of the electric sub-stations in London of the District railway. The figure is understood to be £300,000.

The directors of the National Lead Company have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable December 15 to stock of record November 28.

A dividend of $65 a share, being the first in the voluntary liquidation of the Citizens National bank, has been absorbed by the Union Trust Company, will be paid December 1.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of Pittsburgh chapter, American Institute of Bank Clerks, will be held Tuesday evening, November 25. Mr. H. S. McKinley will discuss "Payments of Deposits."

Lehigh Valley for September shows a decrease of $800,000 in gross earnings and reports a deficit of $307,600. For the year ending September 30 the deficit, after charges, was $500,000.

The rumor was repeated yesterday that a large Wall street commission house will dissolve partnership at the end of the year. It is reported that some of the recent selling of securities has been in anticipation of that event.

Among the railroads, New York Central was a strong feature, with a gain of about three points, this advance being caused by the announcement that the company will refund a large amount of its bonds on a lower interest bearing basis.

The Wall street news bureau announced that a contract has been signed by which Manhattan is leased to the Interborough Transit Company. Manhattan to get its own earnings for the first two years and 7 per cent guaranteed on its stock thereafter.

Persons who keep tab on such operations calculate that some interest has acquired 600 or 700 shares Pittsburgh Safe Deposit and Trust stock within the past two months around 110. Yesterday the stock advanced to 112⅜ bid, and thirty were no offerings at the close.

A Wall street commission house mentioned the following securities as probably carrying the smallest risk on the buying side: Baltimore & Ohio common and preferred, Rock Island preferred and bonds, Union Pacific preferred, Norfolk & Western common and Metropolitan.

Control of the Railways Company General has been sold by the Investment Company of Philadelphia to a group of Philadelphia and New York financiers. The purpose of the buyers is to develop and extend the properties and operated by means of additional capital. The price at which control was purchased was not announced.

The window glass trade situation is said to be this: The jobbers have agreed to take the output of the combinations, which, with the exception of 110 pots, includes the entire capacity of the country. The minimum amount which will be taken is estimated at 5,000,000 boxes, and the average price, now that peace has been restored, will be higher than the average price last year.

At the close of the market yesterday Holman bid 480 for the privilege of calling 50 shares American Trust at $200 a share at any time within the next 90 days. Quick as a flash R. C. Hall offered $5 to any one who could tell the name which the corporation will be known by from this date. There are probably a score of other bankers who would be willing to pay more for the same information, the general impression being that the recent advance and rapid fluctuations in the stock foreshadow a deal involving the absorption of the American.

According to their recent statements, the average reserve held by state banks and trust companies of Pittsburgh is about 15½ per cent. Several of the larger concerns have a reserve ranging from 18 to 25 per cent. Stock would reduce these averages of the smaller ones considerably below the average as a whole. More than 50 per cent of the total reserve represent deposits in national banks. The latter, according to their September statements, held less than 21 per cent, being $4,720,000 below the requirements. This will account for the stringency prevailing in the local money market, and it will also account for the calling of loans two or three weeks ago, when the national banks were engaged in restoring their reserve requirements.

Speaking of the demand for coal properties and the enhancement in the value of the same that has taken place in the past two or three years, a Pittsburgh man familiar with the business said: "There must have been a remarkable appreciation in the value of the acreage acquired by the two local combinations. The last annual report of the Pittsburgh Coal Company showed that the company owned more than 150,000 acres of coal and. The bulk of this acreage was acquired three years ago when the company was undergoing organization. Recent transactions in coal acreage contiguous to that controlled by the two combinations have been closed at prices from $100 to $200 an acre above the asking price three or four years ago. I have heard of transactions in fourth pool acreage at prices about double that paid by the River Coal combination for acreage in the lower pools. The lands owned and controlled by both combinations could probably not be duplicated today for double the prices paid two and three years ago. Both companies have anticipated their needs for years to come and in the case of the Pittsburgh Coal Company this anticipation of future requirements has been extremely large."

300 FEET IN WOODLAND ROAD BROUGHT $40,000

New Homestead Co. Invests $41,000---Fifth Avenue Property Sold for $30,000---Big Warehouse Planned for Forbes Street.

By the sale to the Hon. James R. McFarland of 300 feet of Woodland road frontage yesterday George Bros. closed out one of the finest tracts of residence property ever marketed in Pittsburgh. The plot which Judge McFarland secured is 200 feet deep, is situated in the west side of the street near Wilkins avenue and brought $40,000, or $133 a front foot. It adjoins the A. M. Neeper residence and is near the properties of W. H. Schoen, William Metcalf, Jr., Maj. Laughlin and Col. E. J. Stackhouse. The property belonged to W. D. George and was the last parcel of a tract of six acres known as the Henry C. Fownes property which he purchased a little over a year ago. The entire plot has a frontage of about 1,000 feet in Woodland road and was sold to the following parties: A. M. Neeper, William Metcalf, Jr., Capt. G. W. McCallum, A. R. Frasier and Judge McFarland. Three of the purchasers have already started to build or announced their intention of building handsome residences, and the section promises to be a very desirable home district. Judge McFarland's purchase was made purely for an investment.

Homestead Company Investing.

The Fidelity Realty Company of Homestead has purchased from J. William Barnes two apartment houses at the southeast corner of Third avenue and Amity street, Homestead, for $25,000. The buildings are three-story bricks, contain six flats each and rent for $2,050 a year. The same company has secured an option on 18 lots, 30x100 feet each, in Munhall borough. The lots are valued at $1,000 each, and will be improved with 18 houses to cost $3,500 each. This company was recently organized with a nominal capital, all paid in, of $25,000, which is to be increased to $100,000 in the near future. The officers are William Barnes, president, and H. H. Hervey, secretary and treasurer.

The Edward E. Rieck Company, milk dealers, has purchased from William C. and George H. Fischer a property 58x100 feet at the southwest corner of Stevenson and Ann streets, Sixth ward, for $16,400. The lot has erected on it two old brick houses. The property is directly in the rear of the present plant of the company at the corner of Forbes and Stevenson streets and was bought, it is said, with a view to building a large addition to the present quarters.

John Bergmann has sold to Sophia Dunlay a property 100x150 feet at the corner of Eugenia Pl. and Stanwix avenue, Thirty-eighth ward, for $10,500.

Clifford S. McCleary has purchased from Annie D. Robinson a tract of 10.5 acres in Robinson township for $12,600.

A $30,000 Sale Over the Hump.

The articles of agreement were signed yesterday in the sale of an improved property, 20x120 feet, in the south side of Fifth avenue near Magee street, the consideration being $30,000, or $1,500 a front foot. The deal was made by the Aronson Realty Company, but the title to the transaction was withheld by request of the principals until the deeds are delivered.

E. E. Durell is about to place upon the market at Wheeling a desirable plot of residence property which is owned by the Suburban Improvement Company of that city. The property consists of 20 acres and was purchased a short time ago from E. S. Thompson for $120,000. It is situated two miles south of Wheeling and directly across Wheeling creek from Leatherwood. Plans are completed for a 200 foot boulevard to run along the creek bank and will be finished in the spring. Other improvements.

The plot is on the Glen Grove car line and will be divided into one acre lots which will be marketed as soon as the improvements are completed.

The Commercial Building Company, which is an outgrowth of the Mortgage Banking Company, is starting the erection of 12 more frame houses in the Grace park plan in Elliott borough. They will be owned by Anthony Schaub, the commission merchant, and will cost $2,000 each. This makes a total of 62 houses which this company now has under way in Elliott, most of which are built on lots 25x100 feet each, facing in Marion and Williams streets.

Will Build a 12 Story Warehouse.

Architect F. C. Sauer is preparing plans for the warehouse which the Shanahan Transfer Company will build in the north side of Forbes street near Magee street. The building will be a 12-story brick structure, 108x120 feet, and will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000. Bids will be received about December 20.

Plans are being prepared in the office of Architects A. Dudgeon & Son, Wilkinsburg, for a three-story brick apartment house at the corner of Larimer avenue and Orpan street. The building will belong to Adam Lutz and will cost $16,000. The same architects have plans for a three-story brick flat, 22x60 feet, which will be built for Ignelzi at No. 5 Everett street at a cost of $5,000. They are also taking bids on the three-story flat of W. J. Adams, which is estimated to cost $5,000.

Architect D. S. Sheridan has forwarded the plans for the school building to be erected for the Brainerd Institute at Chester, S. C. The building will cost $8,000.

J. J. Neff is preparing to build three $5,000 brick houses on the Wesley plan in Wilkinsburg. The houses will face in North avenue and will cost $5,000 each.

All in Wilkinsburg.

R. S. McDowell & Co. sold for Mrs. Anna Hackett to Charles P. Smith a frame house, lot 38x120, in the south side of Biddle avenue, near Trenton avenue, for $5,500; for S. S. Watson to J. D. Lewis a frame house, lot 32x120 feet, in the south side of Whitney street, near Center street, for $3,400; for Mrs. Rose Wilson to Miss M. Stoner a brick house, lot 23x110 feet, in the north side of Franklin street, near Coal street; Edgewood, for $3,400; for G. W. Hackett to Charles Henderson a lot 40x120 feet in the south side of Franklin street, Edgewood, for $1,400; for Mrs. Mary Fleeger to Mary Heck a 10-room brick house, lot 34x100 feet, in the west side of Pitt street, near Kelly avenue, for $6,000.

Cox & Donald sold for Jacob Staley to Philip Sauer, No. 911 Wallace avenue, a brick house, lot 30x125 feet, for $4,000; for Dushane a brick house, lot 30x110 feet, in the south side of Kelly avenue, near West street, for $5,400.

E. Hallett sold to Robert L. Cunningham, No. 918 Ohio street, Allegheny, a 9-room brick house, lot 25x865 feet, for $4,800.

John Wesley sold for Mrs. Eliza Clemens to August Wesley a lot 50x90 feet in the west side of Hunter street, near Maple avenue, for $1,200; to J. J. Brown a lot 50x100 feet in the west side of Wyman street, near Hill street, Wesley's plan, for $1,200; to Burgess Bros. a lot 50x60 feet in the south side of North avenue, near Diamond street, for $900. The buyers will build two $3,000 brick houses.

The late weakness in wheat caused some selling and the close was steady at the lower figures. Local receipts were 167 cars, with five of contract grade.

There was a renewal of activities in oats and prices had a range of ¼c, an innovation of some note in this pit. The close was steady. Local receipts were 102 cars.

There was a fair trade in provisions and after a firm opening there was a decline on realizing by longs and under the influence of break in grains.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 70 cars; corn, 115 cars; oats, 105 cars; hogs, 20,000 head.

DOVENER WILL SPEAK.

Accepts Invitation for Chamber of Commerce Banquet.

Secretary George H. Anderson of the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce has received a letter from Congressman B. B. Dovener of West Virginia, accepting an invitation to speak at the chamber of commerce banquet, at the Hotel Schenley next Tuesday evening. His subject will be "Inland Waterways." President M. B. Berry of Indianapolis will make an address on "The National Manufacturers' Association." President L. F. Loree of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad will make an address on "Railroads," and Congressman John Dalzell will act as toastmaster.

Arrangements have been made for about 200 guests at the banquet. A reception will be held in the Schenley parlors from 7 to 7:30 and the banquet will immediately follow.

Changes in Tin Plate Officials.

Some changes in the officials of the American Tin Plate Company, reported from Richmond, Ind., result from the resignation of William Banfield, who has been in charge of the valley district. Mr. Banfield has resigned on account of ill health. On December 1 he will be succeeded by Isenbold Goldsmith, now in charge of the Indiana district, and Mr. Goldsmith will be succeeded by Charles W. Bennett, who has been district engineer of the Indiana district.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Coffee futures opened steady, with prices 5 points higher, being influenced by reports of continued light receipts and advance in foreign speculative markets. Moderate general buying developed on the call, led by shorts, offsetting the pressure of bear leaders. As the session advanced demand increased, prices steadily worked upward, helped in the early afternoon by a cable from Santos stating that the Brazilian crop would figure about 25,407 bags, until a net gain of 10@15 points was shown. Europe, commission houses and spot interests were all active buyers on the rise. Late in the session Bowling Green brokers sold the market down sharply, assisted more or less by profit-taking sales of longs, final figures being net unchanged to 5 points higher, with the undertone steady. Total sales for the day were 95,250 bags, including November, 4.85c; December, 4.80@4.85c; January, 4.90@4.95c; February, 4.85@5.05c; March, 5.10@5.15c; May, 5.25@5.35c; June, 5.30c; July, 5.40c; August, 5.45c; September, 5.50c; October, 5.55c.

REFINED SUGAR AGAIN ADVANCES

Flour Prices Ten Cents Higher. Cabbage Lower With Selling Very Slow.

The action of the Pennsylvania Company in placing an embargo on hay and grain shipments has already made its influence felt in the local market, where, although there has been little or no change in nominal quotations as yet, sellers are much more bullish in their talk and firmer in the holdings. It will not take many days to clean up all stock now here and en route, and with no further consignments being received at any point east or west for Pittsburgh delivery, the situation will rapidly take on additional strength. A decided advance is expected in timothy hay, and shrewd observers have already commenced to reach out for stock, buying such lots as can be secured at present ruling figures. Brokers show no disposition to sell, however, as they still make more money by holding on to what stock is in their hands, rather than let it go at such prices as they would obtain at the moment. For this reason as much as any other there was not a great deal offering yesterday, and some quick sales were made of anything desirable that was put up for sale.

Flour and Sugar Advance.

Two important changes were made in prices of grocery staples. On Wednesday evening jobbers advanced sugar one point to 5 cents the barrel, and yesterday local jobbers, while not following this advance in its entirety, added 10 cents to Pittsburgh selling figures. Any further mills made the advance is a matter of speculation only, as no one seems to possess positive information. It is claimed by millers that they are compelled to sell millfeed at such low rates, on account of the lack of demand incident to the warm weather, that they are forced to make up the difference by charging more for flour. It is a fact that there is little or no millfeed in the big country there is still some pasturage, kept alive by the warm rains, and live stock is taking advantage of it as long as it lasts. If this is the true explanation of the flour advance it should be a decline with colder weather, for there is plenty of wheat. Refined sugar was advanced 10 points yesterday morning, making two advances this week, and putting quotations back to where they were before the declines of two weeks ago. No reason is assigned for this action, but it is supposedly due to the removal of the western competition which was a factor in the situation at the time of the decline.

May Affect Coffee Prices.

Jobbers are advising the trade to watch for an advance in coffee, which is expected, by some, as imminent. This opinion is based upon the recent destruction of coffee plantations in Guatamala, and that the market should respond to this curtailment of supplies seems natural. Another and also good and sufficient cause assigned for the recent decline in package coffee other than that of keen competition. Higher grades of coffee have been maintained and firm, and the ones which will be particularly affected by the Guatamala destruction. Product of that country grades favorably with best Santos and Rio, and with Java.

Some improvement is noticed in sales of canned tomatoes, but they are not moving with the vigor which might naturally be expected from the season. On the whole, the market looks as though the trade might have been permanently injured by the high prices demanded last winter and which still control the situation. Consumers will use fewer and fewer tomatoes, and they will do so rather than pay exorbitant figures. Canned corn, however, is in excellent demand, and sells freely at the advances noted.

Only Fancy Apples Wanted.

Dried fruits are in growing request and are in fine condition. Peaches and apples of exceptionally fine appearance and flavor are selling at prices ranging more than 2 cents a pound below quotations prevailing a year ago. Selected dried apples are in demand for pie purposes, as the mince pie and fruit cake season approaches, and prices are unchanged.

In the fresh fruit market there is no difference in quotations as compared with those of yesterday morning. Apples are still heavy and slow of sale, except very fancy. The accumulation is being steadily reduced, however, and the outlook is for stronger markets. Concord grapes are offering in small and occasional lots, while Catawbas are more plentiful. There is little call for cranberries but the weather is too warm for their rapid movement; this fruit is running smaller in size this season, but is of good color and sound. Pears continue heavy on old prices, and have some sale, but are kept quiet by the apple situation, which depresses all fruit lines.

Cabbage Market Heavy.

Potatoes hold their own, although some low grade western stock is arriving which does not compare favorably with shipments from nearer points, and has to be sold at prices below the ruling figures for fancy stock. Sweet potatoes are firm and unchanged. The cabbage market is in bad condition on account of heavy arrivals, many of which are inferior, and are sold for whatever the buyer chooses to pay. Quotations are lower on account of this, and the fact that the consumptive trade has not yet commenced to take hold of cabbage with any activity, and selling is slow.

Poultry and game is steadier, with some slight increase in demand for live turkeys, geese and ducks. Imported grouse are lower, and squirrels and rabbits are in large supply at easier prices.

Butter is very firm at the advanced prices, and cheese is scarce enough to cause apprehension as to the future. One manufacturer stated in a letter to a local jobber that casualty at this time of the year he has 1,000 boxes in storage, but that he is without any stored now, and all he has on his shelves is sold ahead. The egg market was practically cleaned up yesterday, and dealers predict a much higher range of prices inside of the next two or three days for select stock, unless liberal arrives from some source at present unknown.

WESTERN UNION'S NEW MOVE IN TELEGRAPH WAR

Asks United States Court's Permission to File $100,000 Bond to Indemnify Pennsylvania Railroad for Use of Property.

Attorney A. M. Nesper, acting for the Western Union Telegraph Company, yesterday presented a petition in the United States circuit court asking permission to file a $100,000 bond to indemnify the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for compensation for the use of the right of way of the railroad company, on which the telegraph company is maintaining its poles and wires. The move is another step in the suit between the big corporations, which promises a long drawn out legal contest.

The railroad company served notice on the telegraph company for the latter company to remove its poles and lines before December 1, and the object of the bond is to avert a clash of the employes after the expiration of the six months' notice, and to prevent any forcible removal of the lines and poles.

The Western Union Telegraph Company bases its claims to operate along the Pennsylvania railroad right of way on contracts which it claims are still in force, and grants by the United States government to the railroad company, which makes it a public servant with obligations to similar concerns. An offer of the bond was rejected by George V. Massey, the newly appointed general solicitor of the Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia last week. The court has fixed next Wednesday for a hearing of the case.

In the United States district court, United States Marshal Stephen P. Stone was directed by the court to arrest Margaret Vallatto of Turtle Creek on the charge of contempt of court. It is alleged that while a petition in bankruptcy was pending against her, she sold a stock of goods, preferring a certain creditor and also failed to file a schedule of her liabilities.

Adolph Roth of Pittsburgh is liable to be attached for contempt of court. It is alleged he refused to pay over certain money to the trustee in bankruptcy in his case.

Objections have been filed to the discharge of J. S. Jiles from bankruptcy. It is alleged that he kept his place open and did business to the extent of $80 per day during a period when he knew he was insolvent. It is also alleged he is the possessor of diamonds and other jewelry amounting to $1,000, which he failed to turn over to the trustee in bankruptcy.

Robert C. Moorehead, a physician of Ford City, filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday. His liabilities amount to $1,075 and his assets $214.

Benjamin Silverman, a truckster of Pittsburgh asks to be declared a bankrupt. His debts aggregate $3,098 15 and his assets $165, which he claims is exempted.

In the United States circuit court the case of Minerva Tridell vs. William M. Munhall, administrator for Patrick H. Munhall, was on trial before Judge Archbald, while the case of Smith & Benham against Curran & Hussey, occupied the time in Judge Buffington's court.

DENY FURNACE IS BAD.

Contractor Says Jones & Laughlin's Appliances Are Equal to Any in the Country.

The case for the defense in the equity suits of E. R. Sullivan and others against the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company was opened yesterday afternoon. The action, which is to restrain the company from operating the Eliza furnace on Second avenue without perpetrating a nuisance by the emission of ore dust, is attracting considerable attention.

The defense called John B. Miles, one of the contractors who built the furnaces. He considered the furnaces equal to any in the country, and also declared he personally knew of no appliances that would prevent the issuance of ore dust. Upon cross-examination he said that such appliances exist, but he could not say whether or not they are successful. He did not think there is a practical method, because it is not safe to confine the gases that cause the "slips."

The witness said the pressure of the slips is affected by the material used, and that it is higher by reason of the ore being pulverized. He also declared the amount of the blast has no effect on the force of the explosion. As to the escape of the ore dust, the witness said, it issues from the different doors, from the chimneys and also from the space about the gas valves. The principal part goes out through the exposion doors.

During the morning session Councilman James J. Booth was called for the plaintiffs. He said that when he returned from Europe in 1901, and saw the condition of his plants about his lawn his "heart sank." He said his lawn appeared as if it had been bronzed, that everything was ruined, and that the ore dust was so thick on the trees and shrubbery that it could not grow. It was also testified that the value of property had decreased, and that also, on account of the ore dust, tenants moved as soon as they could get more suitable places.

Prof. F. C. Aschman, a chemist, was called. He said an analysis of the ore dust contained 75 per cent of iron ore, which had a tendency to choke up the breathing pores of the leaves, producing asphyxiation and death. The dust is not corrosive unless accompanied by other matter, and that sulphur fumes would have this effect. He was not allowed to answer a question as to what effect the dust would have on tin roofs if accompanied by decaying leaves. The case will be continued today.

FRAUD IS CHARGED.

Agent Charged With Misrepresentation in a Property Transaction. Accounting Asked.

A bill in equity was filed yesterday by William M. Saunders against Samuel A. Dixon. The court is asked to restrain the defendant from conveying an interest held in property at Nos. 1932-34 Fifth avenue to any other person except the plaintiff that Dixon be ordered to convey the title to the plaintiff and make an accounting.

The plaintiff says it was at the defendant's suggestion that he purchased the property from Charles and Elizabeth Burkhartz and at the time the deal was closed he gave Dixon a check for $500, to be applied to the consideration, which, it is said, Dixon claimed was $18,000. Saunders declares that Dixon represented that he had paid the Burkharts $2,700 to bind the bargain and that he said he had agreed to pay the balance before July 1, 1902. He also states that he paid Dixon $900 and that, after a $14,000 mortgage had been placed upon the property, he gave him $900 more.

The plaintiff says that during the entire transaction the defendant fraudulently and repeatedly represented that the consideration had been $18,000, whereas the plaintiff has been informed and believes it was only $16,000, and that the defendant never paid anything on it. The plaintiff also says the Burkharts never received more than $500 hand money, that the alleged receipt for $2,700 was fraudulent, and that since the transaction the defendant has collected the rents from the property without rendering an accounting.

BARTON GETS PARDON.

Allegheny Lawyer, Convicted of Embezzlement, Will Be Released from Workhouse.

Attorney L. C. Barton, serving a sentence of six months in the workhouse for embezzlement, was pardoned yesterday. Barton was convicted of failing to turn over money to his sister-in-law. The money was refunded. He took an appeal to the superior and supreme courts, but the lower court was sustained. A number of prominent Pittsburgh politicians wrote letters to the pardon board in behalf of Barton. Nicholas Martin of Allegheny, convicted of illegal liquor selling was also pardoned.

Frank Killien, now serving a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Paul Rudert at Tarentum, failed to receive clemency. The woman was shot during an attempt to rob a jewelry store on Christmas eve, 12 years ago. Two other men connected with the murder were brought to trial. Charles Owens, the Emsworth man who was shot and blinded while trying to rob Wagner's grocery store at Ben Avon, was also refused a pardon.

WILLS FILED FOR PROBATE.

Letters Taken Out on Several Small Estates.

The will of A. K. McWilliams of Pittsburgh was filed. The paper reads: "In case I should suddenly die, it is my wish that everything belonging to me shall go to my wife. She shall be executrix of my estate without bond." The estate is valued at $10,000.

Register F. W. Edwards held a hearing upon the caveat filed against the will of E. K. Best by his widow. The register also held a hearing on the petition of Elizabeth R. Maxwell for a citation on the heirs of W. H. Bassett, requiring them to show cause why letters of administration should not be granted to her.

Attorney George J. Kambach, representing Jacob Knoell, took out letters of administration on the estate of Louis Knoell, valued at $5,000.

Louisa Hartman, through Attorney H. L. King, took out letters on the estate of Philip Hartman, worth $700.

SAYS WARD IS WILLFUL.

D. H. Brown Answers Petition for Change of Allowance.

Answer was filed yesterday by D. Howard Brown to the petition of his ward, Miss Lottie McIntosh, one of the legatees under the will of the late Laughlin McIntosh. Recently Miss McIntosh asked orphans' court to change her guardian's method of dealing out her allowance.

The guardian says that it is untrue that Miss McIntosh's estate will net her $1,200 a year, but avers the net income is about $1,000, which is not available for her support and education except by order of court.

Mr. Brown says "that the petitioner is willful and refuses to obey respondent; that he has had great trouble to have her board where he requested her to board; to-wit, in respectable places, and has had difficulty in having her go with respectable company; that he is ready and willing to comply with the said order of this court or any other order that the court make and that he has followed the said order of court to the very best of his judgment and ability.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

A petition was filed for the exclusive use of the name "Citizens Party" in Knoxville at the coming election.

Application was made for a new trial in the contest over the will of Wilhelmina Leker. A jury sustained the will.

Judge Over heard the arguments of counsel in the contest over the estate of John Charles, deceased. The proceedings were on the claim of Nancy McCrackin's heirs for a portion of the estate.

Pauline Geduling sued Mrs. Louise Graham, wife of a Thirty-second avenue hotel proprietor, for $3,000 damages for slander. It is charged the defendant accused the plaintiff of stealing $5.

An answer was filed yesterday in the divorce case of George Zipay against Elizabeth Zipay. The respondent says that her husband left her because he claimed he had fallen in love with another girl.

The county commissioners yesterday considered plans for the interior furnishing of the new morgue. No especial appointments were decided upon, but when a decision is reached bids will be advertised for.

The case of Julia A. Gordon against Moon township is on trial. The plaintiff seeks to recover damages for being injured by falling over an embankment. At the first trial she was awarded $5,000 damages, and at the second, $5,000.

Judge Frazer dismissed the exceptions in the case of the West Side Belt railroad and others against Margaret Smith. The action consisted of exceptions to a bond filed by the railroad company for the purpose of condemning property owned by the defendant. The question was raised as to the right of the company to take the property. The court says that such a question cannot be considered on exceptions to a bond where it appears that the company has the right of eminent domain.

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

—Thieves broke into the pool room of Michael Britt in Millvale on Wednesday night and smashed open the money box, taking $28 in small change.

—Thomas Rodgers, 10 years old, dropped dead while walking in South Eighteenth street near Monastery place, last evening. He was troubled with heart disease.

—David Edwards sold yesterday to Lynn Lawson the Germania hotel property in Eighth avenue, Homestead, for $25,000. Mr. Lawson will tear down the hotel and build a three-story brick building.

—William Stahl of Wilson station died last night in the McKeesport hospital of injuries received on Tuesday by a beam falling on him in the Monongahela tube works. He was 50 years old and married.

—C. R. Lunta, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon in the yard at Thirty-third street. He was taken to the West Penn hospital and late last night was still unconscious.

—The Millvale police have been notified that James Barrett, a millworker living on Stanton avenue, disappeared from his home nearly a week ago. Barrett worked at Howe & Brown Company's mill, Pittsburgh, until 5 p. m. Saturday, and then left, without drawing his week's wages. He has not been seen since. He is married, is 37 years old, and has a wife and seven children.

TARIFF INQUIRY, THEN TINKERING

President Roosevelt Will Lead Conservatives Against Hasty Revision.

COMMISSION IN ORDER

It Will Be Time Enough to Doctor Schedules Early in 1904, After That Proposed Body Submits a Report to Congress.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
603 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.

It was said today by a member of congress who is in close touch with the administration that there would be no alteration of the tariff schedules at the approaching session. Tariff revision will be advocated by many members, but the president and the conservative element of congress will take the stand that the subject is one for mature consideration, and not for hasty action.

Consequently, it is generally believed that the president, in his message, will advocate the appointment of a commission to thoroughly investigate the subject and make such recommendations as seem wise in the light of the evidence that is brought forward. If such a commission is proposed by President Roosevelt, it will be appointed at this session and will have nearly a year in which to go over the tariff bill in detail and find the defects, if any exist.

Assuming that the commission will be prepared to report at the opening of the Fifty-eighth congress, it would require at least a month in which to put through any amendment to the present tariff bill. This makes it reasonably certain that the present tariff schedules will remain unchanged until 1904, at the earliest.

There is no inclination in the Republican party to dodge responsibility for the tariff measure now in force, neither is there any disposition to deny the possibility of needed revision; but the conservative element in congress, led by President Roosevelt himself, will not consent to tariff tinkering merely for political effect or to soothe the temper of radical revisionists, of whatever faith they may be. Revision, if there is to be such, must be done on a broad business basis and with the protective principle of the Republican party ever in view. Neither must prejudice against corporations be permitted to enter into the matter.

Already there is talk here that an active campaign for tariff revision is to be opened as soon as congress meets and an effort be made to pass an amendment at this session; but these plans, no doubt, will be modified to a large extent by the suggestions contained in the president's message.

Our lower Penn Avenue window has a special exhibit of these Panels, while the full collection and the larger pieces may be seen in the 5th floor Drapery Department. They are a delightful study. They are perfect in outline, as well as in detail. Some of them are large enough to be discussed in connection with the decorating of the walls in new homes about to be built.

Many of the smaller ones we have framed and they are fit to grace any room in the house.

Unmounted Panels, 60c to $75.

Framed Panels, $3.50 to $40.

Photograph Frames.

We show the largest and most complete variety of fine Photograph Frames in these cities. The choicest products of European and domestic art metal workers, the most exquisite finishes, the little details of superior workmanship, converge to form what is most desirable—perfection. Every size, every shape.

Miniature	$ .50	to	$ 1.00
Carte d'Visite	.75	to	1.50

Round, square, oval and oblong shapes, finished with convex glass.

Soap, S-o-a-p Today, 5c a Cake.

If we could only imitate in print the throaty trill with which the old-time Soap sellers called out their wares, you would have no need to read further.

In lieu thereof we must tell you that this Soap at 5c a cake is no ordinary Soap, but is made up of odd lots of all the very best kinds of Toilet Soaps. For instance—

Armour's Toilet Soaps, such odors as lily, carnation and fine art.
Colgate's Pine Tar Soap.
Old English Brown Windsor Soap.
Physician's Disenfecting Soap.
Lanoline, a German make of Soap.
Craddock's Blue Soap.
German Soap in Boxes.
Olive Oil Castile Soap in Chunks.

You will recall what you have heretofore paid for these several Soaps. We have nothing more to say except this: On account of the very low price we shall limit the purchase to 3 cakes today and tomorrow.
